9	Clark Historic Farm is just that HISTORIC!!! It would be a REAL SHAME and dishonor to the family to start selling of plots and erase the education of young children as well as visitors to learn about some of the importan t history of Grantsville and some history of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Please DO NOT start selling plots of the farm just for the sake of money. I have participated in some events there and was able to sell some of my jewelry there on more than one ocation.	7/14/2015 1:17 PM
10	It brings the community together.	7/14/2015 10:03 AM
11	I love the Clark Historic Farm and all that the Friends of Clark Historic Farm have done to promote this place. We LOVE the activities that are held there and the events. Grantsville and our county need this! I sure hope you make the right decision Grantsville City. You would be foolish to turn this into a cemetery in my opinion. What a great place it is. Preserve our history!!!!	7/14/2015 9:04 AM
12	This is the best part of Grantsville history. Don't be foolish and let it go!!!!	7/14/2015 4:16 AM

#	Why?	Date
1	It's important to preserve our history for future generations	7/15/2015 3:04 PM
2	It is one of the last true monumental historical sites in Grantsville that remains.	7/15/2015 3:03 PM
3	It's an important part of history, just as the opera house should have been.	7/15/2015 2:03 PM
4	We need more local business and worthwhile attractions	7/15/2015 1:52 PM
5	Historical, a base from where Grantsville grew.	7/15/2015 1:46 PM
6	Grantsville needs to be more pro active in restoring and beautifying the Clark Farm as well as their city. I think much needs to be done to beautify Main Street which is an entrance to the Clark Farm	7/15/2015 1:40 PM
7	History! We all need to learn how our family lived & survived! never know when or if we might have to live like that again.	7/15/2015 1:31 PM
8	It's a beautiful place that gives new opportunities to families and provides wonderful experiences to tourists, newcomers and many other people. I've been there twice and had fun, made some friends and it made me feel welcome here, since I just moved here. There's so much to learn here and so much fun, new things to try out!	7/15/2015 1:22 PM
9	Is there anything else this tangible in Grantsville that can help tell the story of it's origins?	7/15/2015 12:20 PM
10	It is a place that I have always loved taking my family!	7/15/2015 12:20 PM
11	We should keep our landmarks	7/15/2015 12:06 PM
12	Our town needs local attractions and events to keep people spending money within the town	7/15/2015 12:06 PM
13	Communities need to know their 'roots'	7/15/2015 11:32 AM
14	The more things to do and see in Grantsville the better chance they will get additional tourist traffic and money.	7/15/2015 11:27 AM
15	We need to start preserving history, not deleting it!	7/15/2015 10:52 AM

16	History is always important to the future and the Farm is living history	7/15/2015 10:50 AM
17	Heritage is important to our roots and teaching our children	7/15/2015 10:42 AM
18	It is a great local place to take kids to learn.	7/15/2015 10:33 AM
19	It's part of GRANTSVILLE... we need to keep some history!!	7/15/2015 10:04 AM
20	History needs to be preserved. This tight knit community will blossom around a beautiful landmark attraction like we do with the socialable	7/15/2015 9:35 AM
21	Think of the other historic places in town that are now gone! You can't bring them back once you take it away! A piece of Grantsville will be irreparably gone. Let's not make that mistake	7/15/2015 8:31 AM
22	J. Reuben Clark is THE most prominent man to come from Grantsville.	7/15/2015 7:36 AM
23	it is important to keep our history alive.	7/15/2015 5:34 AM
24	A good place to teach about the past like this is the place park	7/15/2015 3:16 AM
25	it is part of Grantsville's history. My kids look forward every year to going to the various events Kids farm is their absolute favorite. It offers somewhere positive that I can take my kids to learn, grow, and enjoy wholesome activities	7/15/2015 12:42 AM
26	It's just a cheap place for the pre school to make money not the city	7/14/2015 11:20 PM
27	Historical places matter, and once they are gone we can't get them back.	7/14/2015 10:45 PM
28	You should respect your local history.	7/14/2015 10:03 PM
29	People came for the activities on the farm, not activities within the historic buildings. Most people that visit Grantsville's other museums usually are well supplied for their outing and do not spend money in Grantsville.	7/14/2015 9:51 PM
30	It's something that will always be apart of grantsville for generations of families to share,	7/14/2015 9:09 PM
31	When we start treating historic pieces of land as nothing the feeling of a small town leaves. We will become another suburban for salt lake. Not giving residents much reason to keep home roots. The city doesn't offer enough recreation to truly be considering removing something that provides the little we have.	7/14/2015 9:08 PM
32	we can't lose anymore attractions. we don't have enough as it is. when out of towners come through...there are but a handful of things to do and places to see. i implore you not to take away the clark farm	7/14/2015 8:36 PM
33	It's part of our history and this town	7/14/2015 8:36 PM
34	I think it's a great little place but it should not come at the cost of a MUCH needed cemetery.	7/14/2015 8:09 PM
35	Like Wheeler Farm, link to past for future generations.	7/14/2015 8:03 PM
36	It adds to the tradition that Grantsville prides itself for	7/14/2015 8:01 PM
37	It is an old Grantsville tradition, why are we throwing away more and more of those?!?!"	7/14/2015 6:38 PM
38	Heritage is everything, history is what we are made of.	7/14/2015 6:27 PM
39	The activities are wholesome, educational, fun, and the Clark Farm is the perfect location. These activities really bring the town together and provide a stronger sense of community.	7/14/2015 5:49 PM
40	The buildings are nice but it's a pre school. How historical is that?	7/14/2015 5:03 PM
41	Isn't a preschool allowed to be in the building at no charge?? Why should the other business owners in town have to pay for their businesses and this one doesn't? You could make this into a reception center or something people could rent out and make money and give back to the entire community.	7/14/2015 3:27 PM
42	Sites like this are disappearing at an alarming rate. Once they are gone, they are gone forever which is heartbreaking and extremely unfortunate.	7/14/2015 3:07 PM
43	cause it's historical there will never be another one like it.	7/14/2015 2:57 PM
44	The Clark Farm is History, it all so live on & continues to teach.	7/14/2015 2:17 PM
45	It's educational. It improves our future because it helps us remember our past.	7/14/2015 1:47 PM

46	For a town to successfully compete in the political, economic and educational arenas it is vital that an obvious investment in preservation of past and future come together. The farm is a place where these two meet and are given distinct priority. Grantsville's culture is well represented in all its splendor uniqueness, giving us a reason to love where we live and take pride in it!	7/14/2015 1:29 PM
47	Because it is important history and there are historic stories that come from that Farm no to mention it is part of a former church president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Children need to learn and get first hand experiences from that farm and see how people in the era of the Clark family when they settled in Grantsville.	7/14/2015 1:19 PM
48	The Clark Historic Farm provides a unique EXPERIENCE of history.	7/14/2015 1:07 PM
49	It's part of what makes the town	7/14/2015 12:41 PM
50	Grantsville is tiny and needs all the help it can get	7/14/2015 12:27 PM
51	It could be in the future but I don't see anything historic from the past.	7/14/2015 11:42 AM
52	Relics and historic sites are always vital to help us remember what was sacrificed by our progenitors to enable us to have this great community. It gives us a greater sense of belonging.	7/14/2015 11:25 AM
53	helps us all remember where we all come from	7/14/2015 10:23 AM
54	It is one of a kind and cannot be replaced, I was proud when the City recognized that and bought the property.	7/14/2015 10:20 AM
55	Historical Landmark	7/14/2015 10:11 AM
56	Because it is an historical sight and it teaches us about the town and the history of the town plus they have wholesome family activities and events.	7/14/2015 10:09 AM
57	History is history- it is something sacred that you cannot ever replace. Certain things places buildings should remain to help keep and protect Grantsvilles identity.	7/14/2015 10:03 AM
58	It makes Grantsville known to others	7/14/2015 9:55 AM
59	Especially if they move the prison here.	7/14/2015 9:40 AM
60	What an amazing piece of history. We need to preserve history and this is a great place to do that for our city/county. Too many of these types of places are disappearing. History is important to preserve and it is very important to teach our young people the value of hard work, and history. This is and could be such a great place to continue to do this. Love the children's event such as Farm Camp. My grandson attended and loved it. We have attended many events there and hope these types of events can continue to take place at the farm for a very long time.	7/14/2015 9:07 AM
61	It embodies the agricultural roots of Grantsville; its history, the founders' personal stories, the pride of laboring in a foreboding place and creating a beautiful community.	7/14/2015 8:51 AM
62	history need to be kept alive not turned into a burial ground.to bury the farm would bury history	7/14/2015 8:15 AM
63	because it is a part of what shaped the town and we need to preserve those things that remind us of how we came to be.	7/14/2015 8:11 AM
64	We need to teach and learn about history and life in the past. The clark farm is a great place to have this happen	7/14/2015 7:40 AM
65	Preservation of the past is very important.	7/14/2015 7:04 AM
66	The history of Grantsville along with a place to teach our children the history of Grantsville	7/14/2015 5:08 AM
67	It is historical and it is beautiful.	7/14/2015 4:17 AM
68	Pioneers built our city. Having a structure that pioneers built, the farm, represents their industry and the values our city was established upon.	7/14/2015 1:53 AM
69	it is a huge part of the history of Grantsville. it can only improve the future.	7/14/2015 1:31 AM
70	Once part of it is gone it is just not the same and you will never get it back. Look and see how much Wheeler farm in Salt Lake has grown and developed. You would not have any room to develop if it goes into a cemetery. Places such as this grow slowly but look how Wheeler Farm has moved slowly through the years. Now it is a great attraction. This could happen to Grantsville. Along with the Donor Museum you will have a real asset with advertisement. It is a historical time that will be lost if it is shortened in size.	7/14/2015 1:07 AM

71	In an out of control world the Clark Farm will help us preserve a way of life that is lost to the majority of people in our country .	7/13/2015 11:37 PM
72	I feel it is important to know and appreciate our past, so we can learn to enjoy the present as well as the future. History is a great teacher!	7/13/2015 10:50 PM
73	We have loved the activities we have attended. There is nothing else around here that provides the same experience for families.	7/13/2015 10:40 PM
74	it is a connection to our past. We live in such a throw away or update society, but it's important for our children to realize the sense of history, perseverance, and long-lasting influence such places can give--a sense of security in our rapidly altering world.	7/13/2015 10:30 PM
75	History is important and people love to see what the past was all about. It also makes a great venue for local talent.	7/13/2015 10:18 PM
76	to teach and preserve history hands on, instead of reading it out of a book.	7/13/2015 10:15 PM
77	If we lose the things that created Grantsville...we lose the legacy too and become just another town	7/13/2015 9:28 PM
78	It is part of our heritage.	7/13/2015 9:21 PM
79	We have very few venues that tell grantsville history	7/13/2015 9:17 PM
80	Because these sites are fading away.	7/13/2015 9:14 PM
81	It represents the city history. It has brought the community together as a community and a source for entertainment.	7/13/2015 9:12 PM
82	Grantsville will survive without it. But it might be nice to have.	7/13/2015 8:59 PM
83	The Farm has been there for years, it's fine how it is	7/13/2015 8:55 PM
84	We homeschooled and it gives my children an opportunity to participate in community.	7/13/2015 8:46 PM
85	Because some History and life skills can't be learned only by a text book!!! We Love the Clark Farm!!! It is the past educating our future.	7/13/2015 8:36 PM
86	it is a big piece of Grantsville heritage and should be preserved for future generation to see what the true spirit of grantsville really was/is.	7/13/2015 8:28 PM
87	I think it is a good thing. But I think it is the land is to big for what it is used for.	7/13/2015 8:26 PM
88	most small towns that I am familiar with have some way to remember events that happened in the past in Elko and Wells they are called interpretive centers. It is an effort to remember those who have built this community and it is so very important	7/13/2015 8:20 PM
89	To know where we are going, it's helpful to know and appreciate where we've been.	7/13/2015 8:14 PM
90	It is our town's founders home, and a beautiful place.	7/13/2015 8:01 PM
91	It has a heritage that goes with Grantsville so many other cities tear down these artifacts in their communities we need to keep it and show the generations to come the importance of heritage.	7/13/2015 7:37 PM
92	It's the kind of thing that draws people to live here	7/13/2015 7:32 PM
93	Grantsville has a lot of history, but not much to show for it. Many of our historic buildings no longer exist. A few are still around but not open to the public. To me, the Clark Historic Farm is a symbol of Grantsville pride and a gathering place. We can't get it back if we let it go, and our children will be the losers.	7/13/2015 7:31 PM
94	It's apart of grantsville's history	7/13/2015 7:17 PM
95	It's an investment in our heritage and future.	7/13/2015 7:04 PM
96	it is part of our heritage and should be preserved	7/13/2015 6:35 PM
97	HISTORY AND FAMILY FUN	7/13/2015 5:44 PM
98	we don't want another opera house where nothing was done and an important piece of history was lost	7/13/2015 5:43 PM

