

Edinburg Community Yard Sale

Participate and get on the Map:

On June 15th, 9 AM TO 3 PM, Edinburg township will hold a Community Yard sale as part of Edinburg Townships' Bicentennial 2019 celebration. A map of all the community yard sale homes will be posted and sold at the Edinburg Township Table at Edinburg United Church. If you live in Edinburg township and you want to participate, follow this information to get your home on the map and your yard sale advertised.

The completed map of all the community participants will be sold to yard sale patrons, for a small fee, advertising your sale address.

To be placed on the community map, send your address and a small general description of items you might be selling ( example: general household items, glassware, baby clothes) and and mail it to: Fiscal officer, P.O. Box 485, Rootstown Ohio 44272 or please email the information to Bill McCluskey, Fiscal officer, at edinburgfobill@gmail.com. A small donation although not required, would help defray publication costs.

Deadline to be placed on the map is June 10th, 2019. The yard sale will be advertized on Craig's list and The Record Courier. It will also be available on the Yard Sale Treasure map app.

Limited space is available at the Edinburg United Church if any residents are interested in participating in their Yard Sale, they will also be posted on the map. To purchase a space at the church, follow link: <https://edinburg.breezechms.com/form/d19b18>
