

A Call to Prayer: Praying for Our Nation, Our President, and Getting Us Back to Christ

A struggle has been going on within my heart and brain as to whether to post about this or not. Whether to share this or keep it to myself. Whether it was something others would want to hear, share, or participate in. Every day, I would see this book laying in various spots within my home as I have been reading and rereading it. I would see it and think, I really need to post about this and get other praying as well, it's the right thing to do... but then I'd get distracted. I would see the book again and think the same thoughts about posting... but then I would get discouraged by thinking that "no one wants to hear about this; no one will want to join me in this." And so, another day would pass. Then today, a question was asked, "Who's got your hand?" and then the analogy was given of our hand in Jesus' hand and His in God's hand. WOW! That's where the conviction in me started to really flare and I finally said, "Ok, God, I hear you loud and clear!" If God has my hand, why aren't I having His back by posting about this, spreading His Words, working for Him like before? Just because I'm quarantined to my home doesn't mean I stop, right? Right! What better time than during this quarantine to be in prayer and send letters, cards and messages to people about God, about what's right and in God's word. Man, conviction is a powerful thing! So here it goes.....

A Christian relative shared a book with me recently, ("Trump and the Future of America" by Jeremiah Johnson<sup>1</sup>) and while I put off reading it for the first week I had it, I finally did. This book was very insightful, inspiring and carries such a profound message that everyone needs to hear, especially believers and followers of Christ. This book not only talks about Trump and the things he has and is going through, but also talks about the Christians, our failures and shortcomings, our lack of standing up for God and His Word where and when needed most; how we have silenced our voice and the Church's voice; and what is needed from us, now more than ever. Johnson points out that the Christians need to stop being judgmental when it comes to President Trump and leave his past in the past, because God has! Just because he doesn't fit into this hyped up perception of what a "born again Christian" should be like, look like or sound like, isn't for us to determine or judge, he is still in a growing state, a newborn if you will. There are countless people in the Bible that had checkered pasts (and let's face it, even you and me) that came to Christ and was used in supernatural ways.

With the 2020 elections this year; the chaos we are being faced with right now with this Co-Vid19 virus; God being removed from more and more things daily; with the hatred and persecution against Christians; the world falling deeper and deeper into the devils hands, (and let's face it, it's at our allowance). God called us to be the salt and light of the world, so why are we still allowing all this vinegar to be spewed? Us as Christian believers need to be more prayerful now than ever before. We need to be standing on God's Word, sharing it with everyone, and standing up against what is wrong in this world (abortion, racism, left-wing liberalism, extreme radical feminism, sex trafficking, child abuse, multiple sources of addiction, and so much more.) We need to stop allowing our culture and the evil that is fighting to gain new ground every day as we as a Church idly sit back and remain silent. We need to be getting ourselves, our families, our children, our society and our churches back to the basics....back to a Christ built foundation... and not just for when times are rough and tough, but every second of every minute, every hour of every day, a time such as this! God needs to be overflowing from us and in us always!

In this book and statements from other very prominent Christians leaders and evangelists, it has been stated that for President Trump to win this election, it is going to take ALL Christians to be praying for him, standing behind him, and reaching out to God like never before to flood this world with HIM. And for us to get God back into everything, like it should have always been.

With all that being said, I finish with these thoughts and request...

We know that God is still in control and miracles are still being worked today. And as Pastor Jim said today in his morning message, God is always available and always has the ability. We are called for a purpose, and that purpose is to spread His Word - shout it from the roof tops for all to hear! We have the ability to start a spiritual revival across this land with our prayers and fasting, with our obedience, and with our faith in HIM! We just have to cry out, and take a stand! God assures us in Matthew 18:20 that “For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”

Many believers and non-believers alike, believe that God placed President Trump in office for a reason and we also believe that God isn't done with him yet and that He will keep President Trump in office until he has completed God's tasks....BUT we must also do our part. And He tells us exactly how we are to go about getting done what is needed in 2 Chronicles 7:14 “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

At the end of each of the ten chapters of this book, there are sections titled, “Prayer Points.”<sup>2</sup> It gives an itemized list of things to pray for based upon what was talked about in the chapter along with scripture references. I decided to break each chapter’s prayer points down into a daily prayer guide for myself with all the scriptures typed out to make things a little easier. I printed them out and have them in a couple different spots in my house so that wherever I happen to be, I can pray. I've attached the Prayer Points list at the end of this.

I'm asking that each of you, stand steadfast with me in prayer and fasting for:

- President Trump;
- Vice President Pence;
- our Nation; the world;
- against the wrongs of this world and things that blatantly go against God's Word;
- to rebuke the devil and his angels from our homes, our lives, our way of living and conducting day to day tasks, and from our government and laws that go against God;
- for our families and for each of us individually to come back to Christ whole-heartedly, refreshed and ready to carry out His works;
- that God would bring about a revival to our land, forgive us for allowing what He created to be dismantled and destroyed, and to overflow us with a healing that only He can deliver.

I pray that God convicts all of our hearts to come closer to Him; to yearn and strive for a deeper relationship with Him; to pray for our President and for changes to take place where God is put first again; and that once again, God will be the foundation in our lives and in America.

Prayerfully,
Tanya
