The National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., Harrisburg Chapter (NCBW) is accepting applications our 2022 post-secondary Advocacy Scholarship Award. Our scholarship award was created to help support the efforts of high school female students of color, pursuing a degree at a post-secondary institution of higher education. Three (3) $500.00 scholarships will be awarded to deserving high school graduates.

Completed application and all supporting documentation, must be received on or before April 30, 2022.

*Please ensure that all documents are submitted together in one email or mailed packaged with the exception of official transcripts which may come from school personnel.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be a female student of color who will graduate from high school in 2022.
- Must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale.
- Must have performed at least 20 hours of verifiable community service with an established organization.
- Plans to enroll in a full-time technical, associate or baccalaureate degree program in the fall of 2022.
- Must reside in Central PA.

Submission Requirements and Documentation:

1. Must submit a completed application on or before April 30, 2022.
2. Official (unopened) transcripts must be received by the application deadline. Electronic transcripts submitted directly from graduating high school are acceptable.
3. Essay (preferably 500 words or less). Please explain what advocacy means to you and if you had to advocate on behalf of someone else in the area health, education, or economic development, which area would you choose and why?
4. Proof of graduation must be provided before funds are released.
