

10. Worry-free Public Gatherings - going to football games, parades and special events was always lots of fun. And, millions of Americans never gave a second thought to going to the mall on the weekends to "shop 'til they dropped".

The escalating Islamic threat that any Muslim can "go postal" at any time and set off a bomb, start a stabbing spree or begin shooting into crowds of innocent and unsuspecting Americans has left families fearful of attending large-scale events and venues. In addition, the presence of new security requirements has now made it so inconvenient at some events that it is more trouble to go than it is worth.

11. Law Enforcement Was Highly Regarded - the great majority of our citizens of all cultures respected agencies like the local police, the FBI and CIA and willingly cooperated to help uphold law and order.

Islamic supremacist organizations like the Council on American and Islamic Relations (CAIR) now brazenly display and distribute posters that encourage Muslims to NOT cooperate with the FBI. In addition, they are instructed to immediately bring in lawyers, even when being asked simple routine questions about radicalized members of the Muslim community. Also, many of the leaders of the Black Lives Matter (BLM) movement are Muslim and routinely encourage attacks on law enforcement personnel.

THE NEW ISLAMIC AMERICA

The date 9/11/2001 will always be sadly remembered by America, but the date most remembered and revered by a majority of Muslims is 9/11/1683 - the day Islam was stopped from their bloody, global rampage to conquer the entire world. Now, all Muslims realize they have been called up for duty once again to continue where they left off over 300 years ago. Why? Simple....

The Top 100 Muslim Contributions to America

1. Comfortable Language - Our language and daily TV news reports were familiar and we could easily understand most of what was happening around us. We didn't need to learn Arabic terminology and barbaric cultural norms to understand what was just plain common sense.

Since the Islamic takeover of the US embassy in Tehran in 1979, all we hear, everywhere, is Islam this and Islam that. Jihad, Muslim, martyr, Allah, allahu akbar, Sharia Law, hijab, hijra, etc. We can no longer even turn on our TV's without experiencing feelings of anxiety, knowing we will probably hear about another Muslim running wild and trying to kill someone or blow something up. All this with a population of only 1%. What can we expect at 5-10% like they now have in France? Genocide?

2. Trusted Neighbors - We lived in a land where we trusted our neighbors, helped one another, made friends easily and felt like the large majority of Americans were generally working together for the common good of all.

We can no longer trust our neighbors, especially where our kids are concerned. Muslims from Sharia Law-loving countries are pouring into quiet American communities and bringing their "culture of death". A high number of them are full of hatred for Americans and more than a few are bomb makers, be-headers, rapists and pedophiles.

3. Traditional Holidays - We all celebrated our most cherished holidays like Christmas, Easter, Thanksgiving, Hanukkah, July 4th, Labor Day, etc., that brought us all together for a time of joy and good tidings. Love of country, kindness and friendship have always been the underpinnings of American celebrations.

Our holidays are under constant attack under the guise of not being "inclusive enough" of Islamic and other cultures (even though other cultures never complained until Islam arrived). A majority of Muslims refuse to celebrate most American holidays and instead have their own exclusive holidays that celebrate ancient Islamic massacres with shocking blood-letting rituals and inhumane animal slaughter.

(see our special report, "The Holidays of Islam: A Guide for Non-Muslims" at www.SneakyIslam.com)

4. Children's Celebrations - American kids from all cultures celebrated Valentine's Day, Halloween and other occasions in a fun time for children and adults alike.

Muslims are now demanding that these celebrations be stopped as they are not "inclusive enough". Many schools are now banning these activities completely to appease Muslims intent on destroying American culture.

5. Fun Vacations - Travel by air was fun for the whole family and the delays were reasonable. Airport personnel treated us with respect and greeted us with a smile. Our bags didn't need to be scanned for explosives, we weren't needlessly exposed to radiation from X-Ray machines, we didn't have TSA laughing looking at pictures of our private parts and we certainly didn't have agents groping and fondling our children.

Air travel is a nightmare, thanks to Muslims. It has been transformed from a glamorous, adventurous activity to a cramped, inhospitable affair, with glum, shoe-less hordes holding up their belt-less trousers while jumping through intrusive checkpoints. Passengers are poked, prodded, threatened, herded like cattle, and treated as likely criminals while America is hamstrung from efficiently focusing on the true source of the problem. Meanwhile, Muslims in burkas breeze through the checkpoints like Americans once did before the Islamic invasion started.

6. Trusted Educators - When we sent our kids to school, we didn't worry about what they were being taught. We knew that nearly all teachers had the students' best interests in mind and were focused on all students becoming well-educated, good civic-minded citizens.

Islamic indoctrination is rampant at schools and universities all across America, a practice accommodated by, and funded by, an uninformed American public. Leftist teachers (in cahoots with relentless Islamic groups) are now more focused on a political agenda than they are in delivering a quality education. (The citation below contains a mind-boggling list of concessions allowing Islamic indoctrination of our kids).

7. Patriotic Students - students from all cultures assimilated to the American way of life by honoring the traditions of patriotism like saluting the flag and saying The Pledge of Allegiance.

The Muslim Brotherhood front group CAIR discourages Muslim students from taking the Pledge of Allegiance. Many Muslims now refuse to stand for the National Anthem or to place their hands over their hearts when The Pledge is recited. Disloyalty to America is on open display in classrooms all across America and Muslims are leading the way.

8. History Books Taught History - children of America were taught the history of the U.S. and the world just as events happened. There was never any confusion about the truth of the history being taught or about the true intentions of the teachers or the school board members.

Subversive Muslim groups, along with the liberal Left-wing and Pearson Publishing (semi-owned by Qatar), have infiltrated educational institutions and conspired to distort history to a point that it is now unrecognizable. Islam is consistently glorified and white-washed in textbooks while Christianity and Judaism are made out to be the historical aggressors. In addition, the U.S. is routinely demonized while Islamic countries are held in high esteem and as model examples. This is happening all over America in K-12 as well as in most colleges.

9. Kids Homework Made Sense - children's homework was basically standard fare and primarily consisted of reading, writing and arithmetic. Parents were usually able to easily assist if the kids needed additional help.

Much of the homework in many schools is now taken from the secret lesson plans of Common Core (partially created and funded by Muslim countries) which focuses on indoctrination of Islam. This includes writing about the pillars of Islam, memorizing and writing in Arabic the statement of faith of Islam (Shahada) and composing stories to their parents about their future conversion to Islam. These assignments are backed up in class by role play exercises to dress like Muslims and learn Islamic culture (like physically trying on headscarves) and Islamic vocabulary.
