After visiting Dwejra and the Azure Window, TATITAS RESTAURANT is the perfect stop for a light snack, lunch, afternoon tea or dinner al fresco by the church in the square of San Lawrenz, one of the most tranguil and beautiful

The restaurant is a professionally renovated and designed hundred-year-old house of character. It is a familyrun restaurant which specialises in local fresh fish and traditional classic Maltese and Mediterranean gastronomy. Among the local dishes served are the home-made local Gozo sheep's cheese ravioli, braised rabbit, spaghetti with rabbit sauce and various platters.

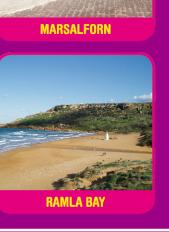

Tatitas Restaurant is highly recommended by many local and international guide books.

During this stop, one can also admire the interior of the village church. Several oil paintings adorn the walls and ceiling of this church. Some of these are painted by the famous Maltese artist Giuseppe Calì. The church is decorated by hand-carved stone works by devoted locals. Entrance to the church is free.
