

Megan has been dancing since 2007 at Elsa Pardo Dance Center in Tampa, FL. There she was trained in all styles of dance, and additionally danced competitively for 9 years in Ballet/Pointe, Jazz, Contemporary, Tap, and Acro. She also gained experience in teaching and choreographing during this time. With ballet being her main focus, she advocates for all dancers to center their technique around ballet in order to succeed in the other styles. Megan has worked with children of all ages since 2013 through teaching assistance and Girl Scouts Leadership. Megan is currently attending University of Central Florida, working towards a Bachelors of Science in Psychology with a Certificate in Behavioral Forensics.