99	My children were born and raised in Grantsville were part of the school programs. You can ask any young adult with children what they were in the 1st grade and 3ed grade program. They can tell you. The district took that away from our community. You could go see old friends at the programs and older residents at the gatherings. Now what do we have to socialize and bond as a community? We need the Clark Farm to keep a strong community that knows and cares for each other. We need a place to have the children to go and meet and learn to love the town that they live i. This farm represents a town and a people that children will learn to love. All five of my children have moved to Grantsville with their family's they are disipointed at they history we have lost and take they children to the farm so they can learn about they foudning of the great town they are living in.	7/13/2015 5:24 PM
100	just a building named after a fairly obscure guy	7/13/2015 5:05 PM
101	It is a part of it's history that would be so sad to lose!	7/13/2015 4:45 PM
102	It would be a huge loss. If it isn't saved for our posterity.	7/13/2015 4:30 PM
103	We need to keep in touch with our history and the way of life for those who settled this Valley.. .	7/13/2015 4:26 PM
104	This town has very few places for family's to go do activities.	7/13/2015 4:21 PM
105	Piece of history and we want to support local!!	7/13/2015 3:42 PM
106	we need to teach kids basic living and how their food got tonthete table	7/13/2015 3:11 PM
107	There aren't many places left that show our heritage	7/13/2015 3:06 PM
108	History of any kind is always positive to a community.	7/13/2015 3:03 PM
109	you cannot forget your history. it is too important	7/13/2015 3:00 PM
110	The rapid growth that we are experiencing here is endangering the character traits that make Grantsville a special place. Traits like our small town atmosphere, The broad spectrum of housing styles, open spaces between the homes that allow for elbow room between diverse lifestyles. The Farm provides a town common ground that is rooted in our traditions, a reminder of when things were more basic. Its a place where kids can shut off the cell phones and remember when life wasn't held in the palm of your hand.	7/13/2015 2:42 PM
111	the Clark Historic Farm is an important piece of Grantsville history and should be a historical landmark for future generations to enjoy and learn from.	7/13/2015 2:37 PM
112	I feel it is important to know the history of where you live	7/13/2015 2:22 PM
113	It is important because is preserves the history of Grantsville. The farm is part of our pioneer heritage. It must be saved as a historic farm not a cemetary.	7/13/2015 2:09 PM
114	Reverence the past and build respectfully into the future.	7/13/2015 2:05 PM
115	Because it represents a significant tie to the past and our pioneer heritage.	7/13/2015 2:01 PM
116	Preserve something of value in this town for once please!!! Future generations deserve to see how wonderful Grantsville USED to be!	7/13/2015 1:48 PM
117	to preserve the history of our town	7/13/2015 1:41 PM
118	why not? ANY history that we have should be preserved. To walk through and see historical places is a more meaningful experience than simply reading about them. People strive to preserve mountains and trails, yet farmland and historical buildings and places are disregarded as soon as there is "something else better" in "someone's" opinion. It's sad.	7/13/2015 1:29 PM
119	The need for living history	7/13/2015 1:27 PM
120	History, community gathering	7/13/2015 1:11 PM
121	It is the only historic site I know of in Grantsville so it has great potetial for growth, recognition an community togetherness and pride.	7/13/2015 1:10 PM
122	We need to preserve these places our children. Having a constant positive place to go and learn and see new things is a big part of what builds our children into whole little people.	7/13/2015 12:52 PM
123	It has been with us for a long time already i grew up with it there and now its history for our children familys friends and also torist its a beutiful and wonderful place to have in our little town and wouldn't change any of our old parts of our town for anything	7/13/2015 12:44 PM

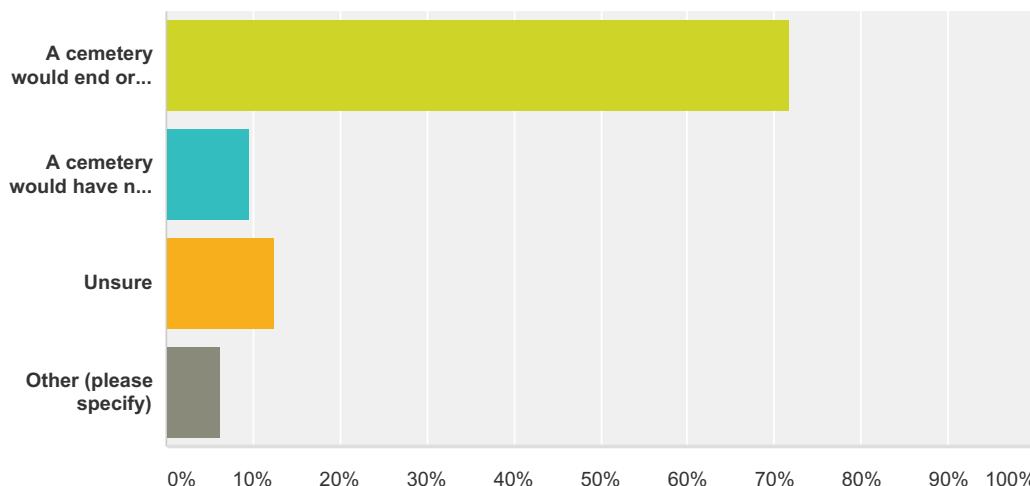

124	History is always important. Particularly local history. There aren't many places left that give information about our local history. Not only does it offer information about local history but it offers children a rare look into the happenings of a farm.	7/13/2015 12:40 PM
125	A historical part of grantsville	7/13/2015 12:37 PM
126	Grantsville is a small town with a lot of history and deep roots. I am not a native. I have only lived here 5 years. Those roots are still meaningful to me and are a big part of why I wanted to move here. I love the rural, hometown, family values that this town is built upon. That farm is a central location that provides a venue for all of what Grantsville believes in. There is not another location like it. It should be preserved.	7/13/2015 12:16 PM
127	As we let places like the farm we loose a little of the soul of this town. It happens little by little and before you know it what and who you are is lost forever. There truly is not a lot left of the history of Grantsville we can't afford to let anymore go.	7/13/2015 11:58 AM
128	Because the farm is a great learning experience!	7/13/2015 11:50 AM
129	Historic value for the town, both new and old residents, quiet place for families	7/13/2015 11:48 AM
130	we need to preserve our local history not destroy it.	7/13/2015 11:43 AM
131	It's nice to know there is such rich history in our back yard.	7/13/2015 11:42 AM
132	So much history. It serves as an icon for this beautiful city.	7/13/2015 11:38 AM
133	It's nice to have a piece of history in our small town and somewhere to go as a family.	7/13/2015 11:28 AM
134	Children learn history better when they can be emerged in the environment.	7/13/2015 11:27 AM
135	Part of the history of the Lincoln Highway	7/13/2015 11:26 AM
136	Because other than it, there is nothing here for people to focus on.	7/13/2015 11:25 AM
137	We have so few highlights -we need to accentuate what we have - and this historic attraction can combine w/ community events to enhance a visitors experience	7/13/2015 11:17 AM
138	It is so important to have a link to our past to share with future generations.	7/13/2015 11:12 AM
139	Traditions, activities that make us a better place to live and raise out kids.	7/13/2015 11:09 AM
140	we live in a farming town, and sadly most kids don't know what farming is. This is teaching them history, showing them a farm that many of their grandpa's worked at as teenagers. Also this is a place that keeps our town together, a place everyone is welcome.	7/13/2015 11:06 AM
141	It is a piece of Grantsville history. Something that should be preserved and passed along from generation to generation.	7/13/2015 11:03 AM
142	Many of our children leave Grantsville when they grow up, but they return for events such as the 4th of July, Sociable, and are now returning with their families, and friends, to the activities held at the Clark Farm.	7/13/2015 10:59 AM
143	Preserving our past secures our future. I love going to the Clark Farm! It's a great place to feel the spirit of our History, yet gives us lively opportunities to make new memories.	7/13/2015 10:51 AM
144	We need to actively protect and restore the history of this community.	7/13/2015 10:46 AM
145	Preservation of local heritage	7/13/2015 10:27 AM
146	We want to preserve our pioneer history and present it in a way that will be beneficial to all.	7/13/2015 10:13 AM
147	Grantsville needs more diversity in entertainment. The farm brings that to the community. It could be a Thanksgiving Point on a smaller scale. :)	7/13/2015 10:08 AM
148	It represents why we love living in grantsville. my children light up when going there.	7/13/2015 10:07 AM
149	It brings history alive and gives Grantsville something to be proud of; also provides recreation to families.	7/13/2015 10:05 AM
150	Retain history	7/13/2015 10:04 AM
151	We don't have much here to attract visitors.The Clark Farm is such a positive way for families to get out and enjoy the history of Grantsville.	7/13/2015 9:58 AM
152	Every little town I've been through, has a little something to teach about the history of the city. We have great pioneer history that needs to be shared	7/13/2015 9:58 AM

153	Been around a while and offers lots of different options	7/13/2015 9:58 AM
154	Because it part of there history!	7/13/2015 9:56 AM
155	Because Grantsville itself is a historic place and with the Clark Historic Farm people come to learn more about this towns history	7/13/2015 9:55 AM
156	Clark historical farm is a great place for the whole community to come together and have a good time everyone enjoys coming to Clark farm	7/13/2015 9:53 AM
157	Grantsville residents need to value our heritage	7/13/2015 9:50 AM
158	Preserves history of our small town!	7/13/2015 9:49 AM
159	it has a lot of meaning and great way to teach my kids about heritage	7/13/2015 9:47 AM
160	It is part of history! I want my kids to grow up with Clark farm!	7/13/2015 9:45 AM
161	I feel it's important to remember the roots of our town. We are too quick to replace what made this town worth living in.	7/13/2015 9:44 AM
162	Because the Historic farm is one of the reasons that makes Grantsville a gray community & brings the community together. People from all walks of life in Grantsville & out of Grantsville.	7/13/2015 9:42 AM
163	Clark Farm is a piece of Utah heritage. It reminds us where we came from and those who got us where we are today. This farm has rich history and is a great asset to Grantsville as a whole.	7/13/2015 9:42 AM
164	It adds charm to the city. It's part of why people move to small towns and what makes us unique	7/13/2015 9:42 AM
165	The farm has already brought positive attention to the city through the events it hosts. It provides uniqueness of offering a beautiful location of hosting events rather than just the high school.	7/13/2015 9:39 AM
166	Grantsville has alot of historic homes that are still lived in. the farm gives us a place in Grantsville to be together and share the heratiaige.	7/13/2015 9:37 AM
167	Grantsville does not have many social places. This is a great place fo people of all ages to attend events.	7/13/2015 9:35 AM
168	It is an uplifting gathering place for our community.	7/13/2015 9:34 AM
169	We have lost too much of the history of our little town. We have the opportunity to preserve this historical piece of our heritage. It would be a shame to lose it:-)	7/13/2015 9:33 AM
170	We need to protect and conserv our historic places.	7/13/2015 9:28 AM
171	Without the Clark Farm Grantsville will lose a huge part of its history.	7/13/2015 9:25 AM
172	My family and I have made many memories at the HISTORIC Clark Farm, and we plan on making many many more in the years to come!!!	7/13/2015 9:20 AM
173	It is our only main historical site where festivals and gatherings can be held. We look forward to all the festivals and events held there every year. It's the only venue in town for local artisans and farmers to sell their goods. The museum is the only one displaying a history of the town for visitors and locals. The Clark Farm is an extension of our communities pride in it's history and a way of securing and sharing that history with our future generations. It is essential to telling the story of our town and passing that story on.	7/13/2015 9:14 AM
174	It is important to preserve the past place families can meet	7/13/2015 9:14 AM
175	It's History.	7/13/2015 9:12 AM
176	There is so much of our history in the farm, and it is one of the few places we have left that holds such history. I think it's important to preserve the history as a way to remind us where we came from.	7/13/2015 9:10 AM
177	Because it's an important piece of Grantsville's history	7/13/2015 9:05 AM
178	Grantsville needs something to bolster its identity. We have so much to be proud of beyond athletics (which is also very important). We have a performing arts heritage and a strong farming heritage. The Clark Farm is the place to showcase that identity and help others (and even new residents) realize what a great town Grantsville is.	7/13/2015 8:47 AM

179	It is part of Grantsville culture. I've noticed that since the farm has been working as an attraction, there is more sense if community and more hometown pride it brings people together with a common goal, no matter what race, religion or family you come from.	7/13/2015 8:45 AM
180	Grantsville is a town of tradition and has a strong community atmosphere. The farm ties these things together and will help keep tradition alive.	7/13/2015 8:44 AM
181	it is one of the very few places in Grantsville where we can take our children to do fun things	7/13/2015 8:43 AM
182	it's a part of our heritage. It's a place where modern Grantsvillians can gather, enjoy activities and socialize in safer	7/13/2015 8:42 AM
183	Historical sites are worth preserving especially when there are so few in our area.	7/13/2015 8:41 AM
184	There are a lot of new people moved in, they need to know about their town. And, for us who have lived here all our lives, it is so important that we know our roots!	7/13/2015 8:36 AM
185	We need to preserve our history and culture for future generations and to keep a sense of community and ownership of our town	7/13/2015 8:26 AM
186	We don't have a lot of beautiful parks and places to go. There aren't any other places where we can celebrate our heritage.	7/13/2015 8:24 AM
187	It had no more of a role than any other farm in Grantsville. It is no more special than anything else.	7/13/2015 8:22 AM
188	While visiting the activities at the Farm I noticed the visitors were not just from Grantsville, but also from Tooele, Stansbury, and Salt Lake.	7/13/2015 8:17 AM
189	It keeps the hometown feel.	7/13/2015 8:14 AM
190	As we establish traditions centered around this historic monument we can connect with community and help local industry thrive	7/13/2015 8:11 AM
191	It is a historic monument	7/13/2015 8:05 AM
192	My children have already learned so much from the Clark farm and I feel like they still have so much they can learn and the Clark farm is a wonderful resource for learning about the great city they are growing up in.	7/13/2015 8:04 AM
193	Because of the Clark family history, many people want to see and be at the place that started it all. It's a place to get back to the farm a lost art today.	7/13/2015 7:58 AM
194	It is a part of our History! We need to preserve it and keep it as a community gathering place.	7/13/2015 7:58 AM
195	Because it is fun taking the kids there.	7/13/2015 7:57 AM
196	Shows we saved some of Grantsville's history.	7/13/2015 7:55 AM

198	It's our history!	7/13/2015 7:50 AM
199	It reminds the future generations of the sacrifices made to have the town we have. Since some past political committee thought it was a prudent idea to tear down the opera house, why would we venture this road again?	7/13/2015 7:49 AM
200	Because of its historic value	7/13/2015 7:47 AM

Q4 Previously, Grantsville City designated the grassy area just 15-20 feet north of the historic farm buildings as a cemetery. This is the area where events such as Baby Animal Days, the Honey Harvest Festival and the Luminary Walk have been held. How do you feel a cemetery at the Clark Farm would affect future events?

