

Naz Baig

Homemaker since marriage-an admirable position that allows her to participate in community affairs. Specifically known to support projects of the local Muslim Communities or those projects with a pronounced Muslim presence and participation.

Education

B.A.: Political Science, Economics, English, and Islamic History.

Residence

Resident of Dallas for approximately 20 years

Experience

CAIR (Council on American–Islamic Relations) and Refugee Programs

Current Involvement: An active member of the Out-Reach Committee from INAT (Islamic Association of North Texas) and its liaison between it and Huma-Faith.