

Mark Cameron McBride, 60, of Ubly, Michigan passed away suddenly on Sunday, July 12, 2015 at Huron Medical Center.

Mark was born in Pigeon on December 23, 1954.

Mark grew up in Elkton and Bad Axe and for many years lived at the Genesis Home in Ubly. He had a micro business at Thumb Industries with his friend Deb. For years he was part of Team Genesis and the CA/N Council raising money for child abuse and neglect. Their team placed first in Huron County for donations in 2015. He participated in aquatics, bowling and other activities at Special Olympics and attended many Tigers and Loons games. He loved camping, concerts, and movies but especially loved anything to do with music and singing.

Mark was predeceased by his parents Robert and Cecilia McBride of Bad Axe and sister Theresa McBride of Ubly.

He is survived by his sisters Julia (Lloyd) Schattyn, and Janine (Vance) McBride-Rahn all of Anderson, South Carolina; Aunts Margaret Taylor of Pigeon, and Carolyn McLean Kennedy of Franklin, Tennessee and Uncles Carroll McBride of Petoskey, and Ralph Funk of Batchtown, Illinois, plus many cousins. He is also survived by his Genesis family and friends who greatly enriched his life, especially Carrie Shaltonis, Margaret Guitar, JoAnn Fisher and Margie Gettel.

Graveside service will be held Tuesday, July 21, at 11:00 a.m. at McTaggart Cemetery on Rescue Road south of Bad Axe with Reverend Stewart Justin officiating.

MacAlpine Funeral Home of Bad Axe will be handling all of the arrangements.

Memorials may be offered to the Genesis Home in Ubly.

Condolences can be shared at www.macalpinefuneralhome.com