1	Even if putting the cemetery there didn't end future events by being there, I for one would not be interested in going to an event at a cemetery....I can't believe the city counsel is serious. We obviously need new counsel that cares about the people and the town instead of an agenda.	7/15/2015 3:07 PM
2	You can't have kids running around playing or possibly hurting themselves on a grave stone. Stepping on Graves is also disrespectful to the dead.	7/15/2015 2:05 PM
3	No one wants to have family friendly events, reunions, and parties next to a cemetery! That would make the warm, fun farm more creepy. That makes it less inviting when you know that dead people are next to you!	7/15/2015 1:26 PM
4	Room for both	7/15/2015 12:25 PM
5	I don't know that it would affect the farm but the cemetery would be impacted by the farm. It was a BAD decision.	7/15/2015 12:21 PM

6	When the city planned on the Clark farm as the location to expand the cemetery, it was probably a good option, but now they have purchased and developed land just east of the existing cemetery so that is where the cemetery should expand and leave the J. Reuben Clark Farm as a Historic community gathering place.	7/15/2015 7:39 AM
7	As long as other large, open areas were available for events it would be an opportunity to keep the peaceful feeling of the Farm.	7/14/2015 10:46 PM
8	A cemetery would have little affect. I am not aware of any funerals that were held in the existing cemetery while clark farm activities were being held. If a conflict did occur how noble it would be of the clark farm participants to take a 30 minute break while the interment is done. They will typically be given a couple of days notice if the conflict should occur.	7/14/2015 9:56 PM
9	People are allowed to rent the place? How???	7/14/2015 3:28 PM
10	The cemetery would limit future opportunities on Clark Farm & should be placed west of the Main Cemetery	7/14/2015 2:23 PM
11	:/	7/14/2015 1:16 PM
12	If it is designated as a cemetery, no other events should take place or detract from the cemetery	7/14/2015 9:04 AM
13	The Clark Farm will become a place of sadness and sorrow. That won't mesh well with the laughter of children, the language of young and old as they meet to celebrate our heritage and love life...Death doesn't lend well with joy!	7/13/2015 11:40 PM
14	I think there is room to co-exist. I think there could be a little land saved for some of the activities, but it is a great place for the cemetery expansion.	7/13/2015 8:28 PM
15	People have very strong opinions about cemeteries	7/13/2015 7:33 PM
16	I believe it's inevitable that at some point the land on the north side of the barn area will have to be used but a joint use could be worked out to give land for both purposes	7/13/2015 4:52 PM
17its like putting a cemetery in the football field....Put the cemetery out on the hill somewhere, not in the middle of our day to day lives!!!	7/13/2015 2:47 PM
18	Both are very important aspects of our community. It would be nice to have both.	7/13/2015 2:14 PM
19	This is a bad place for a Cemetery. They could move two or three hundred yards to the North as there is nothing their and I think the City owns this land.	7/13/2015 2:02 PM
20	J	7/13/2015 1:03 PM
21	Do not make it a cemetery. Find other land for cemetery use. It would be a loss to our town, and you could not undo the damage. Preserve the space for those living to enjoy.	7/13/2015 12:16 PM
22	I do not understand how any intelligent person could say, let's destroy our history so we can bury our dead. Those who have lived and died here will be better remembered by preserving what they left than by a headstone. I wish they had a voice to tell us, please remember me by preserving what I created.	7/13/2015 12:03 PM
23	You never know when someone is going to die! You have to plan events.	7/13/2015 11:10 AM
24	Can't this decision wait until another administration is in office? Too many hard feelings right now!	7/13/2015 10:23 AM
25	I think the town needs a cemetery more than Honey Harvest Days or Baby Animal days that can be held anywhere.	7/13/2015 10:13 AM
26	With the recent purchased addition to the cemetery, the Clark farm property should be left alone	7/13/2015 9:51 AM
27	I dont think there enough people that attend or enough events to make a difference	7/13/2015 9:47 AM
28	If it stayed west of the grassy area and the dirt road, it might be okay. But I'm not %100 on that.	7/13/2015 9:39 AM
29	I think the cemetery would certainly have a negative impact if that close to the buildings, but even more so, I feel that is a strange location for the cemetery. It just does not naturally flow with the current cemetery. If a new cemetery is to be started, it should be at a different location in town.	7/13/2015 9:37 AM
30	The cemetery would end future opportunities for the wonderful events we now hold at the Clark Farm. Could we not use the empty, for sale lot just West of the current cemetery?	7/13/2015 9:15 AM
31	They need to leave all of the cemetery together	7/13/2015 9:09 AM

1	Both	7/15/2015 12:47 PM
2	Both - they can co-exist	7/15/2015 10:17 AM
3	The city purchased the Wooten property east of the existing cemetery. That is where they need to expand the cemetery, NOT on the Clark Farm.	7/15/2015 7:40 AM
4	Why not both. Many cemeteries in this nation are great attractions for visitors. This could be also. Let the activities continue and excess income set aside for the repairs and maintenance of the historic buildings. All of the activities do not need to be held at the farm. For example a farmers market at academy square would draw more people and provide more profits for use at the clark farm. The city park has great potential for activities to support the clark farm. By using some of these other resources, costs for maintenance for infrastructure will be kept down and Grantsville will be able to use those dollars where ever they are needed most. .	7/14/2015 10:04 PM
5	Both	7/14/2015 6:16 PM
6	Both	7/14/2015 4:00 PM
7	I believe that the original intent of J. Reuben Clark when it was donated was for the preservation of the farmland, for historic buildings to be maintained for the use of educational and historical merits to benefit the town. I believe that those working with the Clark Historic Farm to meet this end have been truly inspired to do so. Keeping the farmland does not show a lack of firm decision-making ability by our leaders but, instead, shows that they value doing what is right for Grantsville's future, and it's cemetery. It is important to solve the problem of providing plots for cemetery use, but,I firmly believe after looking more closely at that area of land, that placing them there may pose another problem for burial plots. Wouldn't it be worse for the city to realize down the road that they may have to spend more money to relocate gravesites because of possible sinking/flooding, etc.? The land is not well suited for the purpose of a cemetery. That side of Clark street has long had flooding/sinking problems, as is evident by homes along the way. It may be best to use it for events that will bring in consistent revenue without causing problems for those families with loved ones interred in a place where they may not truly rest in peace.	7/14/2015 1:51 PM

8	I don't see how a cemetery would effect the activities. Why couldn't there be both?	7/14/2015 11:43 AM
9	mix use	7/14/2015 10:43 AM
10	The recent uptake at the Clark farm has been nice, but I don't see how a cemetery is going to hurt that, I think it's absolutely possible to do both. If anything have the Clark farm next to the cemetery on the north side might attract more visitors to the farm and also allows for the farm to become and even more sacred and solemn part of city history	7/13/2015 8:58 PM
11	I would think that given the size of the farm the city could use the land they've developed for cemetery purposes and there could still be historic events on other portions of the farm	7/13/2015 8:52 PM
12	I think if you have a little more land for some of the events, and the majority be the cemetery would be best.	7/13/2015 8:29 PM
13	both are compatible	7/13/2015 8:09 PM

15	historic attraction with land for activities and a well-planned cemetery area on the land north of that	7/13/2015 4:54 PM
16	Though the Clark Farm may be limited to a certain acreage - Grantsville needs both historical preservation and a beautiful spot for a cemetery. I love that the cemetery is by the farm and vice versa. How can both of them grow in harmony?	7/13/2015 2:17 PM
17	I think you can have both.	7/13/2015 10:14 AM

19	first of how can you ask one person what everyone wants or doesn't want ? if the city paid for part of that property to be a cemetery then that's what it should be plain and simple !	7/13/2015 9:50 AM
20	Farmers Market!	7/13/2015 9:44 AM
21	Both a cemetery and historical attraction	7/13/2015 8:50 AM
22	The open farm land would better serve the city and the citizens of Grantsville as a cemetery. The house, barn and out buildings could still be used as they presently are. This farm was bought with tax payer money. It needs to be utilized in the best interest of all not just a few. I see the friends of the Clark farm as a few. The historical value is no more than that of any other farm in gville. J Reuben Clark never even lived there. In my opinion if the land is used as a cemetery it will solidify the farm to be utilized by all. The out buildings will be better maintained and it will be able to carry on as present.	7/13/2015 8:35 AM

1	Yeah....I know who i'll be voting out of city counsel and mayor. As a lifetime resident of Grantsville, I would rather have someone there that feels how I do about my heritage and the town I love. I would rather have someone who cared more about the town than their own agenda. I would rather have someone who will listen when the people of Grantsville talk, than someone who refuses to even consider other options. I would rather have a mayor that does what's best for the TOWN, not what's best for his position politically.	7/15/2015 3:26 PM
2	They purposed during election that they were going to by land right next to the cemetery to buy the Clark Farm time. Why had this not happened?	7/15/2015 2:09 PM
3	My husband and I travel to many communities in Utah and have noticed how well kept some places are. I fear if Grantsville doesn't come up with some plans to Beautify and upgrade Grantsville starting with Main Street it will be inviting the wrong kind of people. It doesn't take long for a City to deteriorate and I can see that happening. The Clark Farm is a Great start. Too many landmarks have been lost from Grantsvilles History because of a lack of caring about preservation.	7/15/2015 1:58 PM
4	A cemetery would sound the death knell for Clark Historic Farm to be able to be used as any type of attraction or activity center. Even people who don't have a respect for cemeteries and the interred would not enjoy having to traipse through a bunch of graves to get to their activity. Certainly, brides would not want to hold their weddings right next to a cemetery. A cemetery realistically can be placed anywhere, so there is no reason that it has to be at the Clark Farm. I think the city of Grantsville would be doing a great disservice to the community by placing the cemetery at Clark Farm.	7/15/2015 1:58 PM
5	Please keep this!!	7/15/2015 1:55 PM
6	It is always too easy to destroy a landmark. There isn't much left in rural areas that shows the heritage of the area. Grantsville can find another plot of land to have for a cemetery and they don't need to be right next to each other.	7/15/2015 1:52 PM
7	The Clark Historic Farm is a place for people to get together, have fun and make friends. I would feel weird sitting next to graves that are a few yards away.	7/15/2015 1:37 PM
8	Have the cemetery on the west part of the town in all that open field.	7/15/2015 1:35 PM
9	I don't see why there can't be both.	7/15/2015 12:46 PM
10	Don't make this a cemetery! It is NOT a good move!	7/15/2015 12:21 PM
11	So many other places for cemetery why move landmark	7/15/2015 12:08 PM
12	The farm is a great attribute to Grantsville. Please save it.	7/15/2015 11:00 AM
13	I cannot believe this is being debated AGAIN when will they stop?	7/15/2015 10:55 AM
14	The buzz on this issue needs to ramp down. Friends are doing them selves a disservice creating hysteria with rumors and half truths!	7/15/2015 10:18 AM
15	Many cities have multiple cemetery sites in their community but they don't always have a historic attraction to promote and rally around. If you take it away and you run out of cemetery plots in the future, then what? You still need another cemetery site and you have LOST FOREVER your historical site too.	7/15/2015 9:40 AM
16	Once historic places are gone we can't get them back. This is a vital part of Grantsville's story!	7/15/2015 8:33 AM
17	Grantsville city need to take a real hard look at what thier doing!!	7/15/2015 8:33 AM

