Funeral services will be held graveside at 10:30 AM Friday, July 23, 2010 at Lakeview Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Oil City, LA officiated by Rev. Frank Carroll. The family will receive friends for a visitation on Thursday the 22nd from 5 - 7:30 PM at Gorsulowsky Funeral Home in Vivian, LA.

Mr. Gibson was preceded in death by his parents, Minard and Alice Gibson, three sisters and one brother. He is survived by: his wife of 57 years, Wonnye, his three daughters, Dana Weimar and husband Steve of Spring, Texas, Shawn Shepard and husband Bunker of Wheatland, Wyoming, Leah Rose and husband Chip of Oil City, Louisiana, six granddaughters; Candace and her husband Brant, Alexa, Samantha, Rylan, Lakyn and Raegan and one great granddaughter, Genevieve. He was a native of Kilgore, Texas and was a third generation pioneer in the East Texas and Northwest Louisiana oil well cementing industry. Mr. Gibson successfully owned and operated Gibson and Warren Oil Well Cementing Companies for over 40 years. He proudly served his country during the Korean War as a member of the U.S Air Force. He was a former President of the Oil City water board and was a member of the Oil City town council. In his retirement he enjoyed wood working, mowing his lawns and gardening his wife's turnip greens. Warren Gibson's most noteworthy accomplishment was his dedication to his family. The family wishes to thank Dr. John Haynes, Dr. Stephen Taylor, Dr. John Woods and the entire North Caddo Medical Center family for their professional service and unyielding compassion. In lieu of flowers the family requests donation be made to the North Caddo Medical Center Foundation, Attn: Mary Coil Executive Director, 1000 South Spruce St. Vivian, LA 71082.
