Clinic Opportunity With:

MISHO is offering riding spots in a dressage clinic taught by Chase Hickok. The clinic will be held at Avalon Horse Farm in Millstadt, Illinois. Chase Hickok is an International Grand Prix Rider. Chase has made a name for herself throughout the Young Rider, Under 25 and Open Grand Prix Levels. A three-time United States National Champion at the Grand Prix Level, Chase specializes in the harmony between horse and rider, with special understanding of the development of the partnership necessary to excel at all levels of dressage.

Most recently, Chase and her Grand Prix partner Sagacious HF were the 2016 US Dressage Finals Champions in the Open Grand Prix and Open Grand Prix Freestyle. In 2017 they had many top-10 placings in the Global Dressage Festival CDI Divisions including a win in the CDI World Cup Qualifier Grand Prix Special and a second place finish in the Palm Beach Derby Grand Prix Freestyle World Cup Qualifier. During the summer of 2017, they represented the United States in the Nations Cup teams at Falsterbo, Sweden and Hickstead, England, where they were the top US finishers at both competitions including a second place finish behind Swedish Olympian Patrik Kittel at the Falsterbo CDIO 5*.

MISHO is committed to providing education opportunities for its members. MISHO will be subsidizing part of the lesson fee to MISHO members and will be paying the facility fee instead of including this fee into the costs for riders.

FEES

Lessons are private 45 minute sessions. Auditing is free.

Members – $50.00

Non-Members – $100.00

Registration and payment must be postmarked by July 9, 2018. This clinic is nonrefundable unless your spot can be filled.
