

LORRAINE A. JAHR

1924-1994

Lorraine A. Jahr, 70, Sebawaing native and lifelong resident, died Monday afternoon, Sept. 5, in her home following a 6-year illness.

She was born Aug. 27, 1924, in Sebawaing, the daughter of Walter and Emma (Simon) Rievert.

She was married to Thomas E. Jahr, Sr., on Aug. 4, 1944, in Leonia, NJ, and he survives her.

She had been receptionist and secretary for the Sebawaing Blade for several years and later was a chef for the Briggs family in Detroit for 6 years before retiring 6 years ago.

She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church, Sebawaing, was its youth director and a former member of the Women's Civic Organization. She had been active in her bridge club for more than four decades.

Surviving, besides her husband Thomas are two sons and two daughters and their spouses, Thomas E. & Joyce Jahr, Jr. of Sebawaing, Stuart and Dawn Jahr of Bay City, Geraldine L. and Wilbert Burley of Plymouth and Katherine L. and Barry Bolger of Northville, seven grandchildren, Krista and Scott Jahr of Sebawaing, Marci and Jason Bolger of Northville, Charles Burley of Plymouth and Heather and Zachery Jahr of Bay City; one sister and brother-in-law, Carolyn and Ray Gage of North Fort Myers, FL, one brother and sister-in-law, Kenneth and Marvel Rievert of Sebawaing and several nieces and nephews.

One brother, Robert Rievert, preceded her in death.

The funeral service took place Thursday morning, Sept. 8, in Trinity Church, Sebawaing. Rev. Michael Norton officiated and burial was in Memorial Park Cemetery, Sebawaing. Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Those wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider Trinity Church.