18	If the City votes to sell burial plots on the Clark Farm, does anyone really believe that the city will properly maintain or improve those historic buildings? Of course not! They have a proven track record of doing NOTHING to preserve them. If the City votes to sell burial plots on the Clark Farm, they might as well include tearing down the historic buildings because that is eventually what will have to happen. DO NOT destroy the J. Reuben Clark Historic Farm! Do not add another tragedy to Grantsville's history of tearing down Opera Houses! Do NOT make the Clark Farm into a cemetery! You cannot have both a Historic Farm and a Cemetery in the same location. What happens when you have a community event like the Harvest Festival or a musical performance and within a stones' throw away there is a funeral happening? It just will not work! Expand the cemetery onto the property directly east of the current cemetery! That is why the city purchased that land! There is NO need for the Clark Farm to host a prison or cemetery! If people in Grantsville don't know about J. Reuben Clark, they should look him up on the internet; he was amazing! Don't confuse him with his brother who apparently amounted to little. J. Reuben Clark graduated first in his class at the University of Utah, got his law degree from Columbia University, served under three Presidencies of the United States including Ambassador to Mexico, and then he served in the First Presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. If Grantsville is on the map it is mostly because of J. Reuben Clark!	7/15/2015 7:58 AM
19	I am fairly new to the area, that is why i haven't been to the farm. Looking forward to going.	7/15/2015 5:36 AM
20	Put the cemetery some where else like down on old Lincoln highway .	7/15/2015 3:21 AM
21	I understand that as a community there will be times of growth and expansion. But I think it is important to exhaust all other options before we drastically change a part of our history that helped make Grantsville what it is today. Because once that line is crossed, it can't be taken back.	7/15/2015 12:48 AM
22	Please please keep it a historical site. A place for families and local events.	7/15/2015 12:33 AM
23	I believe that the farm could benefit the community by having well advertised events for families as well as being rent-able for private events.	7/14/2015 10:50 PM
24	It appears to me, that the current attitude demonstrated by the Friends of the Clark farm, being unwilling to negotiate and only providing methods to achieve their goals no matter what the costs are to others, makes them impossible to deal with. Selling the farm to them, will not end the overwhelming impact that it has had upon the City's time, finances, and councils time. THEY WILL BE BACK for more.	7/14/2015 10:27 PM
25	We went to Deadwood recently because of the things you read about in history. It was so pathetic and disappointing. It's just a big casino/ tourist trap place. Absolutely no regard for their past history. Don't let that happen here.	7/14/2015 10:12 PM
26	I think it is wonderful what the organizers of Friends of the Farm have done. All the events they have organized have been outstanding and an asset to our community.	7/14/2015 10:07 PM
27	Can we as citizens vote on this? It should not just be a city council proposal and vote. It affects all of us. Would like to see a compromise and a plan to have both.	7/14/2015 10:03 PM
28	Don't be stupid.	7/14/2015 9:19 PM
29	If there is another place to put the cemetery why is this even a option, let the community decide not the city council this is our town we the people should have a say!!!!	7/14/2015 9:13 PM
30	This city would be crazy to allow a prison and take away a historic gathering place, to build a cemetery. If so you won't have residents to bury at the cemetery.	7/14/2015 9:12 PM
31	Magna has a cemetery on a hill....we have loads of hills empty and waiting for purpose. What better place for a reverant cemetery! Who doesn't want to be buried on a luscious beautiful and peaceful hill	7/14/2015 8:51 PM
32	Please leave the farm alone. It's a wonderful place for our community.	7/14/2015 8:48 PM
33	I think that a cemetery would severely damage our character of our town	7/14/2015 8:39 PM
34	Grantsville has few stable buildings linking us to the past and this farm should be preserved to show future generations how life was once to appreciate the present. As a tourist attraction, this is the home of a prominent US citizen and LDS church member which gives it potential tourist interest value to a broad range of people. It could become Tooele County's "Wheeler Farm" with enough property and money invested.	7/14/2015 8:14 PM
35	Save the Clark Farm!!!!	7/14/2015 8:04 PM
36	We have given them better options. Much better. Why destroy history?	7/14/2015 6:41 PM

37	I understand why the city was upset when opposition to the cemetery came about. Now though I don't agree with dividing the cemetery up when a lot that is directly next to the cemetery has been bought by the city. The Clark Farm has proven to be a great attraction to our community and wish the city would listen to the residents and put their pride aside.	7/14/2015 5:58 PM
38	The city council should listen to the people. We make out wishes known and some of them do not pay attention.	7/14/2015 5:54 PM
39	I think it's incredibly silly to take away this area and the all the events that have been held here over the years from the people of Grantsville and even all around Tooele County as well as the state. I think it's also a tad disrespectful to put a cemetery in a place that has always meant something special to the people who have lived here their entire lives and have worked hard to maintain it. This is a historical site, not just the buildings, but the field as well. It's all a part of the farm.	7/14/2015 5:01 PM
40	I haven't noticed any signs or things posted that tell why it's historic or what it is. My be I haven't looked well enough, Maybe they are in future plans. My family and I have enjoyed the few events that we have attended there.	7/14/2015 3:41 PM
41	Get the preschool out of there and let the town know that there is a place to rent out.	7/14/2015 3:31 PM
42	Please keep the farm free of cemetery plots. With that being said, as our leaders you have tirelessly given of your time to try to do what is best for Grantsville. What else can we citizens do to help you make these tough decisions more effectively? It seems very unfair that you should have a last minute tug-of-war. But, the farm has always needed to be cared for in the way it has recently been awakened and cared for. Please don't view your efforts as entirely futile on behalf of city, in this matter. It was an empty eye-sore for a long time- but, with the prospect of its use for something originally unintended- you have allowed it to become enlivened and beautified by those who are capable of caring for it. I believe that the farm could help you in your efforts to secure the future of Grantsville as the beautiful farming community you love. You have secured our votes based on our faith in you to inspire your community; and Clark Farm will help you do that. It will be an inspiration, and can improve our way of life. Please, help to make it happen.	7/14/2015 2:34 PM
43	The land just west the Cemetery offers nothing for the living and would make a wonderful extension to our Cemetery.	7/14/2015 2:33 PM
44	I don't know why the cemetery is so necessary to the city council unless they've made promises to certain people that they can be buried there and they have to save face.	7/14/2015 1:57 PM
45	I feel we should preserve and encourage family activities at The Clark Farm. I believe another location for cemetery plots would be best. Adding more cemetery plots to the north would "sandwich" The Farm in an awkward spot. Also, by keeping The Farm area as it stands now, it maintains a unique slice of history for our developing city.	7/14/2015 1:24 PM
46	I am sorry I haven't been there yet. It is one of those places we mean to visit but then forget.	7/14/2015 12:29 PM
47	We just found out about Clark Farm the last day of Baby Animal days this year. We go to Wheeler farm all the time. I would much rather visit and support a local historic farm!	7/14/2015 12:18 PM
48	I do not think that having a cemetery at the Farm would be fatal. It will not take away the value.	7/14/2015 11:47 AM
49	the city is dumb for putting a park and ride right in the middle of a cemetery where there was room to put many plots for graves so there screw up shouldn't mean ruining historical markers or have them put the cemetery down in the mayors leased hay land not right up where all the events happen	7/14/2015 10:27 AM
50	Preserving our heritage is important. I would hate to see it turned into a cemetery.	7/14/2015 10:23 AM
51	Why mess with history and take it away? Isn't there plenty of other land that would sustain a cemetery plot? What will happen when they run out of room at the farm take another historic site away? It just does not make sense to take it away! They need to find land that has way more long term potential. Why take away something that is already positive and memorable about a community? Especially something tied with so much history. It makes me sad to think that someone even wants to take that away.	7/14/2015 10:16 AM
52	I think it should stay a farm. I enjoyed doing seven brides last year there are not very many towns that have opportunities like that. They need to take into consideration how many people show up to events like that.	7/14/2015 10:12 AM
53	It would be nice for cemetery patrons to go to one spot to honor their loved ones. Is there any way the cemetery areas could be kept together rather than have the farm in the middle of it? Seems kind of odd. I'm assuming the fields next to the current cemetery are not available?	7/14/2015 9:58 AM
54	I heard a news story about the city purchasing land next to the current cemetery. I don't understand why they could not use that land.	7/14/2015 9:43 AM

55	I and my family have loved going to the Clark Farm. As stated previously, the events that have taken place are much needed in our area. History needs to be preserved and what a great place to be able to do that. Our young people need to be able to learn from places like this. As an adult, I have loved helping and attending. It is a great place to volunteer as well. It provides opportunities for many people in our community to volunteer. I will be sorely disappointed in our city council and mayor if they designated the Clark Farm as a cemetery and begin to sell plots. I have been disappointed in their decision to do so and am sorry I voted for some of them. I can't believe they can't see the value in so many ways of the farm to our community as an historic landmark. We hope they will make the decision the majority of the community wants. We should be able to work together - after all we voted them in for the benefit of the community. I thought the Wooten property had been purchased so that a cemetery could be placed there. Putting a parking lot in a place where the cemetery could have expanded lacked vision in my opinion of our city leaders. I don't understand why that took place when they knew that our cemetery would need to be expanded. Thank you Friends Group for doing all you have to make the Clark Farm a place where families and communities can come together to celebrate heritage and to be able to enjoy such a place as the Clark Farm.	7/14/2015 9:16 AM
56	I applaud your efforts to retain this landmark property in its current form. It is a rare gem in today's commercial environment of zealous development. For most, a cemetery is convenient for a final resting place, regardless of location. Working with raw ground, a cemetery can go just about anywhere. But a historic farm is where it is. It becomes merely a generic re-creation if rickety buildings are simply moved and planted elsewhere - and at a huge cost. In today's world, we crave more of what is authentic - cheaply reproduced knock-offs are everywhere. This farm is unique and in its original spot. What you guys are doing to highlight this gem is admirable and I'm grateful that folks like you exist and are willing to dedicate yourselves to preserving our history!	7/14/2015 9:05 AM
57	Build a cemetery some where else. Don't ruin the Clark Farm where so many fun things take place that families get to enjoy.	7/14/2015 8:54 AM
58	This farm is a beautiful place. Our family have enjoyed all the events there. It's a great part and important image to Grantsville city.	7/14/2015 8:26 AM
59	i think putting a cemetery at the clark farm would put a gloom over events, limit the room for those events and cause further decay of the buildings. people would become less interested. You would have children and adults attending funerals entering the old and in some areas unstable buildings possibly getting hurt. i think it would be in the cities best interest to keep the historic value and allow the friends of the clark farm restore the buildings so people can enjoy them safely	7/14/2015 8:23 AM
60	we need to preserve not destroy	7/14/2015 8:19 AM
61	Don't put a freaking cemetery at a historical site that attracts living people for uplifting activities! Grantsville has no shortage of places that the dead can be buried. Pick somewhere else. Seriously, is there not enough open land to put headstones on?	7/14/2015 4:20 AM
62	I have so enjoyed the Christmas time with a living manger and the animals and our family has appreciated this historical area.	7/14/2015 1:10 AM
63	Grantsville needs a Historic area for families. I am sorry but there is nothing family about the Donner museum.	7/14/2015 12:52 AM
64	I hope they do NOT take away the Clark Historic Farm, my kids love going there a LOT!	7/13/2015 10:55 PM
65	I love history, to learn about the lives of people who lived in another time and what they did that shaped the community I now enjoy.	7/13/2015 10:52 PM
66	We hope Clark Historic Farm is able to keep all of the land for use as a historic site. We love having such a neat place so close. We don't want any of the events to be changed because of limited space.	7/13/2015 10:44 PM
67	Keep it there	7/13/2015 10:40 PM
68	Grantsville is gradually losing that small town feel. I feel like our traditions are going down the drain. If we lose the clark farm to a cemetery, how else are we going to teach our children what it means to be a parts of something?	7/13/2015 10:25 PM
69	Keep the Clark farm like it is. Don't surround it with a cemetery!	7/13/2015 10:21 PM
70	I think The Clark historic farm is a very important place 4 people to take their children to have good clean fun and entertainment the city has so few places for people to go and have a nice evening together. I feel the Clark farm should be left as it is and no cemetery be put there. There are other places where a cemetery can be put	7/13/2015 10:08 PM
71	Leave it alone	7/13/2015 9:55 PM

72	We love going to the farm, my kids went to preschool next door and we've even had family pictures by the out buildings there....I couldn't imagine it being a part of a cemetery. That's depressing.	7/13/2015 9:30 PM
73	The group that has organized around the farm events has provided a professional approach to a community opportunity to provide family oriented events, historical events, and entertainment. The events have been well run, and demonstrated a well thought out venue for highlighting history, community farmers markets and vendors selling goods. The farm, the organizers and the community deserves the support of the city to let this venue continue to flourish.	7/13/2015 9:24 PM
74	Please keep the Clark historic farm. Do not add cemetery to it. We need it for preservation of historical and cultural significance.	7/13/2015 9:20 PM
75	The cemetery SHOULD BE expanded to the newly acquired property east of the present cemetery. This is just so common sense to everyone who I talk to - why is even a battle? Leave the Clark Farm to us the people to enjoy and use. We are building memories and family traditions all of which are a source of PRIDE for both young and old and a vital link to those two in the community!!!	7/13/2015 9:12 PM
76	This shouldn't be a matter of either or, I think both the cemetery and the farm can exist in harmony	7/13/2015 9:01 PM
77	Please leave this as the community builder it can and has become.	7/13/2015 8:51 PM
78	Keep it a farm	7/13/2015 8:47 PM
79	I have liked the activities I have been to. I am worried about the safety of the structures and the costs associated with getting them to the safety codes for the liability sake. I am concerned about the costs of getting the land able to have reunions and family events. (Restrooms, water, electricity, and other facilities.) I understand fundraising/having enough events to raise money, but are there enough people willing to donate enough money to the cause to accomplish all that needs to be done? What about all of the city's storage there? Where does that go? Who pays for the places to store it? Are the "Friends" willing to pay for that? I think that there is a lot of work. I don't see it being the next wheeler farm without a lot deeper pockets. I have a lot of concerns. I think it has potential and can be a good thing for our community. But I think they need to coexist.	7/13/2015 8:43 PM
80	I am appalled that the Grantsville City Council can't - or refuse to see value of this gem in our community. This is one of the only things Grantsville has to offer that other communities don't already have. Instead of ruining it with a cemetery, let's do something with it that will benefit families and others in Grantsville. Who knows, maybe Grantsville could even be known for something other than a prison, a nuclear dumping ground and a backwards community a long way from SLC. Furthermore, didn't we, as a city, just purchase a large tract of land East of the current cemetery for future cemetery growth? Why can't we use that piece of land now & give this historical farm a chance to do something? If it fails, use the cemetery in 20 years when the new plot of land is filled. If this group is willing to pay the costs of running the farm then the city is out nothing and gains a site that has the potential to be a wonderful thing in this community.	7/13/2015 8:33 PM
81	It seems to me that Grantsville needs a venue to rally around and be proud of as a point of interest in the community.	7/13/2015 8:25 PM
82	Having a cemetery behind this beautiful historic farm would be a travesty. I believe that the motive behind the cemetery is to further some people's agendas and to also deepen their own pockets at the expense of or set little town.	7/13/2015 7:50 PM
83	There is entry of land elsewhere that can be used to expand or hold a new cemetery location. Look at other cities such as Ogden they have many cemetery's you don't need to use historical land for a cemetery historical land needs to be preserved as such!	7/13/2015 7:42 PM
84	I love the farm! My children have volunteered at Farm Camp, we've visited for the live nativity and luminary walk, as well as concerts.	7/13/2015 7:34 PM
85	Love this place!	7/13/2015 7:18 PM
86	Please allow the volunteers to continue to provide wholesome activities in our community at the Clark Farm.	7/13/2015 7:08 PM
87	we cannot lose another historical location, once it's lost it is lost forever. don't sell future generations short	7/13/2015 6:38 PM
88	Your events are too costly. Have to pay to enter and pay for all activities. The Benson Gristmills events are free	7/13/2015 6:28 PM
89	Why does the cemetery need to be so close to the farm? It seems there is land farther away from the farm or across the street with the rest of the cemetery. It's amazingly shortsighted to me that the city doesn't nurture and cherish the Clark Farm. It's so obvious. You limit the Clark farm's potential (community value, tourism, open green spaces) and you drastically cut off your nose to spite your face.	7/13/2015 6:27 PM

