

Ali Muhammad, VP Civil Rights/Diversity
OPEDA@dm.usda.gov 202-720-4898

Ali Muhammad serves the U.S. Department of Agriculture in the Office of Human Resources Management, Diversity, Recruitment and Work/life as a Diversity and Inclusion Program Specialist, where he routinely monitors recruitment initiatives and hiring statistics to identify new ways for recruiting and hiring a more diverse workforce in alignment with EEOC's Model Agency program guidelines, relative to the Special Emphasis Programs for African and Caribbean American employees and applicants. Mr. Muhammad began his career with USDA adjudicating allegations of discrimination in violation of title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination Act, the Rehabilitation Act and all other Federal and USDA Departmental regulations that protect employees, applicants and customers from discrimination. Mr. Muhammad has also served and a USDA Civil Rights Compliance Program Manager reviewing agency policies and regulations for compliance with all federal and departmental civil rights guidelines.