

Baslock, Kenneth B.

Kenneth B. Baslock, 75, of Bad Axe, passed away on Saturday, June 18, 2005, at his home following an extended illness. He was born on June 28, 1929 in Bad Axe, son of the late Fred and Nettie (Cox) Baslock. He married Rose Marie Mandich on December 5, 1959 in Caseville. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict and was a Life Member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2236 in Pigeon. He worked for 23 years at Michigan Lumber in Elkton before he owned and operated the former Baslock Sunoco service station in Bad Axe. He enjoyed sharpening various tools and equipment, gardening, and especially being with his granddaughter and family. He is survived by his wife, Rose Marie Baslock, of Bad Axe; two sons, Kenneth J. Baslock and his wife, Karrie, of Bad Axe, and David Baslock, of Bad Axe; and one granddaughter, Laura Baslock, of Bad Axe. He was preceded in death by two brothers and two sisters. Funeral services will be held at noon on Tuesday, June 21, 2005, at the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe. Burial will be in the Colfax Township Cemetery with military honors conducted by the Pigeon VFW. Friends may call from 1 to 8 p.m. on Monday or 10 a.m. until the time of the service on Tuesday at the funeral home. Memorials may be offered to the Pigeon VFW.