90	I would like the votes that are taken about the farm to be published on the web page so if I cannot attend city counsel meetings I can see who is against the farm. A vote against the farm and for the cometary will not not be getting my vote in the next election. Please help keep the community informed because we cannot trust most of the current administration.	7/13/2015 5:36 PM
91	I think the opinions of the people of Grantsville have been ignored. Many people have enjoyed the activities at the farm and some land should be set aside for that. Egos shouldn't factor into a decision like this.	7/13/2015 4:57 PM
92	My kids live Clark Farm please keep it for families!	7/13/2015 4:48 PM
93	It is a very historical place that needs to be saved.	7/13/2015 4:33 PM
94	Don't put the cemetery on Clark Farm property. If the city has to recoup it's investment they should sell the property for what they have in it, not to make a profit on the property.	7/13/2015 4:31 PM
95	We have so few areas that can be used for family entertainment I would hate to see us lose this one	7/13/2015 4:29 PM
96	If the cemetery has to be put in please start it on the far north end.	7/13/2015 4:26 PM
97	I think it's time for our elected officials to listen to the majority of the citizens and stop trying to push their own agenda.	7/13/2015 4:12 PM
98	Family's need places where they can go to enjoy the out of doors together. Cemeteries don't do that. People have been expiring and leaving their remains to be dealt with since time immemorial. There are more ways to bury them than those favored locally. There are better ways to do this than wasting our prime recreational property or sacrificing our heritage lands.	7/13/2015 3:18 PM
99	Please keep fighting!!! I have loved every event I have been able to attend and take my family to. There are not a lot of options in Grantsville or in Tooele County where you are able to spend good quality time with your family. We need the Clark farm and our future generations need it!	7/13/2015 3:16 PM
100	This was a poorly written survey. Most of the questions were very leasing.	7/13/2015 3:15 PM
101	Keep it the way it is now beauty and all	7/13/2015 3:13 PM
102	I love going to the farm. My daughter enjoys baby animal days and she really liked the live nativity.	7/13/2015 3:08 PM
103	We have brought our grandsons to several events there in the last few years and they have loved every minute of them all.	7/13/2015 3:07 PM
104	For once Grantsville needs to persevere something for future generations. We have lost Hollywood and Cooleys Lane with all the beautiful open space and farms. Please persevere the Clark farm as a historic farm for the residents of Grantsville to enjoy. Grantsville is growing and we need more parks and recreational opportunities. The Clark farm is a great place for the community to celebrate our heritage. Other communities persevere places like the Clark farm. This farm should not be sold off for cemetery plots. If you need more space or money use the parking lot next to the cemetery. The farm must be preserved we only have one park and not one developer has been required to finish any of the planned parks that were promised. The city council must consider preserving this beautiful farm the way it was meant to be for the pride of our pioneer heritage.	7/13/2015 2:48 PM
105	Why does the City council keep bringing this up?	7/13/2015 2:40 PM
106	I really enjoyed the Honey Harvest Festival and my daughter went to the Baby Animal Days and really loved it. I really value these activities in our community and would love to see them continue.	7/13/2015 2:25 PM
107	Grantsville needs to balance need of proper burial plots along with historical preservation. Both can grow without inhibiting the other - in fact, both should grow and nourish each other.	7/13/2015 2:22 PM
108	If they want a Cemetery go two hundred yards North of the Farm and do it there.	7/13/2015 2:04 PM
109	I hope the members of the city council and MAYOR...make a decision that will IMPROVE residents quality of life. Instead of doing what they PERSONALLY want. Do something of value for once. Natives are not impressed with any of the council's past decisions. Start now!	7/13/2015 1:53 PM
110	If events are scheduled (like farmers market or any other previous event...) then what is supposed to happen when there is a funeral that arises?! You can't predict death...and so a funeral service should wait for "the event" to be over? Or an event is supposed to be cancelled or postponed if a funeral arises? Either way, someone loses. ...there is plenty of land elsewhere that could be used for a cemetery. They do not have to be in the same location or vicinity to each other.	7/13/2015 1:46 PM

111	I am new to Grantsville, I have lived here only a few months. The first thing I did was search events that my family could go to in order to meet new people and be involved in the community. The only thing that I found, was the Farm Science Camp and Art camp at the Clark Farm. My children were so excited to be able to meet new friends and learn about our new adopted home. Tuachan, in Ivins, started a farmers market on every Saturday. It is proof that people long for the old community events that tie a small community together. I think having a farmers market at the Clark Farm would be an amazing event, along with the activities they already offer. I think offering a family "movie at the farm" night would be a great annual summer event that many families could look forward to. I noticed that you had one scheduled at the fire station, make it a weekly event during the summer at the Clark Farm and you have another community event centered at an important historical place in Grantsville. So many small communities are losing the attractions and activities that make a true community. When you lose that, you no longer know your neighbors and everyone stays behind closed doors. That would be so sad to witness, especially when people like us move to places like Grantsville for that reason. The sense of a true community.	7/13/2015 1:30 PM
112	Putting a cemetery at the Clark Farm never made any sense to me. If the property to be used as a cemetery was directly across the road it would make a little more sense. But to have to go behind the Clark farm makes no sense whatsoever.	7/13/2015 1:19 PM
113	I still can't believe this issue is still not solved. Suitable cemetery ground can be found anywhere but historic buildings and grounds are rare and only found exactly where they are.	7/13/2015 12:44 PM
114	I was not born or raised in Grantsville. I moved here because of the small town values and history. Please don't waist them. We can bury the dead anywhere, why would we destroy the past to remember the past?	7/13/2015 12:10 PM
115	Why not move city graveyard towards the hills? Why have it between homes?	7/13/2015 12:07 PM
116	Hopefully, the city can find sufficient land to expand the cemetery without encroaching on the Historic Farm.	7/13/2015 12:06 PM
117	There's plenty of other land to build a cemetery. Why ruin history?	7/13/2015 11:55 AM
118	Please preserve our village's history for families now and in the future.	7/13/2015 11:46 AM
119	Poor planning on the cities part since there are more options for expansion right next to the cemetery and on the west side.	7/13/2015 11:29 AM
120	We love the different events we have been to at the farm. The live nativity is fabulous. And my daughter LOVED the camp she went to this summer and was already asking to go again next year. I was impressed with all the thing she learned and came home to share with the rest of us.	7/13/2015 11:29 AM
121	I still don't understand why the land to the extreme north of the property can't be used as a cemetery. It seems to me that w/ proper planning, the land could support both uses.	7/13/2015 11:20 AM
122	Save our heritage! Please listen to the voice of the community and allow the farm to thrive as a community gathering place where families can learn of the past and the bonds of community and neighbors will be strengthened.	7/13/2015 11:18 AM
123	I think putting the cemetery as part of a historic sight is bad judgement. There are other locations where a 2nd cemetery could be located. Putting a cemetery as part of the farm - well, let's just say having a funeral on the same day as a big even would not be acceptable and I certainly don't want pictures of a funeral in the background when doing pictures of events. Grantsville needs to regroup on the location for the cemetery.	7/13/2015 11:16 AM
124	This farm needs to grow and the attractions are wonderful for families to attend together. Please consider elsewhere for the cemetery. Like the parking lot right next to the cemetery?!	7/13/2015 11:10 AM
125	I think the park and ride parking lot should go..extend the cemetery there.	7/13/2015 11:09 AM
126	Please keep, and expand, the Clark Farm!	7/13/2015 11:02 AM
127	Thanks to the friends of the Clark Farm for all the work they do to provide family friendly activities at the farm and for trying to protect our history.	7/13/2015 10:48 AM
128	I love going to the Clark farm. When i went last i took my whole family. I pointed out different equipment used to farm with. I was able to share some fond memories with my children.	7/13/2015 10:46 AM
129	What does Grantsville have to offer if NOT the Clark Farm? It's not a bad thing. Most cities would be grateful to have a group of volunteers to help instead of trying to thwart their efforts.	7/13/2015 10:28 AM
130	My children loved the day camp at the farm and want to attend next year.	7/13/2015 10:27 AM

131	I think it is vandalism ignorance and destruction! Why would we destroy our history? What would that teach our children? There are very few things in our lives that aren't changing. Our society is constantly updating. We need to hold on to our roots (the Clark farm) because that is what our community was founded upon. We destroy the farm and we will destroy apart of our foundation.	7/13/2015 10:20 AM
132	I have loved going to the Clark Farm and all the events there.	7/13/2015 10:15 AM
133	Please, please PLEASE do not allow Clark Historic Farm to be overrun with a cemetery. A place like this is rare and wonderful and deserves to be preserved.	7/13/2015 10:08 AM
134	We need to hold on to the little positive things we have. This is one of them.	7/13/2015 10:08 AM
135	I don't understand why, when there are people who are willing to give of their own time and resources, the government of this town has been so negative with everything they have tried to do. We need some positive things about this town and these people, (Friends of the Clark Farm) have donated TONS of their own time for it. I appreciate them!	7/13/2015 10:05 AM
136	I have been a lot of places, and each little city has something that makes them unique! There is always a little place that tells about history, etc. I think Grantsville has something great, and a bunch of wonderful volunteers that are willing to keep it going, (without expense to the city). It needs to stay!	7/13/2015 10:02 AM
137	Don't put cemetery in	7/13/2015 9:59 AM
138	Some city council members are obviously more interested in political technicalities than in what is really best for the future of the Clark Farm property.	7/13/2015 9:56 AM
139	If Clark historical farm was to be shut down it would devastate a whole community	7/13/2015 9:55 AM
140	The farm as a cemetery has a finite amount of profit it can make from the plots, you can only sell so many plots. But as a venue with attractions it has the potential to make profit and benefit the community for years to come.	7/13/2015 9:55 AM
141	When I first came to grantsville we visited the Clark farm for an event. That is what made me fall in love with grantsville. I love all the family events that are held there. We have been to many of the events such as the honey festival, farm days, the nativity scene and farmers markets. My family would be very sad if we couldn't do any of those fun things anymore! We have mad many great memories at the Clark farm!	7/13/2015 9:53 AM
142	we pay our taxes and the city paid for the up keep on the land for future cemetery use and now you want to keep it , thats like steeling our tax money	7/13/2015 9:52 AM
143	We are all sorry we tore the opera house down. Can we at least have some history left ?	7/13/2015 9:51 AM
144	It seems out of all of Grantsville there's got to be other options.	7/13/2015 9:49 AM
145	I think the city should be more involved in preserving this town's heritage. The Clark farm is a part of that heritage.	7/13/2015 9:49 AM
146	None	7/13/2015 9:49 AM
147	Having less space for events severely limits the events you can have there. A cemetery can go somewhere else, you can't move the farm.	7/13/2015 9:48 AM
148	I don't feel the farm contains enough history to warrant preservation. The land could be put to better use and activities can be held elsewhere.	7/13/2015 9:46 AM
149	I can't believe the city Council hasn't gotten the message yet, move the cemetery and quit fighting about it!	7/13/2015 9:42 AM
150	I have not talked to anybody that has said "we need the cemetery at the Clark Farm".	7/13/2015 9:41 AM
151	There are other locations that will not take away from our community that could be bought and used. Nothing else in Grantsville is taken care of, the cemetery looks terrible, the ball park looks bad as does the rodeo ground. Not to mention driving down Main Street and seeing the planter holders that are empty. The Clark farm looks fantastic and people in the. Immunity have been willing to step up and take care of it. Why ruin a good thing?	7/13/2015 9:38 AM
152	This is a great place for family fun.	7/13/2015 9:38 AM
153	There are plots ready in the Wooten property give the Clark farm a chance. If it doesn't work, you can sell plots at a later date. I don't understand why they are in such a hurry to sell plots there.	7/13/2015 9:36 AM
154	The Farm is not only a great place for historic learning activities but a place for recreational activities! The field where the cemetery could be built is the perfect place for people all over the community to hold their own activities, which would not be able to happen if there were cemetery plots in that same location.	7/13/2015 9:33 AM

