"IT IS FINISHED" (John 19:30)

The bible tells us that just before Jesus died on the cross, He cried out, "It is finished." And we of course recognize this to be a statement of closure. Some people come to the end of their lives with a list of regrets. They look back in despair at a life of pursuits that in the end came to nothing. They exit life wishing they had it to do all over again. But this was not true of Christ. There was a deep sense of fulfillment and accomplishment in his dying words:

"IT IS FINISHED!"

Those who first heard His cry may've wondered just what was finished. Was he simply referring to the end of his life? Was His the cry of a frustrated criminal who met an untimely end? We do well to note that he did not say; "I am finished!" But what was the "it" that was finished?

Our theologians tell us that Jesus was calling our attention to His finished work on the cross. The task of securing our salvation was fully completed at the Death of Christ. This Lenten season, we hear the distinct echo of a promise that Christ made us from the cross. It assures us that we are fully forgiven for our sins. And it beckons us to move closer to God.

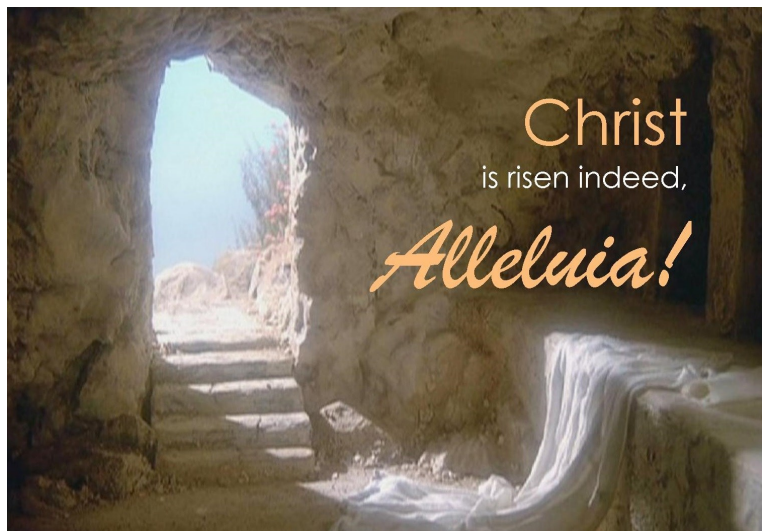

Letter From Pastor Amy

Dear Chapel Hill,

Praise be to God! Our Savior has risen from the dead, leaving behind an empty tomb. And like the disciples, we are learning what it means to be Easter people. We are people of hope, who know that our Savior is the ultimate conqueror of death. And that is something that changes the basic nature of how we live. For our lives came at a price- the price of the cross. We are valued beyond measure and our lives and those of everyone that Jesus came to save matter.

John tells us that when the disciples first encountered the Risen Christ, they were hiding behind locked doors.

The disciples had let fear take over their lives since the moment that Jesus was arrested. Yet Jesus appeared among them, shining light into their darkest moments. Breathing on them, He gave them a chance to truly live. As Easter people, we can truly live life abundantly. We can shower each other with love and mercy, because we have received love and mercy from our Savior. Church, you are greatly and dearly loved! Hallelujah! He has risen indeed.

With Many Blessings,
Pastor Amy

Thank You

THANK YOU

To My Chapel Hill Church family –

My sincere thanks to Pastors Mike and Amy for being with me on the day of my surgery and the days that followed while I was in the hospital and also to those who visited me in the hospital and after I came home. My thanks to those who brought food, sent cards, text messages and emails to wish me well and to check on my status. Someone was checking on me daily.

A special thanks to those in my small group and choir who ran errands and grocery shopped for me – who drove me to my appointments and provided me “wheels” while I could not drive. I could not have managed without your help.

And to all who prayed for me I am most appreciative and I am grateful for every prayer. May God bless each and every one of you. LaNova Cook

CHAPEL KIDS NEWS

March was filled with tons of fun - science experiments, rainbow spaghetti sensory bins, seed planting, and so much more! April is bringing us to our last month for this school year with our graduation ceremony on April 27th. We are looking forward to a great end to this school year!

PRESCHOOL NEWS

During the month of March, we taught our preschoolers that THEY could follow Jesus! We even had a chance to celebrate Ollie's (the owl who helps tell our Bible stories) birthday!

We have BIG NEWS that we will be hearing about all this month. Are you ready? JESUS. IS. ALIVE.

We have the awesome privilege of telling our preschoolers that Jesus is God's son, and He wants to be their friend forever! It truly is BIG NEWS! In week one, we will hear the wonderful story about how Jesus lived, died and came back, just like He promised. During week two, we will learn how the early church didn't just tell others about the BIG NEWS. They showed them by taking care of one another. In week three, we get to hear the amazing story of how Saul changed when he met Jesus. In week four, Paul and Silas show us that no matter how hard it is, we can tell others about Jesus. We will wrap up the month in week five learning how to give the best gift, just like Peter and John did. And what is the best gift? Jesus of course! We are looking forward to a wonderful month and we hope to see your child there!

Children's News

Happy Easter from the Children's Department! Thank you to everyone who came out and celebrated and helped us at the Easter Egg Hunt!

God is patient. Why? Well, because God is in control and He knows how the story ends. Because of Jesus' sacrifice, we know how the story ends, too. Because of Jesus, WE CAN WAIT. We can trust that God is in control. We can have hope that things will work out in the end. And we can be patient because we know all that God has done.

For the month of April, the kids will be learning that PATIENCE is waiting until later for what you want now.

PSALM 27:14, NIRV "WAIT FOR THE LORD. BE STRONG AND DON'T LOSE HOPE. WAIT FOR THE LORD!"

Please join us in April on either Sundays at 9:30am or 11am and Wednesdays at 6pm!

- WEEK 1: The Easter Story, The Bible (Bottom Line Image: Jesus is Alive)
- WEEK 2: Hannah Prays for a Baby, 1 Samuel 1:6–2:1 (Bottom Line Image: When you think you can't wait, talk to God about it.)
- WEEK 3: A Patience Poverb, Proverbs 14:29 (Bottom Line Image: When you think you can't wait, keep your cool)
- WEEK 4: Golden Calf, Exodus 32:1-35 (Bottom Line Image: When you think you can't wait, think about what's true)
- WEEK 5: Esau's Impatience, Genesis 25:24-34 (Bottom Line Image: When you think you can't wait, think twice)
