Colorado River Round Up Rodeo

2020 Royalty Competition

Rules and Regulations

1. All contestants should uphold all the same moral standards & integrity as current royalty. You are still representing our rodeo while participating as a contestant. It is the discretion of the Royalty Director and Board to deduct points from your overall score based on behavior at all events leading up to Saturday's royalty announcement.
2. Contestants shall not be permitted to consume alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs, smoke, or use offensive language any time during the competition and/or while representing Needles and the Colorado River Round Up Rodeo.
3. Horses shall not be shared during horsemanship competition. Contestants must use one horse once the horsemanship competition begins; the same horse for all phases of the horsemanship competition.
4. Any attempt to persuade, influence or harass any of the judges or any other contestants at any time shall result in disqualification of the contestant involved, whether or not the act or acts were committed by the contestant, relative parent, friend or associate.
5. All contestants will be expected to sell a MINIMUM of $200 in 50/50 tickets during the time of application submission and April 3rd. Prize will be given for most money turned in. If you need more tickets, contact Kim Willis. All money is to be turned in NO LATER than check-in on Friday, April 3rd.
6. It is the discretion of the royalty director and Board to determine whether or not contestant is capable of performing during rodeo performances. This is a rodeo first and foremost and we cannot have unsafe or inexperienced riders in the arena, causing an unsafe environment or holding up the rodeo.
7. All contestants must be willing to stay for the entire rodeo performance each day and help out with whatever asked of them.

8. Any contestant in violation of any one or more of these rules and regulations shall be subject to disqualification and the decision of the royalty director and Needles Rodeo Association SHALL BE Final.
9. If chosen, the Royalty is required to attend various community activities including, but not limited to – parades, social functions, rodeo sponsored events, and other rodeos. Chosen Royalty can attend as many rodeos and events as they like, with the director’s permission. These are some of the mandatory events: Andy Devine Days, Kingman (June & September), CRRU Poker Run/Jeep Dinner (November), GCPRA Finals, Laughlin (November), Little Delbert Days, Lake Havasu (January) & all of the 2021 CRRU Rodeo events (March/April).
10. Except for any stipend donated by the Needles Rodeo Association, Royalty shall pay for all expenses incurred in attending rodeos or events required under these rules and regulations and shall not be entitled to any reimbursement for such costs or any Association compensation for fulfilling her obligations as Royalty.
11. The selected Royalty shall not appear at any activity or event on behalf of the Colorado River Round Up Rodeo/Needles rodeo association without prior approval of the royalty director.
12. At all times while participating in any scheduled activities, contestants shall abide by the supervision of the royalty director.
13. At all official appearances and events, when appearing on behalf of the Colorado River Round Up Rodeo, the Royalty shall wear appropriate western clothing, crown, sash, and provide her own horse if necessary.
14. Four Queen’s sponsor packages must be sold between the chosen Queen & Princess during sponsorship sell prior to the 2021 CRRU Rodeo.
15. IF ANY OF THE ROYALTY IS UNABLE OR UNWILLING TO PERFORM HER OBLIGATIONS UNDER THESE RULES AND REGULATIONS, SHE, UPON REQUEST OF THE ASSOCIATION, SHALL RETURN ALL PRIZES AND AWARDS TO THE NEEDLES RODEO ASSOCIATION.