Clark Historic Farm: Your Opinion Matters

155	The Clark Farm is a huge addition to the city of Grantsville. It is beautiful, educational and family friendly. To put the cemetery behind it would be an absolute tragedy and lazy on the part of the city.	7/13/2015 9:30 AM
156	They should have turned the park-n-ride parking lot into cemetery, not the Clark Farm!!	7/13/2015 9:25 AM
157	There are many other locations in town that could be used for a cemetery. There are not any other locations that could replace the Clark Historic Farm. If you break up the farm area you destroy the chance to use the Farm for wonderful events, like the Honey Harvest festival and Luminary walk, all of which are well attended. Everyone in our community can use the Clark Farm. A cemetery is used once and can be placed anywhere.	7/13/2015 9:22 AM
158	The Farm is an important place for people in the community to gather, and build the community together. There is no other place in Grantsville where this is happening. The Clark Historic Farm will do nothing but strengthen our community and pride in our town. It's hard to believe any other town was shun this kind of progress and opportunities.	7/13/2015 9:10 AM
159	No	7/13/2015 9:00 AM
160	As we moved into the city a few years ago from a much larger populated area, I began to look for places to go and things to do for my family. To be honest, Grantsville doesn't offer a lot. But the few things that have been offered by the Farm that I've been able to attend have made Grantsville feel a little bigger. The fact that the events have been free or cheap have added to its attractiveness, but not having it be completely renovated and ready for use has diminished the feeling. But the potential is great. I feel that by using some of the land surrounding the farm as a cemetery would mean that the grounds become more sacred and thus more awkward to hold community events in the space.	7/13/2015 8:57 AM
161	I love the Clark farm! It has already been a great addition to our little community. I hope the city council will see its value and figure out another location for the cemetery.	7/13/2015 8:51 AM
162	I think keeping the farm is very important. If there is no other option for the cemetery, I believe it should be as North as possible so the property can be shared.	7/13/2015 8:51 AM
163	Listen to your constituents, city fathers!	7/13/2015 8:46 AM
164	The summer camps provided at the Clark Farm were wonderful and hope they continue in the future.	7/13/2015 8:42 AM
165	The city owns it and it needs to be utilized to the fullest. The city has made a huge investment in the farm already by purchasing it and the ground work for a cemetery. Where was the friends of the Clark farm 15 years ago when it was for sale. Nobody cared until the city decided to utilize it as a cemetery.	7/13/2015 8:41 AM
166	I'm so thankful for not giving up against the city councils fight against you! Very much appreciate it!	7/13/2015 8:41 AM
167	Our family has enjoyed the Farm and the activities there. It would be a shame to lose it. However, we do need a new cemetery close by the existing one.	7/13/2015 8:32 AM
168	We have a rare opportunity, many communities in Utah have taken their connections with L D S Church history and created growth and unity. For some reason our community has used this gift as a dividing ground. Cemeteries have only one end, but as a community gathering place, Clark farm has endless possibilities for growth. The direction to take should be obvious.	7/13/2015 8:30 AM
169	Ideal use is the Historic Farm, but city has invested money into the cemetery and there may be time limit as to how long the city can wait for a resolution.	7/13/2015 8:29 AM
170	I would love to see the farm used as a site for wedding receptions. The barn would be a wonderful place to do them.	7/13/2015 8:20 AM
171	Please keep the farm. It adds so much charm to Grantsville. We love the farmers market.	7/13/2015 8:16 AM
172	The Clark farm is a part of Grantsville's history. It's important to teach our children and the people of Grantsville about the history of the farm.	7/13/2015 8:12 AM
173	Please keep the Farm. There is land next to the cemetery that can be expanded instead of the farm	7/13/2015 8:10 AM
174	Why not do an east cemetery?	7/13/2015 8:10 AM
175	It's a great place to hold events. It will be even better when some of the buildings have been restored and used for indoor activities.	7/13/2015 8:07 AM
176	I think the city would undercut themselves by turning the farm into a cemetery.	7/13/2015 8:02 AM

177	I appreciate the committee that have given of their time and resources to make the Clark Farm such a productive part of our community. How can you go wrong when You have such Great volunteers that our willing to give of their time to preserve something so worthwhile.	7/13/2015 8:01 AM
178	The farm needs to be saved as a farm. It's not going to work to have a cemetery on the north side of it.	7/13/2015 7:59 AM
179	It is so difficult these days to have somewhere to take the family that is community promoting. Events that are focused on family and socializing as a families. The Clark Farm has been a gem to our small children in learning what their ancestors went through and how simplicity is freedom. Why must we politically make everything so complicated when it comes to the Clark Farm? It's divisive and binding. To no longer have these events will be devastating.	7/13/2015 7:55 AM
180	Keep it the way it is.	7/13/2015 7:54 AM
181	My family has loved to attend events and hope and will continue to do so!	7/13/2015 7:52 AM

1	It IS the last great historical icon of Grantsville. Jay Reuben Clark was a remarkable man in Grantsville's history, and one who should be remembered and honored. What exactly is the farm hurting by being there? The farm stands for so many things, integrity, strength, history, and what use to be a way of life here in Grantsville, the farmer, and the list goes on. Why on earth would you destroy it...the only reason I can think of is the same reasons our government is trying to change our constitutional rights. It's not about what the people want, it's about business and they couldn't care less about 'the people'. This is wrong and they know it, but don't have a conscience and won't stand up for what is right. How did our governments become so corrupt? What happened to good old fashioned integrity.....oh....what???....its in the cemetery??....I see.	7/15/2015 3:26 PM
2	It's a place where you can relax and enjoy yourself. It's important to Grantsville's history. I want my future kids to be able to visit there. I want to be able to take my future kids to the events that they hold their. My future children's experiences are my highest priority and I want the Clark Farm to definitely be in their lives.	7/15/2015 2:09 PM
3	its Grantsvill's History!!!	7/15/2015 1:58 PM
4	It is a piece of the history of Grantsville. I take pride in my town and preserving it's historical sites is of vital importance.	7/15/2015 1:58 PM
5	It's incredible I take my kids there often and we love it. We would be devastated if it were anything else!	7/15/2015 1:55 PM
6	This property has historical roots that need to be preserved not taken away.	7/15/2015 1:52 PM
7	The Clark Farm made me happy and it was fun, exciting and left a good effect on me. Placing a graveyard next to a place meant for recreation is not a good idea and won't add to the fun, wonderful feeling people are supposed to get. The Clark Farm to me means being able to have fun, feel welcome there, socialize with other people, make friends and have a new interesting experience.	7/15/2015 1:37 PM
8	Fun, family events, history, learn some new & old skills, preserve knowledge.	7/15/2015 1:35 PM
9	A little piece of local history preserved for many generations to come.	7/15/2015 12:42 PM
10	The Clark farm has been such a fun place for my kids and family and myself to personally perform at what harm can that bring and it's affecting the community in such positive way!!!	7/15/2015 12:25 PM
11	I have some distant relatives that were connected to the the Farm. It would be sad to see it go. We need to preserve Historic sites, not sell them off.	7/15/2015 12:23 PM
12	A family attraction where we can take our family!	7/15/2015 12:21 PM
13	Fun place to go with the kids and make memories	7/15/2015 12:08 PM
14	It's preserving a piece of our heritage	7/15/2015 12:08 PM
15	A fun close place to make memories for my family	7/15/2015 12:07 PM
16	I have family ties on my husband's side & I grew up in Grantsville	7/15/2015 11:34 AM
17	My family loves it and will be very sad if it goes away.	7/15/2015 11:29 AM
18	Family fun	7/15/2015 11:06 AM
19	This is part of our history and a great asset to our community.	7/15/2015 11:00 AM
20	I believe the Clark Farm is a huge asset to Grantsville. It provides a place where people can go to learn about the history of Grantsville and to enjoy the activities that go on there which brings the community together. You can build a cemetery elsewhere, there is plenty of land. Please keep the farm in our community!	7/15/2015 10:57 AM
21	It brings a sense of togetherness and community in Grantsville through rich history.	7/15/2015 10:55 AM
22	It is a vitally important piece of the history of Grantsville City. It most certainly be preserved as a historical landmark and available to everyone - a living history museum router of thing.	7/15/2015 10:39 AM

23	My kids grew up going here. We have even done a geocach hunt here. Now my grand daughter loved coming here.	7/15/2015 10:35 AM
24	Fun for families, a great place, not a cemetery!!	7/15/2015 10:29 AM
25	Keep it. I LOVE history. Why is important to have the DUP or SUP if history doesn't matter?	7/15/2015 9:40 AM
26	The Historic Clark Farm is a place for each of us to learn a little of the history & lifestyle that made Grantsville the amazing community that it is. To know what made this city what it is, will help us plan where it's going!	7/15/2015 8:33 AM
27	It is history!! We love it!!	7/15/2015 8:33 AM
28	Preserving the J. Reuben Clark Historic Farm will preserve our rich history. We don't need another Opera House lamentation in Grantsville! The Clark Farm has been the perfect location for so many community events over the last two years, let's keep that going!	7/15/2015 7:58 AM
29	A great place to get maired or have funtions.there are not enouf places to learn about the past eather.	7/15/2015 3:21 AM
30	We love it!	7/15/2015 12:48 AM
31	It means a lot. I've studied the history and it has such a special feeling there.	7/15/2015 12:33 AM
32	Nothing but a money Pitt for the city. How can it be a historic place when there is a business being ran out of it. The museum is ok and the historic part could actually fit in real well with a cemetery because they are both a place for reflection. It will never be a wheeler farm or a gardener village or even a pioneer village.	7/14/2015 11:27 PM
33	The Clark farm is a great resource for the community. Being a community resource it can be multiple things to different groups. If it becomes a dedicated facility to Friends of the Clark Farm and a financial enterprise dedicated to making more and more money. It will have to act as such with longer hours, daily operations, and with little benefit to the average Grantsville citizen.	7/14/2015 10:27 PM
34	Good family fun; a local history lesson for kids and newcomers; peaceful.	7/14/2015 10:12 PM
35	A happy place for me and my family!	7/14/2015 10:07 PM
36	History of out town and ancestors	7/14/2015 10:03 PM
37	It is an amazing place for families to go and one of the best attractions in Grantsville.	7/14/2015 9:19 PM
38	It's such a great place that has such great historical meaning behind it. a cemetary would take away all of it you couldn't hold events ever because what if a funeral would be held on the same day it just is wrong!!!	7/14/2015 9:13 PM
39	It means I'm in my hometown. Where I grew up graduated high school and played red rover just like my mom, grandfather and great grandmother did. Don't destroy our heritage to bury the loved ones who enjoyed it.	7/14/2015 9:12 PM
40	It means a place my family can go to enjoy themselves. It means another lovely attraction in the center of town. Cemeteries aren't best laid in a towns core but off to the side on peaceful land out of the hustle n bustle of daily life. When I think of a cemetery I think of a quiet place I'm the woods away from it al!!!!!! that folks can visit their loved ones graves in peace...	7/14/2015 8:51 PM
41	I LOVE to watch my daughters perform there with the grantsville arts council. I LOVE taking my grandkids to see the animals. I loved all the wonderful performances all summer last year.	7/14/2015 8:48 PM
42	My heritage	7/14/2015 8:39 PM
43	I have lived in Grantsville all my life. I think it should be a historical Farm. I think the Clark family would like that. I knew some of them.	7/14/2015 8:25 PM
44	The Clark Farm is an of important part of Grantsville, Utah and US history because of the family who lived there and the type of farm buildings that can be restored to teach all about the past. We have NOT preserved any historical buildings for public use and have lost much of Grantsville's history because of this. Our town is looking run down and there is nothing that would cause people to want to visit here other than family. Clark Farm could become another Wheeler Farm preserving history, providing a social venue, and teaching children about what life was like for their grandparents.	7/14/2015 8:14 PM
45	a place for the living, not the buried	7/14/2015 8:04 PM
46	It is a place where many great Grantsville traditions take place.	7/14/2015 6:41 PM

