

Karg, Colin

Colin Kelman Karg, 56, of Fort Worth, Texas, a loving husband, dad, and doting grandfather, was called to his heavenly home Sunday, October 3, 2004. An electrician and jack of all trades, he loved to invent things and always helped anyone in need. Colin was born March 22, 1948 in Bad Axe, to the late Kelman and Dorothy Jurgess Karg. He was a member of Zion Lutheran Church of Watauga, Texas. Colin married Della Woodke on June 14, 1969 at St. Johns Lutheran Church, Port Hope. Colin is survived by his wife, Della Karg, of Forth Worth, Texas; children, James Karg and his wife, Marlo, of Roanoke, Texas, and Jennifer Gruber and her husband, Bret, of Saginaw, Texas; brother, Lloyd Karg and his wife, Heidi, of Bradenton, Florida; sisters, Marlene Pfaff, of Goodrich, and Carol Clark and her husband, Donnie, of Harbor Beach; grandchildren, Heather and Julia Karg; and his favorite dogs, Loki and Tuffy. In addition to his parents, a sister preceded him in death. Funeral services took place at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, October 6, 2004, at Mid-Cities Funeral Home Chapel, 5706 Airport Freeway, Haltom City, Texas. Memorials may be made in Colin's name to the American Cancer Society, 3301 West Freeway, Fort Worth, Texas 76107.
