World Day of Prayer for Vocations Sunday, May 7, 2017

The purpose of this day is to answer the Lord's call to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates Her attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries, and to Religious life for men and women.

Prayer for Vocations
"God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen "

Las lecturas describen ese tiempo cuando los seguidores de Jesús estando confundidos y atemorizados buscaban a los apóstoles para preguntarles que tenían que hacer después de la crucifixión y resurrección. La respuesta parece simple. Ellos deben creer que Jesús, a quien habían crucificado, es el Señor y Cristo, Dios y hombre. Ellos deben reconocer su complicidad en su muerte y buscar perdón. Ellos deben ser bautizados. En la primera carta de Pedro la norma para su comportamiento es el comportamiento de Jesús, igual a nosotros menos en el pecado, cargó nuestros pecados y sin devolver insultos o amenazas. Pedro presenta la imagen del pastor que cuida de nosotros que hemos ido por el camino incorrecto. El Evangelio no enfatiza el liderazgo del pastor, sino que cada uno de nosotros somos llamados por nuestro nombre.

pastor. Escuchamos al pastor que nos llama por nuestro nombre. No se nos llama para hacer un seguimiento pasivo. Se nos llama para reconocer nuestro nombre cuando se menciona. Debemos escuchar para que podamos oír la voz de aquel que verdaderamente sabe quiénes somos, no superficialmente, como "soy doctor", o "soy mamá". Nuestro verdadero nombre conocido por nuestro Creador es mucho más que las funciones que hacemos o el trabajo que realizamos. Si mi nombre es quién verdaderamente soy, entonces debo escuchar a aquel que me llama "perdonado", "misericordioso" y "amado". Porque este es mi verdadero nombre. Esta es mi verdadera naturaleza.

MAY 7, 2017 FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

THE CALL OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The Twenty-third Psalm, today's responsorial psalm, is arguably the best known of all the psalms. The line that reads "Even though I walk in the dark valley / I fear no evil; for you are at my side / with your rod and your staff / that give me courage" (Psalm 23:4) connects this week's scriptures to the wonderful story of the road to Emmaus, which we heard last week. The Lord Jesus, our Good Shepherd, is constantly at our side. He calls us each by name, beckoning us into a deeper relationship with him. That call, issued to each of us at the moment of our baptism, carries with it the promise of the Good Shepherd: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The fact that many monastic churches do not have a prominent tabernacle shapes the patterns of liturgical prayer. Monastic communities often protect the ancient value of "receiving from the same sacrifice," meaning that the communicants are assured that what they eat and drink in the Holy Mysteries actually comes from the same celebration. It surprises many to learn that the Church does not foresee, nor does it provide for, Communion of the faithful from the reserved Sacrament. Liturgical laws have long defended your right to receive from the same sacrifice, the same Mass, that you attend.

At one time, of course, the bread for the Eucharist was the ordinary bread of the day, except unleavened, probably prepared at home. It was broken and distributed to the faithful. Early on the loaf itself was referred to as the hostia in Latin, meaning the "sacrifice," the same word for the sacrificial animal in Jewish worship, and for Jesus as the Lamb of God. By giving his life on the cross, Jesus became the hostia for us. To this day in the Greek Church, one of the tasks of the priest's wife is to bake the bread for the Divine Liturgy, sometimes in a bakery oven dedicated to that purpose and called a "Bethlehem."

Today's familiar individual hosts first appeared in the eleventh century at about the time when tabernacles were coming into use. The turn away from "breadly" bread allowed the hosts to be reserved since they did not spoil like regular bread, and made the annual "Easter duty" counts easier.