47	My family has been apart of Grantsville since it was first settled. The Clark Farm represents a history that can not be replaced, Grantsville Finally has something for people to come to Grantsville for not residents having to go to Tooele or the other side of the valley to enjoy.	7/14/2015 5:58 PM
48	It means that we do not have to go to Stansbury, Tooele or Salt Lake for a Farmer's Market, festivals, etc. It is so wonderful to have these activities in town.	7/14/2015 5:54 PM
49	Nothing. I do not benefit from it. I have lived in Grantsville my entire life and know nothing of it except that it is used for family pictures and a preschool.	7/14/2015 3:31 PM
50	It is a vital part of the community.	7/14/2015 3:09 PM
51	The current Clark Farm stands as a reminder of much that is and was sweet and simple and glorious about living in this jewel of a town. We moved here from outside of the city because of a feeling. We felt as we drove through and looked around at the marvelous remnants of the farming lifestyle that we were coming home. The Clark Farm has been a symbol, an embodiment- if you will, of that feeling. Though circumstances have not allowed me to become deeply involved int the efforts of the current representatives of the Clark Farm, I feel as passionately as those who are working to preserve it for community use. They have breathed a spirit into the place that will likely be sold away and snuffed out with the coming of burial plots.	7/14/2015 2:34 PM
52	It was a gift from the past that keeps on giving to our future. I hope the Mayor and the city council get behind the Clark Farm and support it growth.	7/14/2015 2:33 PM
53	I've seen too much history destroyed in Grantsville. This is something in which we can be proud to have in our community. It will be a shame to destroy this, too. This is what our town needs more than another cemetery. That can come later (in thirty years) somewhere else.	7/14/2015 1:57 PM
54	Positive, family friendly, uplifting, events/attractions/performances, fun!	7/14/2015 1:55 PM
55	A great place to gather for local activities that carries a strong historical significance!	7/14/2015 1:24 PM
56	It is a very important part of history not only for Grantsville but for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The church works very hard to preserve history related to both the state and the church. Shy destroy something so valuable in important to so many people of the community as well as the church.	7/14/2015 1:23 PM
57	My family loves coming here. It would be such a sad thing if it were to other be available in the future.	7/14/2015 1:11 PM
58	It sounds like it would be a nice family outing	7/14/2015 12:29 PM
59	A very important historical site that should be preserved.	7/14/2015 12:14 PM
60	It is a headache; a constant back and forth decision. I could see both sides to the issue and would just like a decision to be made.	7/14/2015 11:47 AM
61	Wonderful place for community and family events.	7/14/2015 11:27 AM
62	I love the Clark Farm, my daughter and her children all come out from Salt Lake to attend some of the events held at the Clark Farm.	7/14/2015 10:31 AM
63	Much like the Donner Reed museum it is another local attraction to bring people to our town. We have few true tourist attractions other than our mountains and the recreation they bring. The Clark Farm is a place where you can take your kids and enjoy the time and not have to worry about what they are exposed to. I believe a cemetery would change the ambience of the farm.	7/14/2015 10:23 AM
64	It means a lot to me! We have to hold onto those priceless things in life. The world is constantly changing and moving at such a fast pace, that it is easy to forget about our legacy, a towns legacy!	7/14/2015 10:16 AM
65	It is a great place to learn and help children learn about history. History and historical sites are extremely important!	7/14/2015 10:12 AM
66	You cannot put a price on heritage and learning. This farm should be preserved for our community and allow people of all ages to enjoy the opportunities that take place and hopefully will continue to take place in the future. I do not want a cemetery placed there. Thank you for the opportunity to comment.	7/14/2015 9:16 AM
67	It has no significant importance to me, other than the lands needs to be utilized as a cemetery so that it is in the same proximity as the present cemetery.	7/14/2015 9:06 AM

68	It means "community". While just about every community these days can boast that they play host to one or more strip malls, few can say that they care enough about their history, their ancestors, and their unique culture that they've preserved a whole farm complex from yesteryear. Clark Historic Farm's very existence means that Grantsville leaders care about their forefathers and the history of the town. The Farm means that our community values our culture and believes there's timeless lessons it can teach us - even as we move from an economy built upon agriculture to one of consumerism. The continuation of the Farm means that our community values these lessons and honors our past.	7/14/2015 9:05 AM
69	Family Fun and creating memories for my kids.	7/14/2015 8:54 AM
70	nothing it is a money pit that will continue for ever in other words a WHITE ELEPHANT	7/14/2015 8:45 AM
71	I love this place. It would be very sad to see it go. A cemetery os a sad place. The Clark farm is a happy place. We can place the cemetery some where else less noticeable.	7/14/2015 8:26 AM
72	everything! the importance of history should not be overlooked.	7/14/2015 8:23 AM
73	a great place for learning and fun for everyone..not many places like that in Tooele county	7/14/2015 8:19 AM
74	History and Education	7/14/2015 7:53 AM
75	The Clark farm is a place that I can take my family for wholesome, uplifting, educational activities that bring unity and enjoyment to the entire community.	7/14/2015 4:20 AM
76	I felt proud of Grantsville for providing events like farmers markets and camps to teach children about pioneer heritage and farming. It is a venue to teach values to my children and provide a great place for my family to gather.	7/14/2015 1:58 AM
77	An invaluable location and venue for amazing, year-round events and community-building fun. The prospect of a cemetery destroys this.	7/14/2015 1:35 AM
78	Just many many memories and appreciating that you would have a chance to be able to do more.	7/14/2015 1:10 AM
79	A future. The honey festive could be huge.	7/14/2015 12:52 AM
80	An incredible man of honor who believed that serving the Lord, family, and fellow man were the most important part of life lived in that red brick house. We need to question and ponder how he would advise us as we stand at this crossroad in time. With one choice we can never go back.	7/13/2015 11:49 PM
81	It means a lot to myself, my husband, and my kids. We love visiting and love the things they have there. :) We really hope it continues!	7/13/2015 10:55 PM
82	It is a connection with the past, that we can learn from.	7/13/2015 10:52 PM
83	Its such a great place to enjoy fun events together as a family.	7/13/2015 10:44 PM
84	It's a historical place and it's important to our history	7/13/2015 10:40 PM
85	It is a historic part of Grantsville where I grew up and still live. Love the farm!	7/13/2015 10:21 PM
86	The Clark farm is important to me because it is a tribute to our community. The museum that is within it is very informative and a fun place for people to learn of the history of Grantsville we need a place where families tango	7/13/2015 10:08 PM
87	Its history of grantsville	7/13/2015 9:55 PM
88	Family, history, fun events, local flavor, a welcoming place to go.	7/13/2015 9:30 PM
89	It is a wonderful example of a community coming together for family oriented events, spot lighting history, fun, and local vendors. To not continue support of the farm would be a real, and, most likely, non recoverable loss to the community. As a community and the city government, the long view needs to be taken on the unique potential the farm offers to current and future generations regarding our history, family oriented events, and culture as a community. What message do we provide for our children - replace and throw away or treasure our history and our community.	7/13/2015 9:24 PM
90	Part of our history and our legacy for future generations	7/13/2015 9:22 PM
91	A great place to experience grantsville history and a great gathering place for family and community	7/13/2015 9:20 PM
92	Precious history.	7/13/2015 9:19 PM

93	BOY age 12- i love it! I love the summer camps- I love the honey harvest, 4th of July breakfast, baby animals, and night time lighted walk in the field. The Clark Farm means to me is the sense of history like you can feel what it was like to pioneers. It helps me appreciate what I have. BOY Age 9- The Clark Farm is a FUN and Happy place where we as kids can learn about our ancestors. Its really neat to learn how to feed animals, pet the baby animals, and when my mom lets me buy something from the sellers. I love the Honey we got from there on my toast!!! BOY Age 7- Its so much FUN!! my favorite is the Christmas Nativity, summer camps, night time walk in the field. As you can see our family is very supportive of our Clark Farm!! We love all it provides and I echo our boys feelings of love, fun, learning, history, and sense of community. To whom it may concern: Please DONT take this away from ALL of us!!!	7/13/2015 9:12 PM
94	It's a nice piece of Grantsville history, but no one has really invested in it until the last couple of years. No one is threatening to tear it down, the cemetery will be far enough away.	7/13/2015 9:01 PM
95	Not much. I grew up in Grantsville and heard that J Rueben Clark had lived there but his farm was never mentioned. It might be nice to have a place to learn about Grantsville History, but the Pioneer Museum could also serve that purpose.	7/13/2015 8:54 PM
96	We have moved a lot in the past and this is the longest we've ever lived anywhere. The Clark Farm has given my kids and our whole family something to allow us to quickly integrate into the community and volunteer. This is their community now because of those opportunities, and for a large family the cost is very minimal which means even if we can't volunteer for that event we can still go to it.	7/13/2015 8:51 PM
97	A significant place to our city	7/13/2015 8:47 PM
98	It's a chance to create something great in Grantsville. Instead of ruining one of the only historical sites left in town, let's do something with it for families that will benefit current citizens and visitors to our town.	7/13/2015 8:33 PM
99	I have only been in Grantsville for two years but was surprised to find that there has been a gathering place for plays and events many years ago but one does not exist now.	7/13/2015 8:25 PM
100	It is the heart of Grantsville. Please preserve it for us and future generations!	7/13/2015 8:25 PM
101	A nice piece of ground that can be used in multiple ways	7/13/2015 8:09 PM
102	The farm becoming a cemetery is just plain not what the city needs. Yes, it needs a bigger cemetery. There are plant of alternatives from the Clark Farm. That place needs to be kept a place of family and fun, not become the essence of death and expiration.	7/13/2015 8:04 PM
103	I enjoy going to the Clark Farm for events. I loved taking my granddaughter to different things there.	7/13/2015 7:53 PM
104	It wonderful place with special events. My children love it! I know that they have already made so many special memories there. It's definitely one of a kind! I feel sorry for other communities that don't have a special place like this to hold events at.	7/13/2015 7:50 PM
105	I've only lived in Grantsville a short time but I love the events at the Farm and my family enjoys this time together. Using this land for other means would take away from the value we have gotten from this small town community. If you tear down the past you can't replace it. Once it's gone it's gone forever. Think before you ruin a great treasure in this wonderful town!	7/13/2015 7:42 PM
106	It's a tie to the historic Grantsville my ancestors knew. Some of my ancestors (the Knowltons) used to come from Skull Valley to visit with the Clarks, so it's a connection not just to the home I love (Grantsville) but to ancestors I've only heard stories about. Please preserve it!	7/13/2015 7:34 PM
107	It's a place that families can go to be a part of a community as well as learn about history and culture. There are other locations that can be used as a cemetery, why not restore this great place and leave a legacy of community and education for the next generation.	7/13/2015 7:23 PM
108	It makes me feel like grantsville isn't just grantsville and that it's historically apart of it.	7/13/2015 7:18 PM
109	It helps create the small town feel of neighbors caring for one another. We enjoy the events held there.	7/13/2015 7:08 PM
110	it is a great , local gem. I have been pleased with the events held there the past couple of years	7/13/2015 6:38 PM
111	It's surprising that the city does not see the value of the Clark historic farm. Honestly the live nativity is the first reason i went to Grantsville after 10 years of living in Stansbury. It is the reason i most frequent Grantsville now. The Clark Farm breathes life into your community. It has changed the way i see Grantsville. The city should support the Clark farm's efforts because with the amazing volunteers they have at the farm,the possibilities are endless.	7/13/2015 6:27 PM
112	We love to go their	7/13/2015 5:45 PM

113	Someplace that we can go as a family. The youth need somewhere to go with there parents and grandparents. This town has nothing to offer other than school activities. When will this town wake up to the fact that strong family's are better for a community. Give us something to do all year round. Don't take away from the community!	7/13/2015 5:36 PM
114	It's an important part of Grantsville's history and should be celebrated, not politicized	7/13/2015 4:57 PM
115	Fun, games and education.	7/13/2015 4:48 PM
116	I really love the barns and the history surrounding the farm.	7/13/2015 4:33 PM
117	Preservation of our heritage.	7/13/2015 4:31 PM
118	Its a place for family's to go learn about Grantsville history and a gathering place for people to visit. Excellent place for a farmers market maybe even swap meets. Fund raising events	7/13/2015 4:26 PM
119	Clark Historic Farm is now home to my families personal history as items/buildings were donated to be a part of the historic farm. My family has lived in and been a part of Grantsville for 6 generations. We need to preserve and honor our past.	7/13/2015 4:12 PM
120	Memories and fun times supporting local!!	7/13/2015 3:43 PM
121	I think that the Clark Farm is a great asset to our community. It is so fun to go to their events, and to get to know other people in our town. Please keep the Farm.	7/13/2015 3:42 PM
122	It is a historic place that should be preserved as part of Grantsville' history.	7/13/2015 3:34 PM
123	Cultural asset preservation. Housing developments are going up like mushrooms in the night...we are in danger of loosing our community soul. Yes growth is good and inevitable, but uncontrolled and poorly planned growth is a cancer that will destroy our community spirit, our rural character, our heritage. I would much rather have a family park in the center of town than a cemetery, and that farm is only one block of main street. We have a bunch of new folks in town lets make them a brand new cemetery some where else....	7/13/2015 3:18 PM
124	Never been. Poorly advertised events and atractions.	7/13/2015 3:15 PM
125	Family opportunities	7/13/2015 3:13 PM
126	It is a place where I can take my family to have a good time. I like the heritage there.	7/13/2015 3:08 PM
127	Historical places are so rare and should be preserved.	7/13/2015 3:07 PM
128	We have learned and enjoyed many events there. We consider it a tradition to continue to attend. We enjoy family friendly places, and local attractions!	7/13/2015 3:03 PM
129	I love the farm. It is something that should be saved as it is for the future. We have lost all of our other loved locations in Grantsville. Please let the people of Grantsville save the farm!	7/13/2015 2:48 PM
130	Historic value. We can't keep destroying "old" things.	7/13/2015 2:40 PM
131	An historic place that represents the farming traditions of the past.	7/13/2015 2:25 PM
132	The Clark Farm has always been across the street from where my ancestors lie. It has been a place of reverence and respect of those who have come before me. We must figure out a way to feed both the past, the present and the future - at the same time.	7/13/2015 2:22 PM
133	It is an important piece of our Grantsville Heritage that can be preserved for many generations. It can be expanded.	7/13/2015 2:04 PM
134	It is a TREASURED land!! A precious piece of Grantsville history and way of life that we have sold to the highest bidder. It is a place to reconnect with history and nature. A place of solace from ordinary life. We have few public places to enjoy nature in town. We need to preserve it for so many important reasons!!!	7/13/2015 1:53 PM

