

HEY, YOU FORGOT THE “S” - IT’S OBAMACARES

NEW JERSEY ATTORNEY DISTRIBUTES CAR BUMPER BANNERS TO GET HIS POINT ACROSS

(New York, New York, Tuesday, August 7, 2012) - Phil Kurnit, Esq. wants to let everyone know that the “S” was left off of the slogan the Republicans are touting to demean and trivialize Obama’s Affordable Health Care program. In an effort to use the phrase as a compliment for President Obama’s effort to help more Americans, Kurnit’s media company, Winthrop Media Group, based out of Montclair, New Jersey, has created, manufactured and is distributing a magnetic car bumper banner that simply states OBAMACARES, adding the “S” in a most obvious way. Kurnit has spent his adult life as an entertainment attorney representing successful record labels, producers and recording artists; he wants to engage all Obama supporters to show their pride through the banners. With people buying the banners directly on line from Winthrop Media’s website, don’t be surprised if you see the bumper sticker somewhere out on America’s Mother Road, Route 66. Kurnit boasts, “We’re ready to get orders from all over the US. We aren’t making any money on these banners. We are simply doing our best to support an American President who really cares about the future health and well-being of its citizens!” Winthrop Media is also actively reaching out to the Hispanic/Latino community with an additional magnetic banner that reads, NO CONFÍES EN ROMNEY! (DON’T TRUST ROMNEY!). Kurnit says “Romney lies out of both sides of his mouth, and no matter what he now tries to say to fake out the Latino voters he made himself clear in the primary debates: he intends to and demonstrated that he will lead the anti-immigrant movement of the Republican radical conservatives, further spearheaded now by ridiculous bills to outlaw Spanish from any signs and forms.”

Kurnit adds, “We have made the banners in order to controvert the invidious smearing of the Affordable Health Care ACT to camouflage their allegiance to private insurance companies that have been a substantial source of campaign funds for Republican candidates, and the source of significant dividends for Republican stockholders. It’s about time that America concentrates on the health and affordable care of all Americans. Should people who receive health insurance through their employers not care about the difficulties and jeopardies facing the rest of the country who don’t have those benefits and don’t have the benefit of preventive medicine? The same nonsensical attacks were made against the Social Security Act in the 1930’s and the Medicare legislation in the 1970’s. Where would we be today without that social legislation? And too many Republican Senators and Congressmen are still trying to kill those programs. This is the 21st century, not the Dark Ages, but, obviously, they didn’t get free calendars from their banks.”
