A Letter from Miss Jessica:

Wow. What a year it has been! I am so proud and thrilled that we have reached this day, and we get to enjoy a Showcase together, even if it's virtual. When we started Season 8, I knew it was going to be a special season, but I didn't know how much of an impact it would end up having on all of us. It will truly be a year no one will ever forget. Through it all there are two ladies that I will never be able to thank enough. Miss Alexa & Miss Gwynn- from the first conversation we had about closing the studio for everyone's safety, they were there with support, ideas, and grace. Any idea I had, they jumped right in with me and helped make it happen. I truly do not know where we would be today if we didn't have them as a part of this DPDC family. I would additionally like to thank Scott for his extreme support and help through this pandemic and making the virtual show possible. He worked hours on securing all of the lights you are about to see, setting them up, running them each day for the kids and so much more. Thank you to my family as well as Miss Alexa & Miss Gwynn's families for their kindness and support for all of us throughout this time. A HUGE thank you goes out to Ron McKinney and his son Mike McKinney who stayed with us for an entire week making sure that these videos would be possible. Mike has spent over 100 hours editing these and putting them together for us, and for that we can never thank him enough. As you watch today's show, I hope that you feel proud of your dancers for their perseverance and ending their dance year strong, no matter the obstacle. Through video learning, Zoom, private lessons, masked rehearsals, and performing in front of a camera with no audience, these kids bring tears to my eyes every day with their joy and love for dance. What a beautiful gift we have that we can pass on our passion and joy to the next generation. I will forever be eternally grateful for every single person in our DPDC family. Thank you for continuing to support our business and my dream. Thank you for your kind emails and words of encouragement when we needed it most. Thank you for adapting to a new way of dancing and jumping in feet first with us. Thank you for your donations, help, and kindness through our studio flooding and now our re-model. I don't know where I would be today without all of you. I hope you enjoy the show. And as always, "Keep on dancing."

All my love, Miss Jessica

Miss Jessica

Miss Jessica began her love for dance while being a part of the competitive show choir 'Swingsations.' Her love grew while attending Lincoln College on a dance scholarship and being a part of its dance company, Dance Force. Jessica graduated from Lincoln College with her A.A. in Liberal Arts and was awarded the Dance award for outstanding achievements in dance. She then went on to graduate from Columbia College Chicago with her B.A. in Dance. While attending Columbia, Jessica worked for Youth Guidance of America teaching dance in its extended day program at an inner city school in Chicago. Miss Jessica has been sharing her love for dance in the Chicagoland area for the past 10 years. In addition to teaching she also travels to various high schools throughout the country to choreograph show choirs and musicals. Musical choreography credits include: Joseph and the amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, The Wiz, The Music Man, Grease, Cinderella Jr., Annie, Seaussical, Totally 80's and Once on This Island. Jessica's choirs have won numerous awards including Best Choreography in 2011. Jessica spent her summers performing at Six Flags Great America for 7 seasons where she served as the Dance Captain for 6 years. Miss Jessica continues to share her love for show choir by adjudicating competitions in Illinois, Indiana, and Wisconsin. Jessica opened Dynamic Perception Dance Company in October of 2012 and has been sharing her love ever since. She has led the DPDC Dancers to multiple first overall awards, best choreography, best use of staging and props, and a very special award given by one of the stars from "Dance Moms" for Best Sportsmanship & Backstage Etiquette. The Company was also awarded the prestigious Top Studio award for receiving the overall highest scores among other studios in attendance in 2014 & 2016. DPDC was also awarded the ADCC studio of excellence award in 2015. Miss Jessica is thrilled to begin her 9th year with DPDC and can't wait to see what the future holds.

She earned her BFA in Ballet and Modern Dance from Texas Christian University where she graduated magna cum laude and performed in works by established artists, such as Carrie Hanson, Susan Jaffe, Loretta Livingston, Sarah Gamblin and many others. While studying at TCU, Alexa served as the Co-Director of Community Outreach and Public Relations for the Chi Tau Epsilon Dance Honor Society. She was most recently a company member of Kim Robards Dance, a teacher at The Academy of Kim Robards Dance, and a guest choreographer for Life/Art Dance Ensemble.
