

Date	12/26/2015
Course	Neshanic Valley (R/M) (69.1 /123)
Weather	Cool, cloudy, breezy low 50's
In what best can be described with a quote from a classic movie "What we got here is a failure to communicate" it was that type of day for the DGA. Mix in a no show, switching of groups, cart partner questions, 2 different post round bars, and the actual golf was incidental. Greens were very slow and covered with dead worms making golf difficult as was seen by the scoring. Jim Petronchak overcomes a very slow start with a strong finish (finally figured out how hard to putt) to best Larry Thiry (who played the 1st hole without tying his shoes) by 3 strokes. Probably one of the few county DGA rounds where no one finished in the 60's.
