

Ralph DiLeone

Ralph DiLeone obtained his Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Case Western Reserve University in 1977, after which he worked for Arthur Andersen & Company in Cleveland, Ohio as a Senior Tax Accountant. Ralph then earned his Juris Doctor cum laude from the University of Toledo College Of Law in 1984 and continued utilizing his accounting background when he began practicing law in 1984. After 21 years in two large law firms in Cleveland, Ohio and serving as Vice President/General Counsel for 2 North Carolina companies - Hardee's Food Systems, Inc. and Swifty Serve Corporation, one large publicly traded and one large privately held corporation, Ralph started his own business – The DiLeone Law Group, PC. His combination of legal, accounting and business experience has been very influential in operating his own business and in counseling his clients.

Ralph currently serves on the Board of Directors for Junior Achievement of Eastern North Carolina and on the Advisory Board for The First Year College at NC State University. He has also served on the Board of Directors of the Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce and the Interfaith Food Shuttle. He participates in the Membership Council for Capital City Club and volunteers his time for different events at NC State, where his son is an accounting major at The Poole College of Management. Ralph is also an Adjunct Professor of Law at Campbell Law School in Raleigh and has been a guest lecturer several times at the UNC School of Law and the NC State College of Textiles. Ralph is a member of the Knights of Columbus and St. Raphael the Archangel Catholic Church in Raleigh. He presents estate planning seminars through the Catholic Diocese of Raleigh in parishes throughout the Triangle as well as other seminars on various business topics around the Triangle.