This contract is for a named subscription plan as defined on the North Alabama Wagyu website. Either subscription includes three different selection of cuts, one per month, in rotation over a three-month period.

Term of the contract is indicated by the selected billing option. It is renewable at the mutual agreement of the parties.

The purchase price includes the cost of the cuts of beef, processing, and incremental delivery to a local Farmers Market meeting point. Applicable sales tax for the delivery location will be added to the cost.
