Some draw licenses are allocated specifically for hunters who hire outfitters. According to the 19.30.8.12 NMAC, New Mexico requires outfitters and hunter-clients to sign an *agreement specifying the conditions under which the hunt will be conducted prior to the hunter applying for one of these licenses.

David Mathews Outfitters requires a 50% deposit upon success of the draw. We accept personal check, money order, cashier check or credit card (MasterCard or Visa). If paying with a credit card, a 3% transaction fee will be added. Deposits are non-refundable. In the rare case of an emergency a deposit may be applied to a later hunt. The remaining 50% is due upon arrival at the beginning of the hunt in the form of cash, money order or cashier check. We do not accept personal check for the final payment. The hunt price includes an experienced guide, food, drinks (excluding alcoholic beverages) and lodging. These prices do not include any travel costs, guide gratuity, game meat processing, taxidermy services, license or stamp fees. All hunts are conducted one on one unless otherwise agreed upon between outfitter and hunter-client. Each camp consists of wall tents, camp trailers, ranch houses or motels depending on the individual hunt.

Upon notification of success in drawing a New Mexico tag, please contact David Mathews at 928-300-6405. You will be sent a hunt contract with your specific hunt dates, units/codes and hunt cost.

Please sign and return this contract via mail, or e-mail. Contact information listed above.
