SLO CDS Adult Amateur Clinic with Melissa Creswick

On April 2 and 3 I was privileged to ride in the Adult Amateur Clinic at Golden Hills Farm with Melissa Creswick. The clinic actually started on Friday night with a dinner at the home of Iris Schedler and was sponsored by our chapter. This was required of all riders and was a chance to meet Melissa and find out what her goals for the clinic were.

The 12 riders in the clinic were of different levels of riding and the horses ranged in breeds from warmbloods to Thoroughbreds, to Quarter Horses, to Mustangs, to a Lipizzan cross. Melissa is an "S" judge as well as a trainer, instructor, and rider, and her perspective for each horse and rider combination was unique. She has a good eye and not much slipped by her and, several times, I thought she was reading my mind. She had many ways to approach any problem and a kind, but firm way of asking for what she wanted and she combined that with a great sense of humor.

Not only did I learn a lot of new things to try with my horse but, in watching the other riders, I learned much, too. It was fun to watch everyone change from the beginning of the lesson on the Saturday to the end of the last lesson on Sunday.

Melissa also engaged the auditors and made them a part of the clinic. She was very patient in answering questions and explaining what she was looking for and asking for with each horse and rider combination.

I really appreciate the opportunity that CDS and our chapter gave me to have this amazing experience. I hope future riders will have the chance to ride and learn as much as I did in this clinic. It is a truly unique forum.

VALLEY OAKS REGAL STORM

(aka Reggie)

Reggie is an 11 year old Morgan gelding. He stands 15.2 hh and weighs about 1,000lbs. Owner purchased him for their daughter who started him under saddle intending to ride dressage, but due to financial hardships, owners are no longer able to keep him. The owner of the boarding ranch Reggie lives at says he has great collection and has uphill dressage movement. Trainer says he would be a good starter horse for a junior rider and is gentle with a very soft hand. He is not wearing any shoes right now, but gets his feet done regularly. Owner is asking $7,000 obo. You can see (and ride) him at Heather Rodriguez Ranch at 3051 Telephone Rd, Santa Maria (805) 478-8862 or email Heather at hmhorses@hotmail.com