135	My husband has lived here for about 25 years, and myself a little over 20. Neither of us have any familial connection to the Clark Farm, but as I mentioned above--it's history. It needs to stay. Landmarks are what make a small town (any town for that matter) unique and tells its story. Recently the BBQ restaurant burned down and there were so many comments of sadness that it was the old Lions building and talk if different things it had been in the past...and now it is no longer. That was a hazard, but taking away something else historic, the Clark Farm, would be choice. ...and a sad one.before my husband moved here, his family loved in South Jordan. ...the farmland there was not historic, but nevertheless, it was farmland, open country. Now it is replaced with subdivisions and businesses galore. It starts little, and then it progresses.a cemetery is not necessarily "residential" or "commercial", but what if we give in to the idea that the cemetery is ok...and then in the future they want to put something else there?? Taking up more if the farm...?? Just leave it alone and add a cemetery in another part of town.	7/13/2015 1:46 PM
136	It means then heart of a community. Take out the heart, the town dies, and changes into just another city.	7/13/2015 1:30 PM
137	It means a great deal to me. I highly value it as a historic attraction and a community event venue.	7/13/2015 1:19 PM
138	Huge historical significants plus an oportunity for our community to draw in outside $ plus give locals more to do.	7/13/2015 12:44 PM
139	It's where my child went to preschool and enjoyed the open, farm scene. I take my children to farm animal events and purchase local products at the Clark farm. It's a great location for family photos. I like it just how it is a beautiful historic part of grantsville!	7/13/2015 12:40 PM
140	The Farm to me means, what this town stands for, small town failures and tradition. It gives the community a place to bond together as they build a future for their children. It is not a bunch of old buildings it is the blood sweat and tears of the pioneers that settled this land. I don't know of many places theft that help us remember who we are and where we came from.	7/13/2015 12:10 PM
141	From out of state. First thing I liked about this town. There isn't anything else special about Grantsville. Or reason to come here.	7/13/2015 12:07 PM
142	Preservation of the Clark Historic Farm is the best way to honor J. Reuben Clark and other early residents and pass our history to our children.	7/13/2015 12:06 PM
143	It's a place that connects to old roots.	7/13/2015 11:55 AM
144	I really liked going to the Honey Harvest festival there, I thought it was a great venue for that and similar events.	7/13/2015 11:49 AM
145	A local gathering place. Fun family friendly events. Historical landmark.	7/13/2015 11:46 AM
146	My kids love to go there!	7/13/2015 11:30 AM
147	A place to enjoy community activities in a safe clean environment.	7/13/2015 11:29 AM
148	An important piece of history of the Lincoln Highway.	7/13/2015 11:28 AM
149	A charming and community place that brings Grantsville to life. It's places like these that make towns special and vibrant.	7/13/2015 11:20 AM
150	That Grantsville cares and is proud of their heritage and that we want to share that with all people.	7/13/2015 11:18 AM
151	I believe it helps keep the community grounded, having a place to see how it all began. I am not a native to Grantsville but there are FEW places left where a community's heritage is evident. Those locations that are still around should be kept for future generations - once it's gone, it's gone.	7/13/2015 11:16 AM
152	I love taking my grandkids there. I feel like it has turned into a power trip or struggle with our mayor. I feel like it is his idea for the cemetery and how dare you go against that! I have seen him treat people very rudely over this topic and have been very disappointed with his behavior. Don't miss out on an opportunity to improve our city.	7/13/2015 11:15 AM
153	It means history, family, heritage. Please keep it that way.	7/13/2015 11:10 AM
154	A place for my children, and grandchildren, to come together. A place where the community can gather together. A place of pride and service.	7/13/2015 11:02 AM
155	I love history! I love having a historic site right in my home town. I have very fond memories there. I remember taking a tour of the Clark Farm when I was in elementary school, and gaining a great respect. I love how we are now incorporating the past with the present. Such as festivals, plays, and concerts. Going there with my little nieces, is some of my fondest memories, creating memories is creating history. I hope to create many more!	7/13/2015 10:59 AM
156	It is a wonderful piece of Grantsville's history.	7/13/2015 10:48 AM

157	Where else can you take your family and show them how farming was back in the day? I think it's very important for our youth to know where we came from.	7/13/2015 10:46 AM
158	Have you been to the events? The home-town feel, the love of community and history of our town, the fun events for kids and teens -- Why would we NOT want something like the Clark Farm? A cemetery can be anywhere in town but there's only one Clark Historic Farm.	7/13/2015 10:28 AM
159	It means history family community. It is somewhere to take my children to teach them about out town. When you are there it feels like you are apart of a large family.	7/13/2015 10:20 AM
160	It is a FANTASTIC pioneer setting to show off our great pioneer history.	7/13/2015 10:18 AM
161	It is a nice place for local gatherings but it is an amazingly sacred and beautiful place for a cemetery.	7/13/2015 10:16 AM
162	The Clark Farm is a historic location not only for Grantsville but for all people that relish the past and honor those that came before us. A cemetery there would diminish the honor that we could give them as a living and learning place for generations to come.	7/13/2015 10:15 AM
163	History - family - fun - education.	7/13/2015 10:09 AM
164	It is a place where memories of the past can help us build new memories. It is our heritage!	7/13/2015 10:08 AM
165	Clark Farm has been a VERY positive way for my family to spend time together. I would love to see the traditions that have started there continue and improve for many years to come.	7/13/2015 10:05 AM
166	It is a great place that families can go, and it's pretty great that we can learn about our history!	7/13/2015 10:02 AM
167	NOTHING	7/13/2015 10:02 AM
168	Fun willed education for kids and families	7/13/2015 9:59 AM
169	Grantsville basically has no historical place for upcoming generations to value, other than the Clark Farm. Let's preserve it, not destroy it!	7/13/2015 9:56 AM
170	I love going there with my family. We always go to learn more history about Grantsville and we also go there to have family events!	7/13/2015 9:56 AM
171	It means that I can go and have fun with my whole community and know anything that happens will be enjoyable. It is a place that I want around for as long as possible it is a place I want to take my kids to someday	7/13/2015 9:55 AM
172	My family and I are very active in the community in grantsville, the Clark historic farm is a large part of that community. Removing the Clark farm removes a sense of community and small town feel that grantsville thrives on. Grantsville already struggles to bring in customers due to its location, don't make it harder by removing one of its only tourist venues.	7/13/2015 9:55 AM
174	It's an Historical Farm and we don't have anything else like it in Grantsville. It would be like doing away with the Sociable.	7/13/2015 9:51 AM
175	Keeps our community close and gives me a chance to show my children the kind of town I grew up in.	7/13/2015 9:51 AM
176	Clark Historic Farm is one of the most important things that makes Grantsville, Grantsville. A great place to call my home town. I think that feeling which includes places like Clark Historic Farm is exactly why so many people who grew up here and move away as young adults, also move back to raise their families here. We need those many generations along w/older generations especially to have community events like Clark Historic Farm so our children can learn from and not lose their heritage. Clark Historic Farm is very important in our community.	7/13/2015 9:49 AM
177	It means I still live in a small town where people care about having wholesome activities for families.	7/13/2015 9:49 AM
178	It is a great historical place and can teach us all!	7/13/2015 9:49 AM
179	My family loves Clark Farm! It is a safe and fun environment that my children should be able to grow up having so close.	7/13/2015 9:49 AM
180	A beautiful safe location where I can take my family to do anything from farmers market and a play to family photos and seeing a live nativity.	7/13/2015 9:48 AM
181	I love going there for plays, honey harvest, christmas nativity, and the farmers markets.	7/13/2015 9:42 AM

182	It has been fun to take the family to the farm for different events. I have loved watching a group of citizens volunteer so much time to make the events spectacular. I think they have laid a nice foundation and hope the City will support them to continue to build upon what they have built.	7/13/2015 9:41 AM
183	It is a perfect place to gather as friends and family and engage in activities that are stimulating for children as well as adults. I love the Farm and will be very sad to see it be ruined.	7/13/2015 9:38 AM
184	I worked at the Benson Grist Mill for many years. When it was shut down it was very nice to have a place in the county to have fun family-oriented activities. Although the mill is now open it will never be what it was. The Clark Farm has the potential to become what the mill was.	7/13/2015 9:38 AM
185	It is a huge piece of the history of Grantsville. Let's preserve it!	7/13/2015 9:36 AM
186	As a youth in the city of Grantsville, the Clark Farm has given me countless opportunities to serve my community. I've loved being a part of the Youth Guild and helping with events. While I am at the Clark Farm I like to watch the people, and they really enjoy everything about it. The community really comes together. The service opportunities provide scholarship opportunities as well, these would not be as available to me and others if the activities at the Farm were limited.	7/13/2015 9:33 AM
187	A place where people can go to learn, share, and gather.	7/13/2015 9:33 AM
188	The Clark Farm is a gift to the city of Grantsville. The people who so graciously give of their time and talents to help it run are also gifts to the community. We are lucky to have a place that celebrates our past as well as celebrating the present.	7/13/2015 9:30 AM
189	Grantsville History!! Family Fun!!	7/13/2015 9:25 AM
190	It gives me a chance to teach my children about our community and to enjoy the rich history here. It's a wonderful gathering place for us to enjoy local activities and artisans and local food. Before it was used for events and the museum put in our town didn't have anyplace designated to gather and celebrate together. Now we have someplace set aside to celebrate our community. I'd be willing to pay extra on my taxes to keep the Clark Farm running and to place the cemetery extension in another location.	7/13/2015 9:22 AM
191	It is a great learning environment for families. and entertainment we need that here we need to preserve the past.	7/13/2015 9:17 AM
192	It means the history of our great town, and a place where we can gather to celebrate the history and visit with our community during fun events.	7/13/2015 9:13 AM
193	I have dreamed about events at the Clark Farm for years. It has great potential as a home for the performing arts in Grantsville, which is an important part of our history, yet has even greater importance to the youth and families of this town. It is a place for our youth, our elderly and everyone in between.	7/13/2015 9:10 AM
194	It's family so it means a lot	7/13/2015 9:03 AM
195	It's a piece of history that should stay with us for as long as possible	7/13/2015 9:00 AM
196	We've had so much fun there and would love to continue going.	7/13/2015 8:52 AM
197	It provides a place of community gathering, educational opportunities for children, a way to show pride in our town. It brings in people from outside Grantsville and helps promote old fashioned values. It means there is a place for my children to grow intellectually, socially and culturally.	7/13/2015 8:51 AM
198	The Clark farm is a wonderful local place for fun and educational family and community events. Keep it going! My kids have already participated in a play, the baby animal days/farm days and love to help out at any activity concerning any event happening there it would be a shame to loose it.	7/13/2015 8:51 AM
199	We love it!!!	7/13/2015 8:51 AM
200	It is a clean, fun, family friendly place to take my kids to learn and play.	7/13/2015 8:46 AM
201	Not one dam thing.	7/13/2015 8:41 AM
202	Besides great programs and family- friendly activities, the historical value is way beyond measure! It's such a part of this community now, I can NOT see it ending!	7/13/2015 8:41 AM
203	The volunteers are doing a wonderful job.	7/13/2015 8:32 AM
204	Clark farm is a wonderful reminder that simple beginnings don't have to lead to simple futures, with work and determination anything can be achieved. Farming is on the decline in this country but Clark farm reminds us of the life and work ethic farming can instill in a person. If we waste this property on a "Prestigious" place to rest our bones, we will be missing the potential of this wonderful property.	7/13/2015 8:30 AM

205	It is important to keep historic buildings intact and if it can bring revenue to our city and businesses that is wonderful. I don't think a cemetery would be a wise choice. It would take away from the charm.	7/13/2015 8:20 AM
206	A fun place for historic and family oriented events.	7/13/2015 8:19 AM
207	The Clark farm has been a place my girls look forward to going to since the day they realized all the fun they could have there. There aren't enough neat family friendly places in Grantsville and the Clark farm has been the perfect addition. I love having fun things to look forward to doing with my family and not having to go too far is the best!	7/13/2015 8:14 AM
208	It has been a great place for me and my family to go and attend functions. I have enjoyed taking my family to the pancake breakfast, animal days and farmers market each year. It would be a great loss to lose this part of history to our community.	7/13/2015 8:12 AM
209	The farm helps keep a little bit of small town/rural atmosphere in our growing town. Helps preserve Grantsvilles heritage.	7/13/2015 8:10 AM
210	Special family events and memories.	7/13/2015 8:10 AM
211	It's history for our small town and now days that's priceless.	7/13/2015 8:09 AM
212	Keeping historical sites is important for a number of reasons. Too many places have been destroyed in the name of progress. There are people that feel a connection to places like the Clark Farm, the Old Opera House, the old high school gym,etc. Let's try to keep at least one part of Grantsville's heritage.	7/13/2015 8:07 AM
213	We love the farm! Everytine we drive by the kids ask if we can stop at the farm. We have so many family memories that were created at the farm.	7/13/2015 8:07 AM
214	It is a place I can take my family and enjoy the experiential opportunities the children have.	7/13/2015 8:02 AM
215	I'm new to Grantsville and have loved the family atmosphere at the farm especially honey festival and farmers market	7/13/2015 8:02 AM
216	It is our Heritage. I would like it to be there for future generations to enjoy.	7/13/2015 8:01 AM
217	I think the farm will unite the town together.	7/13/2015 8:00 AM
218	We love having a place to go in our own town for fun events. Please don't put a cemetery on the north side. Leave it a big farm like it should be.	7/13/2015 7:59 AM
219	It's the only remnants of our heritage we have left. To have space enough to meet there and celebrate as family, friends and neighbors has been a remarkable experience. The Clark Farm means the preservation of the past. It means that we remember where we come from and how hard work truly pays off.	7/13/2015 7:55 AM
220	A place to learn abt the past and how we can live better today.	7/13/2015 7:54 AM
221	Love that we are preserving local history and having local events for families.	7/13/2015 7:53 AM
222	Family time, history, and Grantsville	7/13/2015 7:52 AM
223	Farm camp for my kids	7/13/2015 7:51 AM
224	I think it would be a shame to not keep up the farm.	7/13/2015 7:50 AM
