July

CELEBRATION
A HUGE SUCCESS!

Things kicked off with an energetic parade that went around Lake 1 led by a Cy-Fair Volunteer Fire Department truck and ambulance, flags presented by area Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Art Cars and a variety of patriotically decorated vehicles, pets and over 100 bikes, strollers and wagons. Once the parade returned to the Family Pool area, neighbors gathered and recited the Pledge of Allegiance led by Ann Tatum, organizer of the event. Special thanks to the Constable's deputies who controlled the traffic and helped make the event special for everyone.

4TH OF JULY CELEBRATION A HUGE SUCCESS!

Neighbors young and old gathered at the Family Pool to celebrate Independence Day with a parade, hot dogs, sno-cones, desserts and more. Even with dire predictions of rain, things went off without a hitch and the bad weather and high temperatures held off until the event was over and everything was completely cleaned up. Thank you to the Weather Gods!

WOD

4th of July Celebration a Huge Success!

The fare for the day included hot dogs and sausages hot off the grill, chips and cookies, cold watermelon and various delicious desserts donated by the residents. Chilled bottles of water and refreshing sno-cones kept everyone hydrated. A bubble machine and toys for the kids were a fun surprise. A silent auction featuring over 50 donated items helped fund the event and also future events. Thank you to all who bid and bought items from the auction and extreme gratitude to those neighbors and nearby businesses who generously donated the auction items.

Please show appreciation with your patronage to these generous folks and businesses for donating for our Silent Auction.
