

Lorraine B. Kohl

1933 – 1998

Lorraine B. Kohl, age 64 of Pigeon, passed away Tuesday, June 16 at St. Luke's Hospital in Saginaw following a long illness.

She was born in Bay Port on September 26, 1933, the daughter of the late William B. and Erma (Beaver) Henne. On December 23, 1950 she was united in marriage to James A. Kohl in Bad Axe. He survives her.

Mrs. Kohl was a member of Bay Port High School's class of 1951. She was formerly employed at Eicher's Cleaners, Bay Port Elementary School, the Elkton I.G.A., as well as the Pigeon I.G.A. She was also a homemaker, and loved her grandchildren.

As a member of the Bay Port United Methodist Church, Mrs. Kohl taught Sunday School for 35 years, retiring in 1987. She was also a member of the United Methodist Women at her church.

Her survivors include her husband, James; three daughters, Kristina (David) Dietzel of Houghton Lake, Pamela King of Ubly, and Cheri (Paul) Gamo of Birch Run; two sons, Darin (Kim) Kohl of Big Rapids and Brian Kohl of Pigeon; nine grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; a great-grandson; four sisters, Hilma (Mac) McCaskey of Lansing, Dolores Lukasiak of Elkton, Letha (William) Chamberlain of Saginaw, and Grace (Floyd) McGillivray of Clio; three brothers, Roland Henne of Bay Port, Kenneth Henne of Frankenmuth, and Glenn (Audrey) Henne of Bay Port; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by two sons and a sister, LeEtta.

Funeral Services will be conducted at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, June 19 from the Bay Port United Methodist Church with Rev. Norman Beckwith, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in the New Bay Port Cemetery

Memorials may be made to the Bay Port United Methodist Church
