

Health and Human Services

- Partnering with Cancer Services of Greater Baton Rouge to provide support and services to African-American women in East Baton Rouge.
- “Let’s Shop Healthy,” a supermarket shopping experience with parents and children to encourage healthy food choices while purchasing wisely
- Educating parents on healthy snacks as alternatives at Halloween through its "Trunk or Treat" project
- Collaborating with the Baton Rouge Mayor’s office’s, “Healthy Baton Rouge” initiative to focus on childhood obesity

Services to Youth

- Partnering with East Baton Rouge Parish Schools to provide support for arts programming
- Providing critical disaster relief following the floods in 2017 including donating chairs for the North Banks graduation.
- Partnering with Big Buddy to provide mentoring support and college scholarships to African-American students in East Baton Rouge Parish

National Trends and Services

- Host Links Day at the Capitol to advocate on the issues important to African-American communities statewide.
- Hosted documentary viewing events with Louisiana Public Broadcasting on their acclaimed HBCU series.
- Sponsoring a preview of Black America Since MLK: And Still I Rise

The Arts

- Partnering with the Louisiana Arts and Science Museum for 19 years to showcase African-American Art Exhibitions and Performances
- Providing scholarships for students at majoring in Fine Arts at Southern University

International Trends

- Providing books and supplies to South African and Haitian Schools Supporting outreach programs in Jamaica

Linked in Friendship, Connected in Service

Soundra Temple Johnson

Sponsorship Chair

Soundrajt@gmail.com

225-938-0661