

The Dancer's Sole

The Dancer's Sole, located at 6 Main Street in Webster, opened its doors in 2013 and enters 2022 happily celebrating nine years in business. The studio was founded by well-recognized choreographer, experienced instructor & performer, Kristen Surprise St. Laurent. With more than 30 years of dance training and nearly 20 years of teaching experience, Kristen is committed to providing the highest quality dance education in a fun, rewarding yet professional setting. The Dancer's Sole - also known as "TDS" - has continued to grow each year and has quickly become of the area's most popular schools for dance education.

TDS offers classes in several dance genres: ballet, tap, jazz, pointe, lyrical/contemporary, hip-hop, modern, acro-dance, and musical theatre/Broadway dance. In 2021, The Dancer's Sole became certified in Acrobatic Arts, an internationally renowned teaching certification for dance and acrobatics professionals.

Students of all ages are welcome, beginning as young as 18 months old, in both recreational and competitive programs. Dancers can learn, create, and push themselves to their highest potential within every class offered at The Dancer's Sole.

The studio's college-educated faculty includes Kristen Surprise St. Laurent and her staff members: Greta Pearson; Lori Hutchinson; Erin Katinas; and Abbie White. The studio's teachers instill a genuine passion for the arts in their students while providing a safe, enjoyable atmosphere in the classroom.

In addition to their dance programs, the studio proudly honors their newly founded mission, "TDS Gives Back." Each month, a different charitable cause or effort is supported by the TDS to contribute and give back to the community. "TDS Gives Back" fundraisers and campaigns have included: gathering socks for cancer patients at UMASS; collecting spare change for the American Red Cross; and creating holiday cards for local nursing home & hospital patients, to name a few.

Featuring two beautiful, recently renovated studio spaces located conveniently on the Webster/Dudley line, The Dancer's Sole strives to ensure that their students will be treated as family. No matter what your child is seeking for their dance experience, they will be sure to find it at TDS!
