

Dear incoming parents of K-235,

I would like to take this time to welcome you to a brand new school year and experience. I look forward to meeting each and everyone of you. I am hoping that we can work as a team to create an environment which will allow your child to flourish. Please support our class by providing the following materials for the first day of school:

4 composition notebooks pre-labeled with your child's first and last name

1 black folder

1 orange folder

1 red folder

Thank you for your support and cooperation.
