

Recommended Minimum Scores on the Wonderlic Scholastic Level Exam

To assist Canadian Career Education College in setting minimum acceptable scores for the Scholastic Level Exam, Wonderlic recommends the scores below. Also listed are the corresponding O*NET codes, which were determined by matching the program titles provided with the titles listed within the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET database. Wonderlic utilizes this database as a framework for determining occupational minimum scores based on the knowledge, skills, and abilities required of the position. This determination is based on guidance provided by the U.S. Department of Education, as well as additional research and feedback.

Program	O*NET Code	Suggested SLE Minimum Score
Personal Support and Child Care	39-9011.00	14
E-Business Administration	13-1199.06	14
Database Development & Administration	15-1141.00	15
Hotel Operations & Hospitality Management	11-9081.00	15
Business and Project Management	11-9021.00	15
Emergency Management & Planning	11-9161.00	17
Police Foundations	33-3051.01	15
Citizenship and Immigration Case Processing and Enforcement	33-3021.05	16
Private Investigator and Security Services	33-9021.00	15
Legal Administrative Assistant	23-2011.00	17

Wonderlic's recommendations should be regarded as a starting point for the establishment of minimum scores within specific educational programs. We recommend that the resulting value be further fine-tuned based on research and the applied experiences of our clients.

Recommended Minimum Scores on the Wonderlic Scholastic Level Exam

To assist Canadian Career Education College in setting minimum acceptable scores for the Scholastic Level Exam, Wonderlic recommends the scores below. Also listed are the corresponding O*NET codes, which were determined by matching the program titles provided with the titles listed within the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET database. Wonderlic utilizes this database as a framework for determining occupational minimum scores based on the knowledge, skills, and abilities required of the position. This determination is based on guidance provided by the U.S. Department of Education, as well as additional research and feedback.

Program	O*NET Code	Suggested SLE Minimum Score
Nursing Assistant	31-1014.00	13
Medical Laboratory Assistant	29-2011.00	14
Occupational Health & Safety Administration & Management	29-9012.00	16
Clinical Laboratory & Autopsy Assistant	29-2011.00	14
Long-Term Care Services Administration & Management	11-9111.00	16
Orthopedic Technician Assistant	51-9082.00	16
Pharmacy Assistant	29-2052.00	13
Health Care Services Administration & Management	11-9111.00	16

Wonderlic's recommendations should be regarded as a starting point for the establishment of minimum scores within specific educational programs. We recommend that the resulting value be further fine-tuned based on research and the applied experiences of our clients.