

Los Olivos Hand Car Wash
232 McDowell Rd
Phoenix, AZ 85004

NEWS RELEASE

Los Olivos Hand Car Wash celebrates 25 spectacular years
Car wash prices dialed back to 1989 prices on March 20th

For immediate release: February 18, 2014

(Phoenix, Ariz.) Local business Los Olivos Hand Car Wash is gearing up to celebrate its Silver Anniversary the entire week of March 17th.

“It’s been quite a ride!” says owner Coletta Spurling. “And we want to thank the community for making us the best car wash in town!”

The festivities begin the week of March 17th, with specials offered every day that week:

Monday, March 17 th	the first 25 customers get free burritos from El Nuevo Taquito
Tuesday March 18 th	the first 25 customers get certificates from Hamburger Habit
Wednesday March 19 th	the first 25 customers get chicken salad from The Spicery/Glendale
Thursday March 20th	From 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. car wash prices rolled back to $6.99, the original price in 1989 Free goodies by Honeybear’s Barbecue Coffee and pastries by Copper Star Coffee Special appearances by local celebrities: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Former Arizona Rattlers and Utah Blaze player Hunkie Cooper• Phoenix Mercury Mascot Scorch• Phoenix Mercury hip hop dance squad dancers, including “Weezy” and “Sweet Pea”• Local writer Jana Bommersbach
Friday March 21 st	From 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m., the first 25 customers get a free grab bag, filled with surprises

All week every 25th car wash is free. Spurling will also be giving away a Phoenix Art Museum membership donated by Museum director Jim Ballinger. Other giveaways include manicures, oil changes, haircuts, and many other goodies.

Twenty-five years ago, Spurling, a young newly-divorced single mother began working at the Valley’s first hand car wash as a second job. Thirteen years later, in 2002, she took a chance and invested everything she had to buy the car wash on 3rd Street and McDowell. She quickly gained recognition for her business acumen and was named “Rookie of the Year” by the Western Car Wash Association in 2004.

Today Los Olivos Hand Car Wash continues to be a highly successful woman-owned business with a roster of local clientele that reads like a Who’s Who of Phoenix. Los Olivos also has long-standing contracts with many government entities such as the City of Phoenix and Maricopa County as well as private companies such as Banner Health, Phoenix Metro and Shamrock Foods.

For more information, contact Coletta Spurling at 602-258-2822