CLERGY COLUMN

Thank you to all who prayed for my speedy recovery. I am thankful I tested negative for Covid-19. It was just a bad chest cold, and I needed some time to rest.

St. Ann’s Fall dinner is coming up next Sunday (October 3). They are serving a Walleye dinner from 11:00—1:30. As this conflicts with their regular service time, Mass next weekend at St. Ann’s will be on Saturday Evening at 7:00 p.m. There will not be a Mass at Noon on Sunday.

First Friday is coming up. This month’s special Mass will be at 11 am in Oklee. On Saturday there is the usual First Saturday gathering and Holy Hour at 4:00 for the Latin Mass group. Everyone is welcome to come to the Holy Hour and potluck dinner.

Feast Day
 SS. Michael, Gabriel,
 and Raphael, Archangels
 Wednesday, September 29

On this Feast day, let us thank our Lord for the Archangels who have often entered into history as messengers in God's providential plan of salvation. Let us also remember our close connection with them in Christ, and frequently turn to them for their intercessory protection and assistance in times of trouble.

We are the Hands of Christ

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, a new neighbor, a new work colleague, a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home?

Many of us probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded.

A simple "hello" goes a long way.

Weekly Reflections

“Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.” MARK 9:41

We are made in God’s image and likeness. We tend to forget this. When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them? When others look at you, do they see the face of Jesus in you? When we realize that all lives matter to God, then gratitude and generosity become easier. Why? Because that’s the way we are made! We are one Body of Christ; when one of us is hurting, all of us feel the pain.
