Colossians 3:1-17

How to Live as the Saints

If then you have been raised with Christ,
seek the things that are above,
where Christ is,
seated at the right hand of God.

Set your minds on things that are above,
not on things that are on earth.

Colossians 3:1-2

Colossians 3:1-17

Purge Earthly Things

Put to death what is earthly in you:

*Sexual Immorality, Impurity, Passion, Evil Desire, & Covetousness,
which is idolatry.*

On account of these the wrath of God is coming.

Steps to sainthood

Process of being declared a saint by the Roman Catholic Church

Canonization (sainthood)

- After proof of a second posthumous miracle, the pope will canonize the candidate

Examination

- Typically, a candidate must be dead at least five years before review
- Local bishop put in charge of investigating candidate's life
- If deemed worthy, called "servant of God"

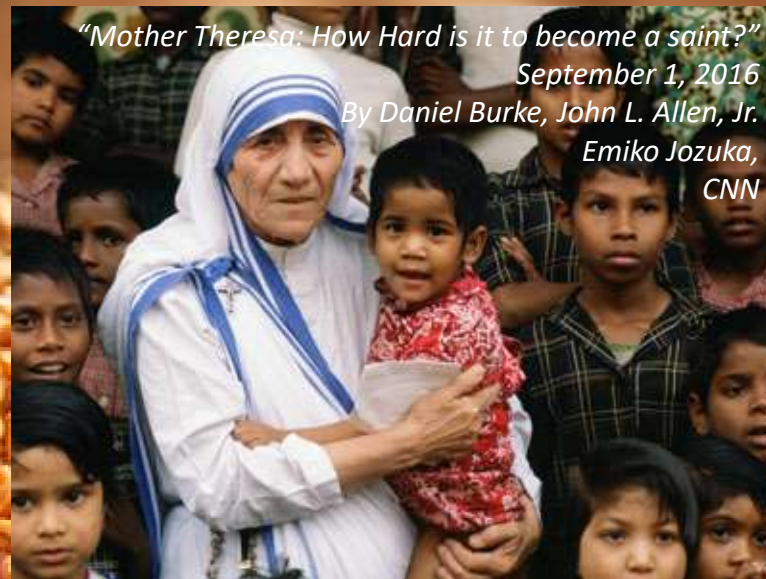

Veneration

- If investigation shows candidate lived by heroic Christian virtues, earns title "venerable"

Beatification

- If it is proved that candidate is responsible for a posthumous miracle, candidate declared "blessed"; martyrs can be beatified without evidence of miracle

Part 5. With the Saints in Heaven and the Saint on Earth

1. You have been raised with Christ.

Holiness is a gift, it is a gift that the Lord Jesus gives us, when He takes us to Himself, clothes us with Himself, and renders us like Himself. In the Letter to the Ephesians, the Apostle Paul affirms that “Christ loved the Church and gave Himself up for her, that He might sanctify her” (Ephesians 5:25-26). There, holiness is truly the most beautiful face of the Church: it is to rediscover oneself in communion with God, in the fullness of His life and of His love. One understands, then, that holiness is not only the prerogative of some: holiness is a gift that is offered to all; no one is excluded, it is what constitutes the distinctive character of every Christian.

We Are Called to Become Saints!

Pope Francis speaks to YOU and I during his November 19 General Audience:

"But, father, I work in a factory... I work as an accountant, always with the numbers, I cannot be a saint there..."

"Yes, you can!
There, where you work you can become a saint."

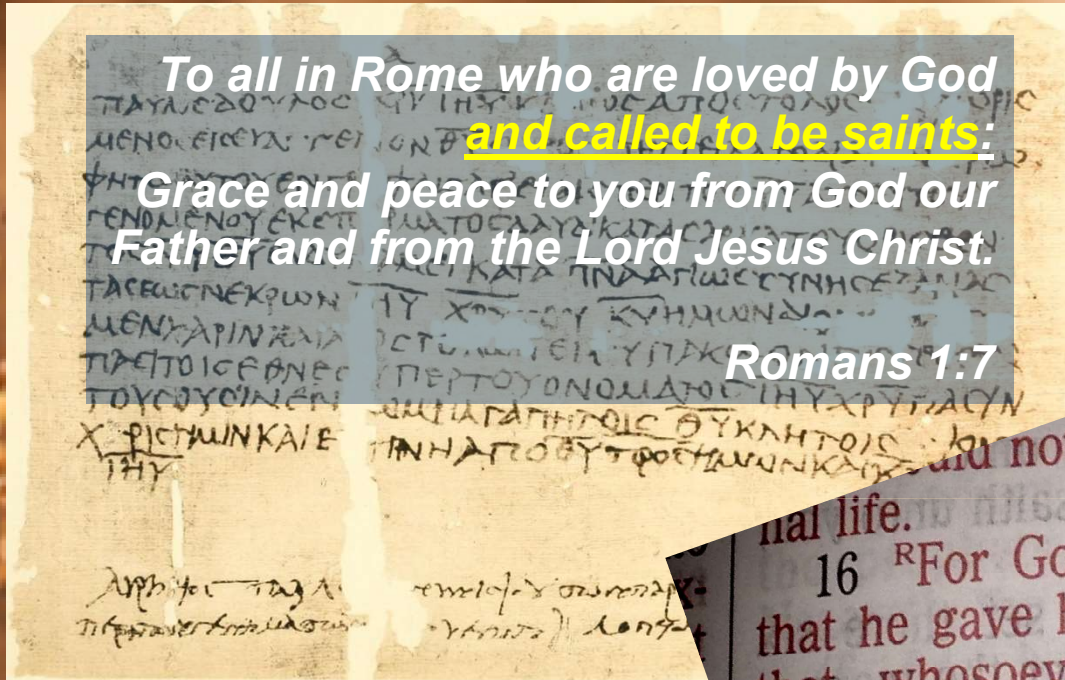

-Pope Francis

- A close-up photograph of a person's hand, palm up, holding a large quantity of golden wheat grains. Some grains are falling from the hand, creating a sense of movement. The background is a soft, out-of-focus brown, suggesting a field of wheat. The lighting is warm and natural, highlighting the texture of the grains and the skin of the hand.
