

Mrs. Ewald Dies at Bad Axe

Rites Tuesday for Elkton Resident

Special to The Times

ELKTON—Mrs. Rosa Kaercher Ewald, 68, widow of Arthur Ewald and resident since early childhood of this vicinity, died Sunday in Hubbard Memorial hospital in Bad Axe, after a long illness. Mrs. Ewald entered the hospital Friday afternoon.

Born April 26, 1889, in Cavalier, N. D., Mrs. Ewald came when she was a child to this vicinity. Her husband died in April, 1955.

She is survived by four sons, Harry, Walter and Arnold Ewald, all of Elkton, and Milford Ewald, of East Detroit; three daughters, Miss Dorothy Ewald, who resided with her mother; Mrs. Leonard Fritz, of Elkton, and Mrs. Gerald Fuller, of Caro; 11 grandchildren; and a brother, Joseph W. Kaercher, of Jeddo, Mich.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in St. Paul's Evangelical United Brethren church here. The Rev. Morris Bauman will officiate and burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

The body is in James F. Colgan Funeral chapel and will be removed at noon Tuesday to the church to lie in state until time of the services.
