Ask, Seek, Knock

Isn't that a beautiful bird?

I love watching birds. This one was in Jos, Nigeria. It is called a Red-Cheeked Cordon Bleu Finch. It lives in the Sub-Saharan region of Africa, where the city of Jos is located.

How many more of God's birds have I not seen? How much more of His creation is still waiting for my first look?

How small might that creation be and how powerful would a microscope need to be to allow me to see it? Or, how large and how far away might it be? How powerful must the telescope be to enable me to see it?

Our God is truly an infinite God. The more powerful we make our microscopes and our telescopes, the more there is to see of His creation. We will never come to the end of His creation.

But the things that really matter and are the most important are within our sight and grasp.
We can know His will for us. All we need to do is to seek, ask and knock. He will open the door for us. Open His word and find it.

Prayer Warriors Corner

Father, we tend to say too much to our hurting friends. Help us choose our words wisely. Teach us to walk slowly with those in pain as You walk patiently with us. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

Our Daily Bread: Tim Gustafson; July 2015

Read: Job 16:1-5

Scripture readings:
Matthew 7:7-12

“Do not judge, or you too will be judged. For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye. Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces. Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened. Which of you, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him! So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.
