

LIBERTY REGION CORVETTE CLUB ACTIVITY DISCLAIMER

The Liberty Region Corvette Club (LRCC) and its Activity Coordinators, and/or any other organization or person working or associated with LRCC Activities are not responsible for the loss or injury to any member, participating passengers, individual property or passenger's property any time during club activities. All vehicles participating in club sponsored activities must be covered under a current auto insurance policy.

This disclaimer identifies that neither LRCC nor Activity Coordinators, are responsible for any errors, omissions, acts or failures to act of any person or entity providing, operating, supervising, conducting or otherwise associated with the Activity or any items associated with the Activity.

There will be no alcoholic beverages, cooking appliances and/or firearms brought to any activity and is strictly prohibited. Members should also be aware that they or others participating in club activities may be photographed and subsequently used in LRCC publications, including electronic media, promotional literature, advertising and other similar communications.