The words that Jesus speaks at the end of today's Gospel sum up the whole tenor of his life: "For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." Indeed, these words speak of the nature of greatness in the Kingdom of God and provide a poignant message for us to meditate on as Christ's disciples in the twenty-first century. The nature of greatness in God's Kingdom implies that we imitate Jesus in his humble, servant-like love for others. That we be servants of one another and of humankind is the core message of discipleship. What a world this would be if each one of us were to live our lives in humble service! Then, the Kingdom of God would be truly at hand.

The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.
Mark 10:45

OCTOBER 20 - WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: At the initiative of Pope Pius XI in 1926, the second last Sunday during October became known as World Mission Sunday. It is the responsibility of all Christian believers to spread the Gospel and to become involved in today's missionary work, thus sharing in the missionary activity of the Church. Simple ways to become involved are through prayer and through monetary donations. Each Christian community must "pray that the Lord's message may spread quickly and be received with honour" (2 Thess. 3.1). An understanding of the Church's mission should also lead us to give responsibly to the National Collection for World Mission Sunday (from which collection some of our Canadian dioceses still benefit). Catholics throughout the world are invited to pray for and give to the missions. Please give generously.

"War brings out the worst in humanity: selfishness, violence and dishonesty.

Let us reject the line of reasoning that embraces weapons, and instead transform massive military expenditures into investments to combat hunger and the lack of healthcare and education.

October 22 - Memorial of Saint John Paul II, Pope:

the first Pope to step foot on Canadian soil, visiting numerous cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific. In 1987 he returned to meet with the Aboriginal Peoples of the Northwest Territories, and again in 2002 for World Youth Day in Toronto. His pontificate lasted nearly 27 years.
