

Oxford's Mission

Oxford School is an international learning community of excellence, enabling students of different cultures and language abilities to become independent learners and effective communicators in English. Oxford prepares students with the knowledge, discipline, and skills to succeed at the university level and contribute to the multicultural world of the 21st Century.