

Celebrity Guest – Lilly Melgar

Lilly Melgar can be seen on the Emmy winning web series, "The Bay The Series", now on Amazon, which was named one of the best four web soaps to watch by Entertainment Weekly 2015. You can also see Melgar on the big screen in the upcoming film, "NONA", directed by Michael Polish and Produced by Kate Bosworth. A film about human trafficking. She plays Madame Mariposa. She's also in the teen comedy film, "To The Beat!" and the 4 part mini series, "Ladies Of The Lake" both also on Amazon. Melgar's directorial debut was the opening video for "The Spice Girls Reunion Tour" whereby she has continued directing video content for major concert tours, most notably short videos played throughout the "Britney Spears Live: The Femme Fatale Tour" and most recently for the "Madonna: Rebel Heart Tour". Currently, she is part of the directing team for video content for Ricky Martin's "All In" Vegas Residency. Melgar won Best Lead Actress in 2016 from the Indie Series Awards (ISA7) for her work as Janice Ramos on The Bay The Series and was nominated for an Emmy in the Best Lead Actress in a digital series category 2016, 2017, and 2018. After producing and starring in a couple of short films in 2015, Twice Emmy winning producer, Melgar, will be producing a comedy series she will also star in.