The image displays a large grid of colored cells, likely representing a data table. The grid consists of 20 columns and 30 rows. The colors of the cells are arranged in a repeating pattern. The first column is light yellow. The second column is light green. The third column is bright yellow. The fourth column is light blue. The fifth column is light yellow. The sixth column is light purple. The seventh column is light orange. The eighth column is light yellow. The remaining 12 columns (9-20) are light yellow. The rows are separated by thin grey lines, and the columns are separated by thin grey lines. The overall appearance is that of a spreadsheet or data table with a consistent color scheme.

The image displays a grid of 20 rows and 8 columns of colored cells, resembling a spreadsheet. The colors are consistent across all rows, indicating a uniform data set or a specific visualization style. The columns are colored as follows: Column 1 is yellow, Column 2 is light green, Column 3 is bright yellow, Column 4 is light blue, Column 5 is pale yellow, Column 6 is light purple, Column 7 is light orange, and Column 8 is yellow. The grid is bordered by thin grey lines, and there are horizontal and vertical cyan lines separating the columns and rows.

The image displays a large grid of colored cells, likely representing a data table. The grid consists of 20 columns and 30 rows. The colors of the cells are arranged in a repeating pattern. The first column is light yellow. The second column is light green. The third column is bright yellow. The fourth column is light blue. The fifth column is light yellow. The sixth column is light purple. The seventh column is light orange. The eighth column is light yellow. The remaining 12 columns (from the 9th to the 20th) are light yellow. The rows are also colored in a repeating pattern: the first row is light yellow, the second row is light green, the third row is bright yellow, the fourth row is light blue, the fifth row is light yellow, the sixth row is light purple, the seventh row is light orange, and the eighth row is light yellow. This pattern repeats every 8 rows.

The image shows a large grid of colored cells, likely representing a data table. The grid consists of 20 rows and 10 columns. The colors of the cells are as follows:

- Column 1: Yellow
- Column 2: Light Green
- Column 3: Yellow
- Column 4: Light Blue
- Column 5: Yellow
- Column 6: Light Yellow
- Column 7: Light Purple
- Column 8: Light Orange
- Column 9: Yellow

The grid is bordered by a thick teal line on the top and bottom, and a thick grey line on the left and right.
