Such measures shall include, but not be limited to, at least the same degree of care that Receiving Party utilizes to protect its own confidential information of a similar nature, including his or her own personal identifying personal, health and financial information and data, which shall be no less than commercially reasonable care. If any incident which gives rise to a risk of unauthorized disclosure, loss, destruction or alteration of the Confidential information, and particularly Personal Data, occurs as a result of the Receiving Party's use of the Network Resources, or if Receiving Party becomes aware of actual or threatened unauthorized disclosure, loss, destruction or alteration of the Confidential information, Receiving Party shall immediately inform Magna in writing of becoming aware of such an incident and fully cooperate with Magna and the PHT in any effort undertaken by Magna or the PHT to enforce its rights related to any such unauthorized disclosure, and Magna shall, upon receipt of such written information, take reasonable steps to limit the risk of unauthorized disclosure, loss, destruction, or alteration of the Confidential Information, which may include immediately disabling all usernames and passwords or otherwise limiting access until Magna is in receipt of written notice from Receiving Party that such risk has been mitigated.

3. Proper Disclosure. Disclosure of Confidential Information shall not be precluded hereby if such disclosure is: (i) made in response to a valid order of a court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Authority of the United States or any political subdivision thereof of competent jurisdiction having supervisory jurisdiction over Receiving Party, or during the course of a supervisory or regulatory examination; or (ii) otherwise required by Law, in the opinion of legal counsel to the Receiving Party as expressed in an opinion letter in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the PHT, which shall be provided to the PHT at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to Receiving Party's disclosure of Confidential Information pursuant to this Section 3.
