Closing Prayer

Robert Parmer

There shall be showers of blessing;

This is the promise of love;

There shall be seasons refreshing,

Sent from the Savior above.

Showers of blessing,

Showers of blessing we need;

Mercy-drops round us are falling,

But for the showers we plead.

There shall be showers of blessing,

If we but trust and obey;

There shall be seasons refreshing,

If we let God have His way.

PRAYER LIST

Sandy Parmer asked that we keep the following people in our prayers: Erik and Ashley Brown, Jim Smith, has Parkinson Disease, Kailyn, who is Sandy's 15 year old granddaughter as she struggles with life challenges. Linda Raymond is receiving chemo therapy for inflammation as a result of COVID. John, Sandy's friend in Illinois is starting chemo for cancer. Phyllis Bryant is being treated for pancreatic cancer. Rob Seel surgery to remove the cancer from his duodenum went well. Shirley Lynne doctors trying to find what's causing her eye problem.

Mindy Scaffa has been given an English bulldog puppy to be trained as a seeing-eye dog should she ever need additional help to move about in the next few years. She is feeling much better this week after changing neurologist. She is being weaned off prednisone, Darlene Queen tires easily and has trouble maintaining her balance and also has an occasional migraine headache. Jerry says she has some good days. They request prayers as she deals with the flu and her son Lee Sanders has Covid.

Darlene's daughter, Tabitha Sutton is still needing a heart transplant. Jeanne Horton went to her home in Florida to begin chemo treatments. She will finish her second round of chemo in February and begin her third round around April 2023

Jim Sexton, minister of the Cherokee congregation is still battling stage 4 cancer, he has moved with his wife to northern Mississippi to be closer to his daughter.

Sheilah Queen requests prayers for her husband Johnnie and herself. She is doing what she can to avoid having a shunt placed to remove the toxins not being removed by her kidney.

Richard Hicks, the brother of Norma Leiby, has requested prayers as he goes through chemotherapy for inflammation of the filters inside his kidney.

Cheri Meaders, of Blairsville, friend of the Stephensons is in hospice.

Karen Wray continues to improve post surgery on her spine. Dean and Karen thank you for your prayers.

Ute Chewning's six-month-old great-granddaughter, Aria Lopez had a successful liver transplant in Delaware and is doing well.

Connie Diaz underwent surgery on February 6th to remove kidney stones and returned home the same day.

Sheri's co-worker Barbara has a spot on her breast, results of biopsy still pending. Barbara is a believer but not a church goer so let's pray for her salvation as well.

Sybil Eubanks is recovering from knee surgery. She is currently receiving rehab.

You may not be on this list but, we are all in need of prayer. Pray for all victims of violence which seems to be increasing. The pandemic and flu season has taken and continues to take its toll on many and depression, homicides and suicides are higher. Take time to check on your neighbors!

REACH, Inc. – Community Outreach
Staff are requesting Clorox swipes, cleaning supplies and laundry detergent for the Safe House.

As the staff travel to the schools to discuss domestic violence, they have identified a need for children’s underwear and socks of varying sizes. They have also adopted some families to help as well. If you have items of clothing (clean and in good condition), children’s books, etc. to donate please place them in the blue bin located in the pantry. Check out the clearance section at Walmart next time you go shopping.

Stacy can always use some small tote bags and small travel size items to fill them with, e.g. travel size shampoo and conditioner, toothbrushes, tooth paste, travel size deodorant, hand sanitizer, etc. She is having difficulty finding small bottles of hand sanitizer so next time you go shopping pick up a few bottles..

Please contact the REACH office staff if you have furniture you want to donate to arrange pickup by the Thrift Store volunteers. They also ask for cooking utensils for helping them start over. So, if you have something you no longer want, they could use them. Often the victims leave home with only the clothes on their back, so they are given clothes, furniture, and items for the home from the Thrift Store until they can get back on their feet. They also can use items to help their self-esteem and pass the time until they can be placed in a safe environment. You can provide puzzles (500 pieces or less), adult coloring books, reading material, make-up, nail polish, hair clips, etc.

Volunteers and donors are always needed. Call the office at 828-837-2097 or 828-837-8064 for more information. Local REACH covers Cherokee and Graham County.

We need your help to keep our pantry stocked. If no family or individual has made a special request; then, Lula pulls items off the shelves and the last or first Tuesday of the month she takes them to the Cherokee County Food Bank, Inc. in Andrews, NC.

You can also write a check payable to the Andrews Food Bank, P. O. Box 843, Andrews, NC 28901

Weather Can Be Unpredictable!

Be careful when driving because of the early morning fog. Wet roads can be hazardous for 'black ice'. Snow and rain can also create visibility issues. Heed the weather alerts and do not drive if you don't need to be out.

People are still suffering through the impact of hurricanes and tornadoes. There have been deaths most recently during the recent blizzards and snowstorms.

New Songs

Do you have a new song you would like the congregation to learn or a favorite song you would like to hear? If you do let Roy Goodlet know.

We Will Dance

Sing a song of celebration
Lift up a shout of praise
For the Bridegroom will come
The glorious one
And oh we will look on His face
We'll go to a much better place

And dance with all your might
Lift up your hands and clap for joy
The time's drawing near
When He will appear
And oh we will stand by His side
A strong pure spotless bride.
Oh, we will dance on the streets
that are golden
The glorious bride and the great
Son of Man
Let every tongue and tribe and nation
Rejoice in the song of the Lamb.

Happy Valentine's Day February 14th

*What will you give your loved one?
Candy, flowers, or a special outing.*

Black History Month is an annual celebration in the United States that recognizes the history, culture, and contributions of Black Americans every February.

Although we certainly don't need an awareness holiday to embrace and honor Black history, this month is an opportunity to reconcile with the past, pave the way for a more just future, and celebrate all the amazing figures who have taken their place in the annals of Black History.

The truth is many of us are woefully unaware of the depth, breadth, and relevance of Black history. While we still work to remind our loved ones and colleagues that the need for racial justice is as present and persistent as ever, it's also difficult for us to comprehend just how recently so much of Black history has taken place. While we look at black-and-white images from the Civil Rights Movement like a long-lost period in American history, we must remember that some of our parents and grandparents watched these events unfold — only a single century after the abolition of slavery in the United States.

In fact, the origins of Black History Month developed just a little over 60 years after the 13th Amendment was ratified. In 1926, the Association for the Study of African American Life and History sponsored a national "Negro History Week," coinciding with the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass in the second week of February.

It wasn't until 1976 that Black History Month was officially recognized. So, it's safe to say we have a lot of catching up to do — as a society, and as individuals.

A Night in Bethlehem 2023

One Night in Bethlehem 2022 was a success! Several people signed up for world bible class, and we gave away all the cookies and children's bibles. If you want to help us, get a head start on the planning for 2023, you can donate funds for the purchase of books and make sure you write on the check for Night in Bethlehem or if you want to give cash let Dean know it is a donation for 2023 "Night in Bethlehem".
