

CP-04 Counseling Special Populations I

$210

Cultural Difference in Counseling

20 hours

Objectives: Understanding the treatment implications and considerations in providing counseling services to those with different cultural backgrounds. Enables the therapist to counsel clients from different cultural backgrounds with greater confidence.

Text: Multicultural Counseling and Psychotherapy: A Life Span Perspective by Leroy Baruth & M. Lee Manning
ISBN: 0131706810

Women & Addiction

12 hours

Objectives: Examines the implications inherent in counseling women clients involved with addiction. Better prepares the therapist in providing counseling services that are specifically tailored to meet the needs of women in therapy.

Text: Chemical Dependency: Women at Risk by Brenda L. Underhill (Editor), Dana G. Finnegan (Editor) ISBN: 1560230886

Counseling the Older Addict

12 hours

Objectives: Gain a greater appreciation of the role and extent substance use has among the older population. Gain a greater understanding of the diagnostic, treatment and aftercare implications of the older clients.

Texts: Addictions Treatment for Older Adults by Kathryn Marie Graham, et. al. ISBN: 1560248572

Counseling Clients w/ Disabilities

18 hours

Objective: Provides the counselor with a background in the special needs and considerations needed when treating clients who have disabilities.

Text: Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy for Persons with Disabilities by Cynthia L. Radnitz ISBN: 076570238X

Men In Therapy

12 hours

Objective: To study the unique and challenging needs men have when entering a counseling relationship.

Text: Men In Therapy: The Challenge of Change by Robert L. Meth, et. al. ISBN: 0898624851

The Criminal Personality

16 hours

Objectives: This course examines the origins of criminal thinking and behavior giving you a better and firmer background of the full continuum of antisocial clients you frequently deal with.

Text: The Criminal Personality: A Profile For Change by Samuel Yochelson & Stanton Samenow ISBN: 1568211058