Two Harbors City Administrator Resigns

By Kitty Mayo

At a regular meeting of the Two Harbors city council on Monday, June 27th the resignation of Dan Walker, city administrator, was accepted.

Walker stated his thanks to the city and the community for supporting him in his role over the last six and a half years.

Moving to Montana with his family for a new job opportunity, Walker says while looking forward to the move, he will also take good memories with him.

"It's tough to leave, we've made so many great relationships with people in the community and moved forward so many things with the city. Two Harbors has been such a good home for us, and we are going to miss it," said Walker.

Walker's last day in the position will be on July 16th. Miranda Pietila, current finance director for the city, was approved as interim city administrator.

Mayor Chris Swanson thanked Walker for all his hard work and wished him the best of luck going forward.

A heartfelt response to Walker's resignation came from council member Cathy Erickson who recounted the numerous issues they worked on together, such as negotiations and legislative work, as well as guidance during her time as council president.

"I want to share my appreciation of Dan Walker for his six-and-a-half years of leadership," said Erickson.
