

Your search for the best margarita in Phoenix is over!

Dear Kari,

You have been on a quest to find the restaurant with the best margarita in Phoenix for over five years. Your quest has been relentless as you have followed up with countless restaurants and too many margaritas to remember. That search is over! I found the best margarita ever at Z'Tejas.

The award-winning Chambord Frozen Margarita is to die for. It is DANGEROUSLY good. You can see the deep red Chambord swirled through the frozen concoction. One sip of this smooth and refreshing drink and you will understand why I am so excited to share this discovery with you. The icy drink will quench your thirst and the tequila will make you happy all over. Any time someone writes a review or talks about Z'Tejas, the margaritas are always mentioned, and you will find out for yourself why! One restaurant reviewer said, "You're in for a treat when you come here. The margaritas live up to their reputation and the food is delicious. You'll want to come for Happy Hour and stay until closing."

I know how much you love cornbread, and when the aroma of their cornbread still warm from the oven is delivered to the table your mouth will start to water. There are many great selections to choose from on the extensive menu. Whether you are in the mood for a Parmesan Pecan-crusted Chicken Salad, the Five-cheese Macaroni and Archiote Chicken, Crispy Salmon, or a Steak Fajitas, there is something on the menu that you will want to try. My personal favorite is the Wild Mushroom Enchilada. One of my business colleagues hadn't been to the restaurant before and he raved about it. He even sent me a note the next day that stated, "I am a vegetarian and wasn't sure I'd like the food, but the cornbread was amazing and couldn't have enough of it! When the server brought a second pan of it, I was thrilled. I still managed to have room for the mushroom enchilada - the sauce was perfect! I was able to eat the side of beans, rice and chopped mango. Thank you for taking me to such a great restaurant!"

Remember when we were sitting on your patio on a Friday evening and you said that one of your favorite things to do after a busy day at work is to sit outside and enjoy a cool drink and relaxing dinner? The intimate, shaded patio at Z'Tejas is perfect for relaxing and people-watching while you sip on that special margarita. The great dining experience continues with tasty appetizers and dinner. The friendly, knowledgeable staff will guide you through their delectable options for a fantastic dinner.

Still not convinced? Today is National Tequila Day and Z'Tejas is having a special price on their margaritas until 7:00 pm. I will pick you up at 5:00 p.m. tonight so you can experience for yourself the best margarita. EVER. All while you are surrounded by the perfect atmosphere and delicious food. Your search is over!

See you tonight.

Julie

P.S. If you don't agree that the frozen margarita is the best one you've ever tasted, and the food is fabulous, I will buy your dinner!
