WORLD DAY OF THE SICK FEBRUARY 11TH

The ministry of Jesus to the sick is central to the life of the Church. February 11th (Memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes) highlights the healing ministry of the Church. It reminds us that service to the sick and suffering cannot be neglected. It recognizes the great efforts of doctors, nurses, health care institutions and pastoral care givers to restore health to those afflicted with illness and disease.

Ash Wednesday is nearing. Lent Begins Wednesday February 14th. Lent is a time of fasting, prayer, and repentance as believers prepare for the celebration of Easter Sunday. Ashes that are used to mark the beginning of Lent come from the branches that were blessed and distributed the previous Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord. This season of reflection and self-discipline involves practices such as abstaining from certain indulgences, fostering a deeper spiritual connection, and commemorating the sacrifice of Jesus Christ.

We need your help: a call to show mercy to the poor

Safe and clean water for all people is a right. However, we often limit our actions surrounding this belief to drinking water; forgetting an all too prevalent emergency here in the Moncton area: the access to clean water for personal hygiene. We're looking for individuals who would be interested in joining a steering committee to help open a mission allowing the working poor and people experiencing extreme poverty to access a private shower, laundry services, a safe washroom and free hygiene and sanitary products. If you're interested in joining the steering committee, please contact Justin Mury by email at gasliturgy@gmail.com or by phone at (506) 863-5466.

Moncton, January 30, 2024

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

May God bless you as we begin the new year 2024!

It's indeed a year that's starting off on the right foot. Hallelujah!

As you are no doubt aware, the Archdiocese of Moncton has had to deal with the settlement of various legal claims made against former priests in our region for a number of years. Over the past 13 years, settling the claims of some 200 victims of abuse has required considerable effort and work to collect large sums of money. And God knows what sacrifices our parishes and the archdiocese have had to make to weather this unprecedented storm.

In order to meet the requirements of the court ruling, we had no recourse but to use the assets of the Archdiocese to meet the requirements of the ruling. Admittedly, these were difficult decisions to make, but they were necessary to avoid a major financial crisis, or even the bankruptcy of the Archdiocese, which would certainly have had an irreversible impact on the functioning or survival of all the parishes under our pastoral responsibility.

Despite our best efforts, we were still short by a considerable amount to meet the requirements imposed on us by the courts. At the beginning of September 2023, we had to borrow $900,000 from the Bank to finance our current operations. What's more, we still had to disburse some $5.4 million to finally bring the abuse case to a close. Since my arrival as Archbishop, Mgr Vienneau and I have embarked on a fund-raising campaign to pay the victims and the lawyers. In early December 2023, I wrote to all kinds of benefactors to help us overcome the looming crisis. Without hiding anything from these possible donors, I explained the dramatic financial situation that would lead us to contemplate insolvency (bankruptcy of the archdiocese).

It was at this point that a true miracle of Providence began to manifest itself to us just two weeks before the great feast of Christmas: the compassion and generosity of numerous benefactors who didn't even live in our diocese, suddenly enabled us to reposition ourselves financially. Thanks to their contributions, we were able to meet our financial and legal requirements, with a payment deadline of December 29, 2023. This is truly a miracle from God. Let's give Him thanks for this unspeakable favor!

I'm delighted that this new year has brought us a new outlook. I'm proud of the hard work accomplished by our parishioners, clergy, staff and volunteers. It's been a long and often difficult road. Now that our financial obligations have been met, we must turn the page, as I said in my homily on the day of my installation at Moncton Cathedral. On that day, I asked all those present: "Are you too ready to turn the page on the past of abuse? And everyone present that day answered loud and clear: "Yes!

Well, dear fellow priests, deacons, religious sisters and brothers, parishioners and faithful, the time has come for all of us to turn the page once and for all on this issue that has been more than thorny for so many years! We must now work together to find solutions that will enable us to rebuild our assets and properly support our operations and pastoral work. It goes without saying that strategic measures are required. So, in 2024, the Archdiocese will have to undertake this turning point by increasing the diocesan tax in order to rebuild the Archdiocese's finances. At present, we are the diocese with the lowest diocesan tax of all the Atlantic provinces. Other measures or projects will be undertaken and announced at a later date, in order to lift us up, not only financially, but also pastorally, morally and spiritually.

Dear parishioners, brothers and sisters, these are extraordinary measures because these are extraordinary times. Rest assured that we will do our best to find other ways to begin this journey of restoring the Archdiocese's finances. We will definitely do our best to communicate with you throughout this process.

My heart and vision for our archdiocese are for a living, missionary church whose apostolic zeal will be driven by the singular desire to bring Christ's message of hope and love to one and all. May the Holy Spirit guide us in this "synodal" journey, in this journey of solidarity and trust that now points to the horizon. May we all learn to walk together, hand in hand, respecting our different charisms and personalities, in order to accomplish the great task of evangelization that Jesus entrusts to each and every one of us.

In Christ, our Redeemer and with Mary, our Blessed Mother,
