

The Tale of Palace Singer

My name is Danny Boy and I was born in New York on March 17, 2018. My registered Jockey Club name is Palace Singer, to honor my parents.

My dad is Palace, a son of City Zip. He's a multiple graded stakes winning millionaire! He was even a Breeders' Cup Sprint participant!

Sing It Out is my mom. Her dad is Henny Hughes and he is a multiple graded stakes winning millionaire and also ran in the Breeders' Cup! My mom's mom is Chelsea Ballad by Street Cry and guess what? He is a graded stakes winning multi-millionaire!

Growing up, I had a lot of fun! I lived in New York, New Jersey and then in Florida when I started school. The teacher said I needed to have my "man bits" removed because they were bothering me. I came through like a champ and not only felt better but I started moving so much better! My human parents always sing praises about how well mannered and well behaved I am!

After school, I came back to New Jersey and went to Monmouth Park Racetrack. I started working and my trainer told my parents I was not breathing right. I needed a tie-back procedure. My human parents sent me right away and I healed fabulously! I'm as good as new, working and training great!

My human mom and dad always try to provide the best for me. They only ask that I always try my best and to pick an aftercare charity I will run for. I decided on Gerda's Equine Rescue, in honor of my mom, Sing It Out. When my human parents adopted my mom, they were told she had been in a kill pen but kind people remembered her. She was saved and brought to a farm where she had my little sister before going to live with my human parents. The rest is history!

My mom was fortunate but many are not. Gerda's Equine Rescue saves lives from unthinkable fates and I am proud to run and earn for them!

I think I'm a pretty lucky horse and hope to succeed in my race career! There is "Winner" in my blood so I can't wait for my first race!

Well, that's all that's happened in my life so far. I hope you might continue to follow my journey because I'm sure there will be plenty to add to my story!
