Our Community

OCIA (ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS)

What is the catechumenate?

As a person completes the period of inquiry and moves into the period of the catechumenate he/she is welcomed to a time of further learning, prayer, outreach to those in need and further understanding of community.

At this time each candidate/catechumen is given a sponsor who assists them in this time of deeper commitment.

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm accepting setting.

For information please contact our parish office at 270-684-4745.

Thank you...

The family of Kenny Clark would like to thank the parishioners of St. Pius Tenth for your help and prayers during Kenny's illness and death. He looked forward to Fr. Babu's visits each Friday, and he felt the power of the offering of the Eucharist and the prayers. He also enjoyed being visited by Delores Turnage each Sunday when she brought him Communion.

Fr. Babu performed a beautiful funeral Mass for Kenny. We also want to thank Tracie Feldpausch and Sue Zoglmann for the music at the funeral and Eddie Mattingly for being alter server. And a big thank you to all who provided the meal after the funeral - it was delicious.

Again, thank you to all who helped us during this sad time. Your efforts were all greatly appreciated.

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE

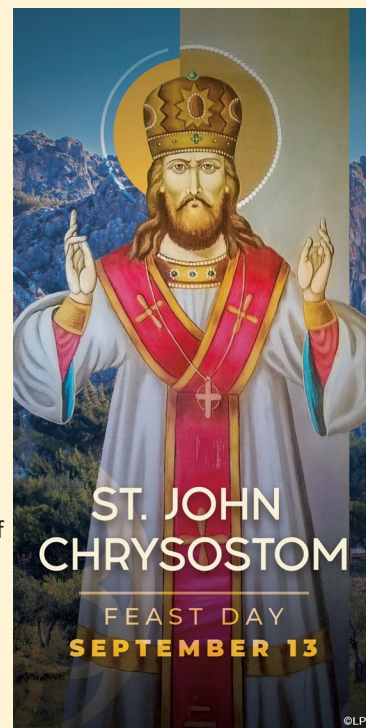

Saint John Chrysostom

Born in Antioch in the 4th century, and raised by his widowed mother, Saint John received a rigorous classical education. He was first called to the ascetic life, even spending time as an anchorite living in a cave near Antioch. However, this life of extreme mortification was hard on his physical body, and he eventually returned to the city to recover. Saint John was ordained in 298. He spent the next 12 years preaching in the Cathedral of Antioch, and it was most likely during this time that he earned the name Chrysostom which means “golden-mouthed.”

In 397 or 398 he was made archbishop of Constantinople against his will. This post placed Saint John in the midst of imperial politics. But he would not be drawn in. He kept a modest household without extravagance and refused to serve the sumptuous suppers for political supplicants that predecessors in the position had. He preached against corruption and decadence and fought for the reform of clergy even deposing corrupt bishops.

Unfortunately, this high moral stance made enemies of powerful people at court and in the Church. They conspired against him and eventually Saint John was exiled to Armenia. He died in exile in 407. He was made a Father of the Church at the Council of Chalcedon in 451 and declared a Doctor of the Church in 1568.
