

Readers remarks about Thoughts to Ponder

I have found Thoughts to Ponder to be filled with little treasures. Each devotional has been a glimpse of the workings of our Lord. This book has been a reminder for me to look to God in all things, even the little ones. When we stop to ponder we will surely see Gods grace and love. -

Carla Hill, Administrative Assistant

A book is only a tool to be used for one's own good. Thoughts to Ponder gave me thought conditioners to refresh and reinforce positive attitudes, helping me dispel doubts which aided me to persevere in the world of man. We all need reinforcement in our love for GOD. We get distracted, so we need tools to keep us on the right track and Thoughts to Ponder is in my tool chest! - Paul Lanchantin, Investment Advisor Representative

I am reading Thoughts to Ponder for the second time. It is a blessing to me because I start every morning reading one story along with my Bible and then I pray. Reading makes me appreciate life and makes me a happier person. I thank God everyday for saving my soul. - Emma Fink

This book will be a priceless treasure for the rest of my life. Because of my love for reading, I have already included Thoughts To Ponder in my daily devotions. Having found the first several devotions so inspiring and interesting to read, I have already moved ahead several pages. It is hard not for me to do this, especially since I know the author... I highly recommend this book to all my family and friends. In fact, if I were a book credit, this is one I would give great reviews.. Thanks for the wonderful and insightful look into the daily life of someone special to my heart. - Linwood Benton, Jr., Retired Minister and Maryland State Police Chaplain
